Declaration of Authority

On October 14th 1966, His Holiness Pope Paul VI confirmed the decree of the Sacred Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith, under 56/16 (A.A.S.), permitting the publication of writings concerning supernatural apparitions, even if they do not have a 'Nihil Obstat' from ecclesiastical authorities.

Since the abolition of Canon 1399 and 2318 of the former Canonical Code, publications about new appearances, revelations, prophecies, miracles, etc., have been allowed to be distributed and read by the faithful without the express permission of the Church, providing they contain nothing which contravenes faith and morals. This means that no imprimatur is necessary when distributing information on new apparitions not yet judged by the Church. The compiler of these messages wishes to manifest unconditional submission to the final and official judgement of the Magisterium of the Church regarding any of the content contained within these messages. Notwithstanding the previous statement, all messages contained within have, however, received discernment from the Spiritual Director of the shrine and the visionary.

In Lumen Gentium, Vatican II, Chapter 12, the Council Fathers urged the faithful to be open and attentive to the ways in which the Holy Spirit continues to guide the Church, including private revelations. We hear: "Such gifts of grace, whether they are of special enlightenment or whether they are spread more simply and generally, must be accepted with gratefulness and consolation, as they are specially suited to and useful for, the needs of the Church...Judgements as to their genuineness and their correct use lies with those who lead the Church and those whose special task is not to extinguish the Spirit but to examine everything and keep that which is good."

Public revelation ended with the death of the last apostle. Private revelation, however, has continued from that day until the present. Let us give heed to that which was written in The First Epistle of Saint Paul to the Thessalonians; Chapter 5, Verses 19 & 20:

Extinguish not the spirit. Despise not prophecies.

me often for the guidance you need. Pray also through your brothers and sisters in Christ – the saints and the Heavenly hosts of angels to protect and guide you with the decisions you make in the work of furthering of the Eternal Father's kingdom and the fulfilment of the new Heaven and a new earth.

31st October 2005 (Night Prayer)

The Apostles were called by my Son Jesus to leave everything and follow Him. I ask you this night to also answer the call of Jesus the Christ and become fishers of men. Take courage and say yes, because He is calling you to help in the harvest of men. I have told you many times that the harvest is plentiful but the labourers are few. So many of you sit on the fence and are not willing to step out in faith and speak up and be witnesses of the truth. The time is coming when you will no longer be able to play it safe and wait before making a decision to be true Disciples of Christ. My Son needs you to follow Him right now and do the work He needs you to do. This is the reason you have been told many times to be steeped in prayer and self sacrifice for the time ahead. To follow my Son does take self sacrifice and discipline but the rewards will be great for those who take the step forward. It is important that you have complete trust and believe that your Lord and Saviour will guide you and look after you. There will be people who are against what is happening and you will meet much opposition. I say to you again have courage and do not listen to the doubters but only listen to my Son Jesus. Spend time with Him daily and you will be given the strength you need. Time is running out. Make the right choice. Choose to be followers of my Son Jesus who is the light of the world and who will guide you to your Eternal Father and to your heavenly inheritance. Begin the journey of trust now. I will be with you and will help you.

13th June 2005

I need you to do my work with all those who no longer listen to My Son and who no longer go to Church or receive Him in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. Nurture them and guide them towards the light of my Adored Son Jesus the Christ.

How do I do this?

Little by little, take small steps. Be patient with them. Pray for their conversion. Consecrate them to my Immaculate Heart and the Sacred Heart of my Son Jesus, the Christ.

Be with them in their loneliness and sorrow. Don't abandon them like they abandoned Jesus. Be guided by the scriptures and by my words to you and stay close to the Blessed Trinity, three in one.

I ask my children to come close to me. Be not afraid just as I was not afraid when the Angel Gabriel told me I was to be the Mother of Christ.

I need you to empty yourselves of your burdens so you may be replenished with the gifts of the Holy Spirit, so you may be filled with strength for the work I have planned for you.

“Come little children come unto me those who are weak of heart and I will give you nourishment.”

20th June 2005

My sons and daughters be at peace and know that I am near you waiting for you to open your hearts to me. Don't be afraid. Come close to me. Every time you say a rosary you are very close to me. Say each decade with feeling and I will take your prayers to my Son Jesus, the Christ and to His Father in Heaven. Use the gifts I have given you and you will be protected. Invoke the Holy Spirit to help you and stay close to my Immaculate Heart and to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. As I have said don't be afraid. I love you and want the very best for you. We are in challenging times and you need to stay alert. Be on guard and don't be distracted from the truth of my Adored Son, Jesus. Read Scripture and pray in earnest. Pray for the redemption of mankind.

“Mary, my Mother I love you. Help me to love others like you did and do.”

I need you to pray this prayer often especially when you are having problems with others. Come close to me and invoke my protection. Come to my Son, Jesus through me. Stay close to our United Hearts and do not worry about anything. Be joyful, stay calm and have peace in your heart. Pray especially for those who condemn you, humbly and know God listens to your prayers you make through me. Invoke the Holy Spirit daily for protection. Do not be afraid. Listen to my words and stay close to me. Always stay close.

I need people to listen to my messages. Time is short. Offer your prayers and good deeds for the conversion of others. There is urgency for people to turn back to God. Pray for the conversion of many.

My children, I need you to pray more deeply from your heart. Do not be distracted by worldly things but stay close to me and to my Immaculate Heart and to the Sacred Heart of Jesus so we can work through you. God knows what is in your heart and he uses it in the fulfilment of His plans for the human race. Let go of your humanness and be more godly in your behaviour towards others. Do not despair. Stay centred in the Eucharist given to you by my Son Jesus, the Christ. Don't delay. Come back to me with all your heart. Stay close to me and help fulfil the Father's plans for you.

Go as a messenger of peace with no fear in your heart but with the knowledge that your Father in Heaven knows all and will look after your every need.

2nd July 2005 (Prayer vigil)

Your Father in Heaven has asked that you convert many by your sacrifices and acts of love to all those you meet. Do not be afraid.

3rd July 2005 (morning)

My children,

Don't be discouraged. Have faith. Believe in God. He knows the bigger picture and will look after you and your every need. Take heart and be strong.

Don't let Satan the deceiver fool you into the belief that you do not need to practice your faith, that you do not need to go to Church. He will try everything to get your trust. Turn back to God before it is too late. Time is short and there is so much work to be done. Pray, pray, pray with a humble and contrite heart for yourself and others. Do not be afraid to be ridiculed. Jesus, my Son was ridiculed. He died for you and for your redemption. Do not waste the precious gift you have been given. Do not put my Son back on the cross by your actions.

3rd July 2005 (night)

I want you to be a light to the world, reaching out and lighting a fire in the hearts of all those you meet. Consecrate yourselves daily to my heart and my Son's heart to give you strength and courage for the job ahead. Stay close to me and do not stray from the narrow path. Go with joy in your

29th October 2005 (Night Prayer with Lorenzo)

Do not fear persecution. It comes in many different ways. I want you to stay close to me, your Mother, to my son Jesus and to your Eternal Father for the strength you will need for the time ahead. You will be guided but it is important that you take time to be still and listen to your Lord and Saviour. Gain strength by receiving Him as often as you can in Holy Communion so you can be united as one. Spend in prayer and solitude as this is how you will be able to know the Will of the Father through the inspiration given to you by the Holy Spirit. Do not rush ahead of God the Father's plan for you. Stay humble and peaceful and you will be given the guidance you need for every part of your life. Do not try to stay alone in your faith life. It is important that you stay close to people who understand and can support you. I am here as your Mother and I want to guide you along the right path to my son Jesus. Come close now and accept the love that is being given to you this night. Immerse yourself fully in the love of your Father, by Jesus His Son through the graces given to you by the Holy Spirit. Understand the depth of love which the Blessed Trinity wants to give you. Ask always to be filled with the Holy Spirit of Love so you can reach out to others and the love of Christ can flow out through you. I ask you, this night, to step out and begin the journey of complete trust in your Heavenly family. May the peace and light of my Son Jesus shine out of you to all those the Eternal Father puts in your path.

30th October 2005 (Night Prayer)

I ask you to be full of peace and joy. Your Lord and Saviour is close by and looks after all your needs. Do not concern yourself with thoughts which take you away from the love you are given by the Eternal Father through my Son Jesus. I ask you again to immerse yourself totally in this love as this will sustain you when times are tough. There are many people who need your help. I ask you not to shy away from the responsibility given to you but to take courage and show the love needed even to my unloved children. Do not make any judgement about their lives but reach out in a Christ-like way and show them that they are loved and their Father in Heaven wants to come close to them. Feel their hurts and show them your love by your empathy towards them. There is so much work to do and I ask you to have an open heart for all. It is most important that you are steeped in prayer and the Sacraments as you will need these graces to help you with the challenges ahead. I need to stress the importance to pray, pray, pray and listen to the guidance given in the Holy Scriptures and through my Consecrated Sons. Take every opportunity to gain as many graces as you can to give you the sustenance you need. My child, I am with you. Turn to concerned, stay at peace, trusting completely in your Eternal Father. I ask you to give extra time to prayers to help in the salvation of souls. I ask you to turn your sorrows into a sacrifice for the reparation of others. Many people carry heavy burdens with them as they are unaware of the graces they will be given if they just turn to me, their Mother, to my Son Jesus and to their Heavenly Father. I need you to open your eyes to the hurts of your fellow man. Be a friend who listens and shows always compassion and love. Gently help them to know that they do not need to carry their crosses alone. Encourage them to turn and ask for help from their Heavenly family. I need you, my faithful remnant, to be steeped always in prayer. There is much work to do. I do not want you to rush ahead before you first pray for the help you need. Always ask for the Holy Spirit to give you inspiration, so you remain close to the Blessed Trinity. Listen to your Eternal Father through reading the Scriptures and in your quiet prayer time. I thank you for all the work you do in the redemption of many and I encourage you to step out and continue God's work in every part of your day. Remember to always imitate my Son Jesus the Christ by your loving actions to others. Go now in the peace and joy of Christ in the missionary work you have been asked to undertake.

27th October, 2005 (Night Prayer)

My children,

I ask you to use your trials and sufferings as self sacrifice in the salvation of souls. Do not ask for them to be lessened but instead ask that you may be given the graces you need to gain courage and strength to endure these burdens. You will not know who they are helping but be assured that they will help many. Your reward will be great, given to you by your Father in Heaven. I ask you to stay peaceful in all you do. Be patient and always wait upon your Lord and Saviour to give you the guidance you need. There are many souls who need your prayers and self sacrifice. The souls of family and friends who are no longer here amongst you but are awaiting your prayers to benefit them in their purification, on their journey towards their Heavenly home. There are also those who have turned their backs on their Eternal Father and are on the wrong path. Your prayers and self denial will help greatly in bringing them back towards their Father in Heaven. Do not place judgements on anyone but always reach out in love to all. Be Christ-like in your actions. Call upon the Holy Spirit to refresh you of the gifts you have been given so that the love of the Eternal Father and my Son Jesus will flow out through you to all those you meet. Take courage and step out to do the redemptive work the Father is asking of you. Trust completely in His Divine Will and continue to do the missionary work of the Father through the Son by the Holy Spirit of Love.

heart. Do not let the little burdens in your life overburden you. Give them all to me. Come before my Son Jesus in the tabernacle often and tell Him all your worries and needs. He longs to be with you. Don't delay. Begin tomorrow.

4th July 2005

My Immaculate Heart is full of love for you. You need to be accepting of this love before you can pass it on to others. Be still and know that I come close to you. Do not rush and fill your day so much that you do not hear my voice. Come to me often. Pray with your heart. I hear these prayers and answer them.

6th July 2005

My protection is with you. Stay close to me. I want the very best for you. Do not do anything before you first pray for protection. Pray always with a sincere heart. Reach out to others with a sincere heart. Do not rush ahead but always have peace in your heart. Pray, pray, pray. This is your armour against Satan. Pray from the heart. Call up protection from the Angels and Saints as well. Wear holy items for protection.

6th July 2005

Thank you for the work you have been doing today. There are many who have turned away from God. There are many who need your help. Reach out and meet them where they are. DO NOT JUDGE. The Father sees all you are doing. Invoke protection of the Blessed Trinity through the angels, saints and myself.

7th July 2005

My child,

I am with you always. Glance my way often and know that I see your loving gesture. Bring me into your mind and know that I will guide you in everything you undertake. Stay at peace in the knowledge that your prayers are answered affirmatively and your Father in Heaven wants the very best for you. Go now and reach out to all those you meet in charity and love.

8th July 2005 (Apparition night)

Do not suffer and worry unnecessarily. Instead pray for your brothers and sisters who suffer at this moment. Your prayers are needed more than ever. Much suffering can be mitigated by your prayers. Be open to God's plan for you in your life. Do not rush on ahead and not include Him in everything you do. Be at peace and know that He will look after you and your every need. Be humble of heart and thankful for the many gifts and blessings He bestows on you daily. Do not take for granted the great graces you have been given this day. Stay close to God the Father and He will look after you. Kneel before my Son Jesus as often as you can in thanksgiving for all you have and call upon my Spouse the Holy Spirit for inspiration in everything you undertake. Be at peace knowing I your Heavenly Mother walk close by your side.

9th July 2005

Do not be worried if you speak in the truth and light of Christ. Those who do not listen may come to understand later. The light of my Son Jesus shines down upon you this day. Go now in the light to share with others.

10th July 2005 (3am)

For all you who desire to be a missionary for God the Father you first need to take up your cross and follow Jesus.

10th July 2005

The Divine Mercy of my Son Jesus is upon you today. Bathe in the blood and water flowing from His Sacred Heart. Stay close to Him. Put all your trust in His saving power. Do not distance yourself from my Son Jesus but know that He is full of compassion and mercy for you. Make the most of the opportunities you are given to come close to Him. Pray for knowledge of His Divine Will in your life. Offer all to Him as a sacrifice for others. He blesses the work that you do towards the fulfilment of the dream of the Father for a new Heaven and a new earth. Thank you for responding to His call to you.

11th July 2005

My child,
I am very close to you now. Do not fear. Fear and worry are not from God, for if you trust Him completely you will know that He will look after you and your every need. The challenges you are sent are not meant to make you fearful but will help you grow in your faith and will teach you to hand over to your Father and trust His guiding hand in your life. Stay centred and strong in your faith and do not let the deceiver trick you into worrying about worldly matters. Heaven is your only concern. Be at peace with the knowledge that I will be with you always. I smile at you this very moment.

you need to be Disciples of Christ. There is much work to do, so come close now to your Heavenly Papa and begin His work of love. Reach out to many and show them mercy, love and compassion just the same as your Heavenly Father shows you. I am close by and as your Heavenly Mama I hear all your prayers and I will lead you to the Sacred Heart of my Son Jesus. I ask you to have complete trust and to accept fully the Father's Divine Will in your lives. I send you many blessings this night from your Heavenly family and I ask you to give me the help I need by praying my Rosary each day for the salvation of the world. I thank you for responding to my call to you.

25th October 2005 (Night Prayer)

The Eternal Father asks for your endurance of faith. He wants you to trust Him in all of your lives and to never turn away even when you are experiencing so many difficulties. I ask you to gain much strength from your prayers, from receiving my Son Jesus, for the time ahead. It is important that you always carry courage and strength in your heart, to be true witnesses of Christ. Never waver in your love and fidelity of the Blessed Trinity. Believe that you are being guided by your Eternal Father through my Son Jesus the Christ in the Holy Spirit of Love. I ask you to stay peaceful and to bring all your worries and concerns to me, your Heavenly Mother. I am your Mother and I want to care for you and protect and guide you from the Evil One. He tries to seduce you to follow his ways, in many subtle ways. Do not listen to him but do all that I tell you to stay close to your Heavenly family. Read scripture each day and learn from your brothers in Christ, the Apostles. Make acts of self sacrifice silently for others and to help in atonement for the many sins which now weigh down this world. Step out and imitate Christ even to those people whom you find difficult to reach out to and love. Persevere in your prayer life and always be patient and try not to rush ahead of your Eternal Father. Be obedient to His commandments and always be humble in all that you do and offer it always for the glory of your Almighty Father. Be recognizing of the many blessings He has given you and thank Him with a humble heart. Do not gossip about others but pray first and instead stay silent. Always be encouraging with your words towards others. My dear children, I am with you and wish to guide you, as a Mother should do, so please allow me to come close and know that I will help you grow deeper in your journey of faith towards your Father in Heaven and my Son Jesus through my Spouse, the Holy Spirit. Keep peace and joy in your heart always.

26th October 2005 (Night Prayer)

I ask you tonight to give to me all your prayers. I ask you to pray, pray, pray. The world is in desperate need of your prayers. Do not be

24th October 2005 (Jesus – morning prayer in front of tabernacle)

My child,

There is so much work to be done in the salvation of souls. My people have abandoned their faith and are worshipping false Gods. Money, possessions and many other selfish means have taken over and control your thoughts and lives. When will you realize that all of these useless pursuits will not bring you the happiness you are searching for? The only way you will have true peace and happiness is by coming back to Me, your Lord and Saviour and asking to be healed of your wounds to enable you to begin the journey of love and complete trust towards your Eternal Father. Come back to Me now and allow Me to enter into your Heart and give you the peace you are searching for; I long to see your face once more and to tell you how much you are cared for and the depth of My love for you. Your Father in Heaven wants you to realize that it is too difficult to try and do it all alone. All you need to do is turn to Him and ask for all your needs. Please remember the Father will give you all your NEEDS not all that you WANT. Begin to trust Him completely and know that He will always send down upon you many graces and blessings to help you. Humble yourself and turn back once again to your Heavenly family and let us guide you to a deeper understanding of the plan the Father has for you in the redemptive work of all mankind. Begin today by confessing your failings and by receiving Me, your Lord and Saviour in communion and know the peace and love will flow out to others

24th October (Night Prayer – Polish group from Melbourne)

My children

I need to speak to you about the importance of your prayer life. The times we are living in are trying and there is need for you to be steeped in prayer. The Eternal Father accepts all prayers offered to Him humbly and uses them for the reparation of souls. When you pray together you offer Him the most beautiful bouquet of flowers. You are told in the Holy Word of God when two or three gather in my name there am I in your midst. Come close to My Son Jesus often in your prayer time and know that He will guide you to your Eternal Father who wants to shower you with His merciful love. Do not worry about anything but always have complete trust in your Father in Heaven. I thank you for your faithfulness and I ask you to use the intercessors you are given to help you in your journey towards your Heavenly Inheritance. Stay close to your brother in Christ, John Paul. Imitate him, read his story and know that He is close by to help you grow ever deeper in your love of your Father in Heaven, in my Son Jesus, through the Holy Spirit of Love. Call upon the gifts the Father has given you in the Holy Spirit and know that you will gain all the courage and strength

12th July 2005

My children,

You need to pray to your Father in Heaven for guidance and for all your needs. Ask and you will receive. He is a God of mercy and love and waits patiently for you to come to Him. Do not lose hope. Trust more fully in your Father, the Almighty. Hand over everything and accept His Divine Will in your life. Do not be stubborn and hard-hearted and believe you do not need His help – that you can do it alone. He gave His Son Jesus so you would have new life. Take the opportunity while there is still time to come back to God and have the life you were destined to have with your Father in Heaven, with Jesus, His Son and be given the many graces through the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Come under the protection of my Holy mantle and let me lead you to the Blessed Trinity where you can live life to the full.

14th July 2005

God the Father, the merciful judge knows your heartache and pain. Do not be frightened to come close to Him and His merciful love for you. Pray daily for your needs with an open heart, trusting that He will give you all you need. Do not turn your back on Him. Ask for all with a humble heart. Include Him in every part of your day. Open yourself up to the generating gift of His love for you.

16th July 2005 (Prayer day Our Lady of Mount Carmel)

Our Father in Heaven thanks you for your faithfulness in coming on my feast day. He asks that you come close to the Blessed Trinity. Do not be worried about worldly treasures. These will not give you happiness. Only by trusting in the Father's guiding hand and staying on the narrow path can you be given all you need. Open your eyes and see the many blessings He gives you daily.

Do not be selfish and self centred. Recognize what you have been given and thank Him with a humble heart. Grow little to become big in the eyes of God. Put others first whether it is in the traffic – in everything you do. Ask for help. Do not try to do it alone. Our Father longs for you to include Him in your life. He tells you "Ask and you will receive. Seek and you will find." Use all which He has given to you to help you. Call upon my help. Pray, pray, pray. Much good can come from your prayers. My Son Jesus will guide you to the Father. Receive Him in the Blessed Sacrament, pray to Him often in front of the Holy Tabernacle. Never despair, trust, I your Mother will be with you and help. Thank you for your prayers on this special day. Many great saints were born by their prayer and contemplation.

16th July 2005 (evening prayer)

Do not despair for those lost souls who have drifted away from God. Offer acts of self sacrifice for the reparation of sinners. Even the smallest act will help them. People have forgotten how to make these acts of love for the benefit of others. The world has become very selfish and they only want to take. No one wants to give of themselves. You need to change your ways. Learn once again, how to give of yourselves to others without expecting reward. Humble yourself. Make every part of your day an act of reparation for others. Offer your trials and sufferings to God. Do not be sad and gloomy. Do this with cheerfulness and a sense of joy. These acts will be a soothing balm which will benefit greatly towards the triumph of my Immaculate Heart and the Sacred Heart of my Son Jesus. Remember to do these acts in silence. Do not parade your good deeds for others to see.

17th July 2005 (evening prayer)

May the fire of love flicker and burn brightly in your heart and reach out and ignite a fire of love to all those that you meet. Do not underestimate the power you have to help those in need by reaching out to them in compassion and love. Do not be judgmental of them and where they are in their faith lives. God sees their hearts and knows the goodness within them. Trust and accept that God will send people for you to minister to. Do not be afraid of the job you have been given. Stay centred in your faith. Read the Holy Scriptures daily and be guided by them. Receive the Sacraments often. Pray to the Holy Spirit for your inspiration and guidance. Come close to me and let me lead you on the path of salvation of many souls. Do not be distracted from the work ahead. Pray the rosary daily to give you the strength and courage you need for the journey.

By reaching out in love to all those you meet you form a link between them to the Father and help them to begin their journey back to their Father in Heaven, to my Son, Jesus and my Spouse the Holy Spirit. Every little act of kindness can help these people to come closer to God and to slowly learn to trust again.

Pray for guidance when you are concerned about anything. Be patient and wait for God to reveal His plan to you. Be guided by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. Always pray first. Do not rush ahead without including your Father in your plans. Be still and listen. Only in silence and stillness can you hear what is needed. Read scripture often to help you. God will speak to you through His apostles and saints. St. Paul listened and was inspired by the Holy Spirit to guide the people. You too, can be guided in this same way. God wants to use you to help in the conversion of many. Be prepared to do His Divine Will in your life. Be at peace and wait for God, the Almighty

The time of truth and justice is now upon us. The Eternal Father's hand of justice must fall upon His children who do not listen to His word, who no longer obey His commandments, who follow a world of selfishness and greed. The time is short. I beg you this night to bring many back to the Father. I ask you to have courage to step out in faith and make a difference in the lives of all those the Eternal Father puts in your path. Do not be narrow in your thinking but realize He asks you to reach out to the unexpected. He asks you to be witnesses of His Son Jesus the Christ to all you meet. I remind you to stay close by your prayers and to always ask for Heavenly advice in all that you do. Do not want the credit to be given to you but know that all is done for the glory of your Lord and God. Humble yourself completely. Accept all that your Father gives you. Do not be filled with pride and arrogance but always strive to become small in the eyes of others so that you may become big in the eyes of your Heavenly Father. Always try to do the Father's Divine Will in your life. Acknowledge if you have had difficulties and begin again to hand your will over so that your Eternal Father can guide you in the mission He has planned for you, to aid in the salvation of many souls, who at this moment are on the wrong path. Open yourself up to your Father and accept His challenge for you to be an instrument of peace through the love of Christ flowing out of you to others. I send you my peace and blessings this night and I want you to know that I love you and stay close to you always. Turn to me often and accept my love. Accept the love of your Eternal Father and the love of my Son Jesus given to you through the gifts and graces of the Holy Spirit.

22nd October 2005 (Prayers with visitors 3pm)

I ask that all pilgrims who come to my beloved shrine be my missionaries of Christ and go away refreshed and replenished to spread my message of love to all those they meet. I ask you to step out in faith and begin to minister to others who need to know the love that the Eternal Father has for them. I ask you to be recognizing of the people the Father puts in your path. Reach out always in love and compassion to all. Never judge others. Remain humble and be open to the Father's Divine Will always. Gain much strength from receiving my Son Jesus in communion and ask for the graces of the Holy Spirit to fill you, as through this you will have the courage and strength you need to reach out in love to all. The Eternal Father sends many blessings upon you this day and asks in return that you include Him in every part of your life. Be true witnesses of Christ through your actions and know that I, your Heavenly Mother walk with you and I am here to guide you along the right path to your Heavenly Inheritance. Always have peace and joy in your heart no matter what trials best you. You are never alone in your journey of love.

18th October 2005 (Night Prayer)

I have asked you many times to reach out to all in compassion and love. I need you to be disciples of my Son Jesus, the Christ and work tirelessly for the conversion of many souls. It is important that you are an imitation always of Christ in all that you do. I feel deeply saddened by the arrogance and pride which has crept into the life of some of the religious and my Consecrated Sons. They are not living their lives as imitators of Christ. I need you to pray hard for my Consecrated Sons who more than ever before are under spiritual attack. Pray that they will gain the courage and strength they need to preach the true gospel of Christ. Pray that they will show compassion, mercy and love to all those that the Eternal Father puts in their paths. My beloved Church is under attack at the moment and I need you to stay strong and be the cornerstone so that we can rebuild, steeped in faith, in prayer, in reception of the Sacraments. As I have said before I need many soldiers of Christ in my prayer army to help in the spiritual battle which is upon us. I need you to realize how important all your prayers are. Do not turn away even for a minute but pray my rosary as often as you can. I thank you for your faithfulness and for always responding to my call.

19th October 2005 (Night Prayer)

My children,
I wish to talk to you in regards to the reparation of sins. The world is so weighed down with sins committed and is in need of deep cleansing. I ask you, my faithful remnant, to aid in the reparation of sins. Give me all your prayers and self sacrifices offered in reparation to the Eternal Father. The greatest atonement you can give is your will. This is not easy to do as there are so many areas in your lives where you still want to be in control and you do not think to include your Heavenly family. I ask you to persist in the practice of handing over your will to the Father and you will see His guiding hand reaching out in love and compassion and helping you. There are many lost souls who have abandoned their Heavenly Father and through arrogance and pride think that they no longer need His help. I need you to rescue them from the path of destruction that they are now headed towards. You need to reach out in love to as many people as you can. Bring them back onto the narrow path by your actions towards them. Never judge them, but always be gentle and loving. Humble yourself completely and remember that all is done for the glory of the Father in Heaven. Pray often for the inspiration and wisdom you will need from the Holy Spirit and always gain strength for the work ahead by the reception of the Sacraments. Be steeped in your prayer life and ask for the guidance in everything you undertake. Be bold and strong and know that my Son Jesus is with you and will help you to complete the Father's work of a new heaven and new earth. Remember to always stay peaceful in all you do.

to guide you through Jesus His Son in the Blessed Eucharist, through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit and through my words to you. Stay close to my Immaculate Heart and the Sacred Heart of my Adored Son, Jesus, the Christ. Peace and blessings be with you today and in your work ahead.

19th July 2005 (morning prayer)

My child,
My love for you cannot compare to any earthly love. I long for you to stay close to me. Come to me often and take comfort in the knowledge that I will guide you in all you do. Do not be despondent if you feel alone. Always know that I will never leave your side. Hand all your little worries over to me and let me ease the pain. Come and rest close to your Mother's Immaculate Heart. Give me all your day. I will take you by the hand and guide you to the Father in Heaven, my Adored Son Jesus and you will be touched and replenished by my Spouse the Holy Spirit. Don't walk the journey of life alone. Turn to me now. Open your heart and allow me to come close to you. Turn to me often in prayer. Know that I hear these prayers and will take them to your Father in Heaven. Come close to me. Do not be afraid. Begin the journey of love towards your heavenly inheritance.

19th July 2005 (Night Prayer)

To come close to God the Father Almighty through my Son Jesus you first need to trust Him in all areas of your life. Do not be worried about worldly goods. Read Matthew 6 (24-34) and learn to let go and let the Father in Heaven look after you. There are challenging times ahead and that is why it is so important to trust God fully and be accepting of His Divine Will in your life. Put God first and do not worry about anything else. His guiding hand is waiting for you to say yes to Him. He gave you your free will and will always wait for you to invite Him to be first in your life. He gave you His Son Jesus as the ultimate sacrifice for the salvation of all souls. The Father sent the Holy Spirit at Pentecost to fill the apostles' hearts with the flame of love so they could reach out to all nations. He is a merciful Father who wants His children to be saved. Ask Him to be first in your life and allow His merciful love to flow into your soul through His Son Jesus on the blessed altar and through the Holy Spirit. Do not delay.

20th July, 2005 (Rosary group)

My children,
I ask you to pray earnestly for lost souls. Pray for the reparation of sinners through my Rosary. It is important that you offer me your prayers at the moment, for the conversion of souls. So many people have turned their backs on God. Prayer can convert the most hardened heart. Do not despair when your loved ones seem so distant from God. Place them under the protection of my Holy Mantle; consecrate them to my Immaculate Heart and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Pray humbly and hand it all over to your Father. Trust in the Father's mercy and compassion for all. I ask you to work hard for the conversion of many. I ask you to be my Prayer Army. The Rosary is your armour and your protection. I ask you to be my soldiers of Christ. Make every part of your day a prayer to me. Silently we can defeat the Evil one by our prayers and by offering our good deeds for the conversion of others. Do not fear. Always pray from the heart and know that I walk beside you as we work together towards the Father's plan for a new Heaven and a new earth and the Triumph of my Immaculate Heart and the Sacred Heart of my Son Jesus.

Thank you for answering my call.

22nd July 2005 (Night Prayer)

Sanctify yourself before my Son Jesus. Come before my Consecrated Sons in Confession and cleanse yourself of all imperfections. Many graces are received in the Sacraments of the Church. Avail yourself of them as often as you can. Much strength can be gained by these gifts from God. Your Father wants to use you as a pure light radiating warmth to all those you meet. By reconciling with God often and receiving His Son Jesus in the Blessed Eucharist as often as you can the rewards in your spiritual life will be enormous. Turn to the Blessed Trinity often to receive the many graces they will give you. Salvation of your soul is most important. Do not waste time on trivial matters which are of the world. Concentrate all your efforts on your Spiritual life and the journey towards your Divinity.

23rd July 2005 (Night prayer)

The light of Christ shines out as a beacon of hope to all. Jesus is the only way, the truth and the life. Stay centred in Him and you will gain Eternal life. There will be much destruction by godless people who have no value of human life. I beg you to pray like never before. Open your hearts to God and bow down before Him in humility and offer Him all you have. Do not worry about material possessions – they are not important. Trust completely in your Father in Heaven. He will look after you. Turn back before it is too late and put the God the Father first in your life. He is all mercy, all compassion and all love waiting patiently for you to turn to Him with all your needs. He wants all His children to be once again around the table together as one family in Christ.

Pray this night for the conversion of many. Pray that their lives will be touched by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit and they will once again see the light of my Adored Son, Jesus in their lives. Reach out and help them find the way home to the Father. Reach out in prayer for the Redemption of mankind let us be united as one. You experience so many insecurities and lack so much in trust. I ask you this day to hand all over to Me. Fear no more but begin to trust completely in the Eternal Father's plan for you. Accept the nourishment given to you. Turn away from the distractions of the world and begin the journey of love towards your Heavenly inheritance. All that is asked of you is complete trust. Come close to my Sacred Heart this day and learn once again how to trust Me. I am your Lord and God and I want more than ever to look after and guide you to the Eternal Father. I ask you to accept the love which is poured out to you by your Father in Heaven and Me, your Lord and Saviour through the Spirit of Love.

17th October 2005 (Midday – Rosary group)

It is important that my messages of truth and love go out to as many people as possible. This is how the battle will be won – through prayer, through self sacrifice and through the love you show to your fellow man. I thank you for the many prayers you give me with humble hearts and I want you to be aware of the help they give to many others. I ask you to keep up your prayers and know that you will gain much spiritual growth by them. I ask you to bring all your loved ones to Me and to my Immaculate Heart.

Consecrate them to the United Hearts of my Son Jesus and to Me your Mother. I will look after them and will take them under the protection of My Holy Mantle. I ask you to not despair in regards to your loved ones - bring them all to Me. Always have peace in your heart, if you trust completely you will never have anything to fear. I am your Heavenly Mother and I want to look after you in every part of your life. Go now in peace and joy.

17th October 2005 (Night Prayer)

Do not let the death of my Son Jesus on the cross be all in vain. Turn back once again to your Heavenly Father. I ask you to be alert, stay awake, for you do not know the time or day when your Eternal Father's hand of justice will come down upon the earth. Do not be like the bridesmaids who did not have enough oil in their lamps. I ask you to always keep the light in your lamp burning brightly. The light which is my Son Jesus the Christ wants you to be well prepared for the time ahead by your prayers and reception of the sacraments. Do not wait until the last minute; it is important that you are steeped in your faith for the journey. Many of you put so much else ahead of your Lord and Saviour, possessions and many other worldly needs which will do nothing to help you for the spiritual journey ahead. I warn you to be prepared. Do not take the messages I give you lightly. Come back to your Heavenly Family with fervour in your faith life and gain knowledge and strength. The Father needs many who are prepared to step out in faith and do His work. Are you ready to be a warrior of Christ for the Spiritual battle ahead? Come close and know that you will have the guidance you need. Do not have fear; always have peace in your heart.

new life. He sent the Holy Spirit to fill your soul to help and guide you in your daily life. I remind you again to use the gifts you have been given to help you in your trials. Do not try and do it all alone. There are so many who want to guide and help you. Ask now for the help you need and be accepting of all that you are given. Never doubt how much you are loved by your Heavenly family. Go now with peace in your heart. All will be accomplished when you trust completely.

16th October 2005 (Night Prayer)

I ask you this night to be my messengers of peace. Reach out in peace to all those you meet. Be the peacemaker in the home, in the work place and in all of your daily lives. Carry the message of peace to all those you meet. I have said many times for you to receive my Son Jesus often in Holy Communion. Communion – My Son Jesus and you united as one. In this way you carry the instrument of peace with you – Jesus – and that peace can flow out through you to all those you meet. This is the reason why I ask you to be steeped in prayer and to pray in front of the tabernacle. You will be given infused knowledge when you ask for the gifts of the Holy Spirit to be replenished once more in your lives. Take time in your day. Be still and know that your beloved Saviour, Jesus the Lord, is with you every step of the way. The mission you have been given is to be an instrument of peace. Reach out in this troubled world and guide all back to your Father in Heaven, to Jesus His Son and the Holy Spirit – three in one. I ask you to also be steeped in the gentleness of Christ. Speak truth when necessary but always first remember to ask yourself “what would Jesus do”. Do not rush ahead in haste but wait until you are guided to do so by the inspiration of the Spirit given to you by the Almighty Father whose gentle hands want to guide you in the work He has planned for you to do in fulfillment of His new Heaven and new earth. Always carry peace in your heart. Carry my Son Jesus with you wherever you go.

17th October 2005 (Morning Prayer – tabernacle Jesus)

I am your Lord and God. I will look after all your needs. Do not fear the unknown and what is to come. I ask you to trust completely. Many of God's people are so caught up in the worries of the world that you no longer know how to include Me in your day. You struggle and are constantly searching for ways to make yourself happy and fulfilled. You crave to be noticed, to be told you are doing a great job. You suffer unnecessarily. If only you would realize what it is that you need. You need to know the love of the Eternal Father for you. You need to know the depth of His love. Turn back to Him and trust Him. I ask you to once again experience true peace and joy in your heart. Receive me, your Lord God and Saviour and once more

23rd July, 2005 (Rosary – after night prayer)

The senseless destruction of many innocent souls is to happen very soon. Mother, how can we help?
By your prayers. Pray, pray, pray

24th July 2005. (Evening Prayer)

Our Father blesses you for your faithfulness. Do not be concerned by events which are to come. Instead turn to me and I will protect and guide you through my Immaculate Heart to the Blessed Trinity. Those who are close to you may doubt. Do not worry. Offer prayers to the Father to change their hearts. “A prophet is never recognized in his own town.” You will realize more fully how my Son, Jesus felt when he was rejected by His own people. Trust in God Almighty. He will never leave you. Trust in my Son Jesus. He will give you all you need. Accept the graces of the Holy Spirit. Be Joyful. The Father will give you nourishment. He will fill you with the love of His Son Jesus through the Holy Spirit. Abandon yourself totally to the Will of the Father in your life. He will not desert you but will give you many blessings.

25th July, 2005 (Night Prayer)

The angels and saints surround you and stay close to you to guide you. Do not fear. They will help you and be with you always. Turn to them for help. They will intercede for you to the Father. They joyfully join in all your spiritual moments and are so happy when you put God first and do His Holy Will. The choirs of angels join in harmony with you when you offer your prayers by singing. Worshipping the Trinity in this way is a beautiful form of prayer. It helps others to have peace and joy in their hearts. God the Father gives you all different gifts to be used to the full. Do not be frightened to use the gifts you have been given. Be recognizing and thankful of the gifts you have. Ask the Holy Spirit for inspiration if you are unsure of the gifts you possess. Do not be prideful but humbly accept and use these gifts from God. I want you to come close and stay near to my Immaculate Heart. Let us work together with the gifts you have been given to offer the glory of God and to help reach out to others we meet.

26th July, 2005 (Night prayer)

By your sacrifices you help with the salvation of sinners. No act of mercy or sacrifice goes unnoticed by the Father. These little acts of reparation do so much good. There are so many ways you can help. The world has forgotten how to fast and be selfless for the benefit of others. Your Father will give you special graces to help you if you are having difficulty in this area. There are many forms of fasting. Offer all these acts up to God the Father. Think about the self sacrifice my Son Jesus gave you all by His death on the cross so you would have new life. Does it not hurt for you to give up something in your life for the reparation of sinners? What a world we would have if we were all prepared to make these small sacrifices not for our own gain but to help others. Will you be my workers by these little selfless acts? I will help you. Turn to me and ask me to be with you. Together we can conquer the Evil one and advance towards the Triumph of my Immaculate Heart.

27th July 2005 (Night prayer)

Pray to the Holy Spirit for the virtues of faith, hope and charity. These virtues are important and will strengthen you in your journey to come closer to the Father in Heaven. The power of prayer can move mountains. Pray for all your needs, pray for others. I hear every prayer you offer me and take these prayers offered humbly to me to the Father in Heaven. If you are always rushing you will not make time for fervent prayer. It is important to take time to spend quietly in your day so you can hear the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. Make the time to spend with me and I will guide you with my loving hand towards the Blessed Trinity. The more time you take to pray and spend in contemplation the deeper your faith and trust in God will become. In this quiet time you will hear the Father telling you what He wants and you will be given many graces to help you. You may be thinking "my life is so busy – how can I fit this in". Trust God more and you will be surprised the time you have left once you put God the Father first in your life and begin each day in prayer thanking Him for all you have been given and asking Him for His help. I am with you and wait longingly for you to begin this prayer journey towards your new life with the Father in Heaven with Jesus, my Son and with the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. Read 1 Corinthians Chapter 13.

28th July 2005

Significant graces will be given to you when you follow the Father's Divine Will. All it takes is for you to hand over everything including your will to the Father and trust Him completely. To be a vessel of pure light reaching out to others you will first need to do this act of love to your Heavenly Father for Him to be able to work through you. The light of my Son Jesus the Christ will shine brightly through you for others to see. Trust completely. Receive my Son Jesus often and put your faith, hope and love in the knowledge that you will be guided by the Blessed Trinity in all that you do for the glory of God. Obey God's commandments especially "love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your mind and with all your soul and love your neighbour as you love yourself. If you follow these commands you will stay close to the Heavenly host who will protect and guide you. Be humble and know that I am by your side guiding you. Stay close and come to me often eliminate all the complications in your life. Turn back and enjoy this new life of simplicity. Simplicity of faith – love your Lord and God first and love of your neighbour and simplicity of your daily lives lead in reflection of my Son Jesus the Christ, your Lord and Saviour and Prince of peace.

14th October 2005 (Night Prayer)

I ask for much compassion to be shown to all those people who are suffering at this present moment around the world. Reach out and help in any way you can. Reach out in love and pray to your Eternal Father that His mercy and compassion is given to each and every one of these people. Your prayers do help, so do not neglect to reach out with your prayers. Gain strength to endure any trials that may come your way. I ask you to willingly offer all these trials for the salvation of others. There is so much sadness and despair in the world because people have chosen the wrong path and need help to see the way back. Do not be afraid to help others. It may be by just giving a kind word or by listening to them and the problems they are experiencing. By reaching out you are going to help them to see the light of Christ shining out through your love and compassion towards them. The journey is tough. There are many who need your help. I ask you again to be steeped in prayer and the scriptures for the time ahead. I ask you to be steadfast in your faith. Do not go off the track by doing your own will but always turn humbly to your Father in Heaven and ask Him to give you the help you need. I ask you to follow the Will of the Father in all you do. He will guide you through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. Pray daily to be strengthened by the Holy Spirit and know that you will be given the nourishment you need by the Eternal Father, by His Son Jesus and through the love of the Spirit.

15th October 2005 (Night Prayer)

Do not concern yourself unnecessarily when you experience trials. I ask you to embrace these trials as you will experience much spiritual growth. Your Eternal Father needs to strip back the layers one by one which block you from coming close to Him. He needs you to trust Him completely in all that you do. You say that you trust but then want to be in control of so many areas of your life. I ask you to step out in faith even though you do not know what the future holds and trust completely that you will be looked after. I want you to look at your life with complete honesty and recognize those areas where you do not have complete trust. Pray for discernment and for the help you need to break down these areas so that you will experience the spiritual growth which your Eternal Father wants for you. Your Heavenly Father loves you with a love which has no earthly comparison and wants more than ever for your relationship to grow ever deeper. He gave His Son Jesus who died for your sins so you would have heal the hurts and will look after your every needs. I, your Mother, feel your hurts and I want you to know that I will guide and protect you always.

12th October 2005 (Night prayers)

Know that I am near you in your weariness. I will give you the strength and courage you need when you are experiencing trials. Do not concern yourself with matters which are of the world, they will pass away. Your spiritual life is of utmost concern and will not pass away. Do not neglect this part of your life by only giving it lip service and not going ever deeper in your journey of faith towards your new life. The evil one wants you to always have many distractions which take you away from the peace and joy of knowing my Son Jesus and the Eternal Father on an ever deeper level, by giving them time in your day for prayer and quiet time. Do not worry if you become distracted during this time but always acknowledge it and turn back once again to your prayers. When you feel the troubles of the world weighing heavy upon you do not try and carry them alone but remember turn every part of your day into a prayer offered to the Father and know that He will send you the help you need. May the blessings of the Father come down this night upon you through the love outpoured for you by my Son Jesus, each time you come close to Him in communion, in prayer and through me your Mother, whom walks the journey of life with you and hears all your pleas for help. Do not forget that I am always with you. Turn to me often and give me your heartfelt prayers which are used always for so much good works in the redemption of others.

13th October 2005 (Night Prayers)

My tears will not dry until the battle against evil has been won. I ask now more than ever for your total commitment to prayer and self denial for the salvation of souls. My faithful remnant will be the way back to the light of the world – my Son Jesus – through their endless acts of love. You are living in difficult times with danger and fear all around. It is important therefore that you stay close and are centred in prayer, as it is very easy to become distracted with all that is happening and will happen, instead of keeping your peace with the knowledge that the Eternal Father is looking after you and all your needs. Lead a simple life where you and your family enjoy simple pleasures. The people of the world have lost their way and seek pleasure in all the wrong ways. This is leading them down a one way path to destruction and despair. I ask you to once again begin sharing with one another around the table and enjoying the simple things of life. Do not complicate your lives by wanting material extravagances of this world. They will not give you the peace and happiness you are seeking. By sharing with others and reaching out in love you will experience true joy and happiness. Faith without good works is dead. I ask you to with your little struggles. I will help you. Nothing is too great that we cannot handle together in prayer and self sacrifice. Peace be with you this night.

29th July 2005 (Praying in Grotto during day)

By reaching out to all those you meet you fulfil the Father's plan for you and for others. Be compassionate and understanding to all those you meet and do not form judgments as only the Father knows their hearts. I ask you to step out in faith and pray unceasingly for the Father's Will to be done on earth. Reach out to all people regardless of the faith denomination they come from. Pray with all. Break down the barriers which have formed between different faith groups. The Father wants us all to be one faith family. Read the Scripture daily to help you especially read the letters of St. Paul as these will help you realize the challenges you face today are the same as those the Apostles faced when they were sent to "teach all nations" by the inspiration given to them at Pentecost by the Holy Spirit. It is important that you ask daily for the infilling of the Holy Spirit in your life so you too can go out and "teach all nations." Trust in God and you will be given the guidance you need. Pray to my Immaculate Heart and I will help and guide you. Do not be afraid.

30th July 2005 (Night prayer)

Holiness only comes when you spend time with my Son Jesus in prayer and contemplation. He will lead you to the Father in Heaven. The lures of the world tempt you away from this time with Jesus but you must keep persevering in your prayer time. This is important as you will be given much nourishment and strength by taking this quiet time with the Lord. You must also read scripture every day as the answers to many of your questions are given in these pages. I beg you to follow these instructions I am giving you now as you will need this discipline of prayer and fasting for the time ahead. The Father will reward your obedience with many graces to help you. Step out in faith and trust completely. Do not loose your focus on the task you have been given. The time of grace is short and so much work is needed to be done at this time. I thank you for listening to my words. I am with you. Turn to me often and I will comfort you. I will look after your every need. Go in the peace and love of Christ who is with you always.

31st July 2005 (Night Prayer)

My dear children,
I ask of you simplicity in your faith. The children of Fatima were trusting and obedient to the messages I gave them. You are also called to obedience in your faith. Do not make your faith complicated. The Father asks you to be childlike and you will inherit the keys to the Kingdom of Heaven. The keys you will be given are the graces and gifts which come from your Eternal Father. To be given these keys you must be completely trusting and obedient to the Father's Will for you. Just as children trust their parents to guide them you too, must let the Father do the same. You must also know the challenges or trials you are given by Him are to help you grow to maturity in your faith life. Be accepting of them and know that you will benefit greatly from these disciplines in your life.

Do not be afraid to step out in this faith and proclaim the Word of God to those you meet. Ask for my help and I will send you the graces of the Holy Spirit to help you have the courage you need. Remember to persevere in your faith. Do not be discouraged if people do not believe. Just as my Son Jesus told the Apostles "dust your feet and move on". St. Michael will be with you to guide you so call on his help and protection. I ask you this night to step out even more in your faith. I am with you always.

1st August 2005 (Jesus – morning prayer in front of tabernacle)

I am the Lord your God. I thank you for the work you are doing for me. I ask you to always listen to my Mother and do whatever she tells you. It is important for you to stay close to her Immaculate Heart. Open your heart and allow the gift of grace to be poured in to it. You will understand more fully what will be required of you to help in the redemptive work of mankind. Do not be frightened. Have courage. You will be protected by the Father in Heaven. Let your intentions for others always be a pure act of love offered to the Father. Stay humble of heart never wishing any personal reward for all you do. You will be asked to make sacrifices for others. Accept these with a joyful heart. They will save many souls. Be still and listen always to my Word I give you. I speak to you in many ways. Open your eyes and ears and recognize when your Lord speaks. Do not fear. When you receive me in communion we are united as one. Turn to me often as I am with you waiting for you to spend time with me during your day. I love you and want the best for you. Stay close. I am near.

2nd August 2005 (Jesus –morning prayer in front of tabernacle)

My child,
I need you to stay close and centred always in prayer. Turn to me in every part of your day and speak to me from your heart. I want to be part of every moment of your life. Do not keep me out of these little moments. I long to spend time with you. Do not worry about your loved ones. Instead turn to me and give me your concerns. They will be touched by your actions of reaching out to them in love more so than speaking many words to them. Your Mother Mary knows the heartache you carry and will help you. Turn to her in prayer and ask for her help to guide and strengthen you. Always be of gentle disposition with others. Do not retaliate when they hurt you but accept these trials which will help them to a deeper understanding by your deepening of your relationship with your Heavenly family. I ask you to go now with peace and joy in your heart and know that your Lord and God is with you always. Turn to me now for the help you need.

11th October 2005 (Afternoon – praying with group of ladies)

I thank you for your faithfulness in coming today to my beloved shrine. I ask for your prayers and charitable works to help in the salvation of many. I ask you to accept my Son Jesus as the Prince of Peace in your hearts. Each time you receive Him in Holy Communion you receive peace in your heart. Turn to Him in your day and ask for His guidance in all you do. Do not try to do it alone but know that He wants to guide you through me, your Mother, through the reception of the Sacraments and especially when you ask to be replenished with the gifts and graces of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit of Love is the love your Eternal Father has for His Son and the love Jesus has for the Father in Heaven. The Father gave His Son Jesus as a sacrifice by His death on the cross so that you would have life anew. Each time you join in the celebration of the mass you celebrate once again the gift the Father has given you – the sacrifice of His Son Jesus on Calvary. I ask you to be aware of the many graces and gifts you are given each time you receive my Son Jesus in communion. Come close to Him and be united body and soul. Remember that you are never alone – my Son Jesus walks with you. Turn to Him often and know that He will help you in all your needs.

12th October 2005 (Rosary – grotto early afternoon)

The journey of love is a simple one. The only requirement is your complete trust in the Divine Will of the Father in your life. Know that you will be given all you need and you will have nourishment in abundance from your Heavenly family. The Eternal Father wants all of His children to turn back and come close once again and include Him in all of your life. I ask you to break all the bonds which block you coming close and know that the ways of the world cannot give you eternal happiness, only your Divine family can give you this. I, your Mother ask you to realize that it is not necessary for you to carry your burdens alone. You will gain much strength when you turn often in prayer to your Heavenly family and once again put your complete trust in the guiding hand of the Eternal Father. The Father sends you many graces and blessings. How often do you thank Him or even realize that they have come from Him. I beg you to take off the blinkers that blind you and recognize the need to include your Father in all of your life. There are many heartaches and troubles which have beset God's children especially in the break down of family life. The Father wants you to reach out in love to all family members. Do not judge them but turn instead to the Heavenly Father and ask for His help and then trust completely that He will do the Father's work with peace in your heart, and patiently accept any trials humbly knowing that your Lord and God will lovingly protect you, no matter what happens.

10th October 2005 (Night Prayer)

I, your Mother want you to remember always that I walk the journey of life with you and want to guide you towards my Son Jesus and the Eternal Father so that you may be filled with the Holy Spirit of love. I need you to listen to the promptings you receive to come close. Do not put up barriers which stop you from coming close. Trust completely and let go of all your burdens which you keep hidden inside you. I need you to open your heart to me so that you can receive the graces you need to strengthen you. Do not try to do it all alone. Ask for help in all areas of your life and know that I want to help you. I ask you to make time in your day to include your Heavenly family in prayer and quiet time. Read scripture and learn the lessons given to you through your brothers in Christ – the apostles. Do not stay distant from the Eternal Father but come this night and ask for His help. The Father will send you help in many different ways. Be more recognizing of the ways He tries to help you every day and give to Him your grateful thanks. Give me this night all your hurts and disappointments and instead allow your Heavenly family to pour down upon you their abundant love so you may learn to reach out and love all those who the Eternal Father puts in your path. Begin the journey of love and trust this day towards your Heavenly inheritance. All it takes is your words "I will it, Lord".

11th October 2005 (in front of tabernacle – Jesus)

I, your Lord and God am with you in the darkness of your trials. Do not be afraid of the unknown or what is to come. Be steeped in faith and in prayer and you will endure all. I ask you to be my vessel of peace and compassion to the many that come with their hurts and burdens. I ask you to always stay close to your Heavenly family for the guidance you need. Always speak the truth with a peaceful heart. Do not rush ahead and speak words without praying for wisdom, knowledge and strength first. The evil one wants you to rush and do all in haste. This is not from God. You will be prompted by the Spirit to only speak when it is necessary. Instead you will be asked to be more Christ-like in how you minister to the Father's children. Patience, persistence and perseverance are all virtues given to you to help you to slow down and do God's work in His time not yours. You will be told when the time is right. You are asked to trust more fully as God is guiding you and knows what is best in your life. You will be blessed for your patience as the Father asks you to stay disciplined in your spiritual life as well as your daily life. Do not rebel against these disciplines but instead embrace them and know that you will achieve much growth and a love and gentle spirit. Be joyful. Our Father in Heaven knows your inner sufferings and will give you graces to sustain you. I, your Lord, will be with you this day as you reach out to my hurting people. Be compassionate with them as you do not know the story of their life. Be there for them. Be my guiding light. Lead them back to me. Call on the Holy Spirit to help you. Go now and help my people. Let them know the deep love I have for them. Guide them back to their Father through me by the love poured out to them by the Holy Spirit.

2nd August 2005 (night prayer)

My Son weeps because the persecution and rejection still continues. You crown my beloved Son once again with thorns. The thorns of the abominations you do to human life. The world has lost the respect and dignity it once held for another human's life. The world has made it like everything else – a disposal item. Turn back from the errors of your ways and do not crucify my Son by your actions. Respect life. Be caring and compassionate to your fellow man. I ask my faithful remnant to pray hard for the sins committed today. Offer all for reparation to the Father for the sins of mankind. I ask you to give me all the prayers you can to help in this redemptive work. Time is short. Many workers are needed for the conversion of all. Will you be one of my workers? I thank you for responding to my call.

3rd August (Wednesday night rosary)

All the Eternal Father asks of you is your holiness. To be in complete union with the Blessed Trinity you need to avoid sinning. Obey the commandments which the Father has given you to help you lead a holy life. Repent when you feel you have become distant from God by using the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The Father gives many graces in this Sacrament. All graces are given to help you. The Father wants more than ever to be in union with you. He wants what is best for His children. Use all the gifts you are given. They are given to you through the Holy Spirit. Turn back to God now in this time of grace and give him your heart and your will. The Father gave you your free will and always allows you to make your own decisions. Decide now to be once again in union with your loving Father. Allow Him to shower you with the many graces and blessings He wants to give you. Say yes to God. Turn to Him in your lowliness and humbly ask Him to guide you and send you the graces you need. You will gain much courage and strength to step out in faith and do the Father's will. Do not be concerned by any trials. Always have complete trust in the Father and his guiding hand in your life.

4th August 2005

The Eternal Father does all to bring His children back in union with Him. When will you learn to accept His Will in your lives and the many graces He wishes to bestow upon you? Why are you filled with pride and arrogance and only want to do everything your way? Turn back from your selfish behaviour of only thinking about yourself and listen before it is too late. Be generous to others. Do not think what you can gain yourself from your actions. Be selfless. Share with others all you have. Do not hoard it all for yourself. This is useless and will not help you gain Eternal life. You are told in the Scripture "do unto others as you would like them to do unto you". Love one another. Love the unloved. Do not pick and choose who to love. Love all. Change your ways while you still have time. Take heed of the warnings you have been given. Listen to my messages to you.

5th August 2005 (Jesus – in front of the tabernacle)

I will give you all the nourishment you need if you just come back to me. Trust in My love for you completely. Do not become overwhelmed by what is happening in your life and all around you. Just turn to me. Come before me in the tabernacle and be at peace knowing that the Lord, your God, loves you unconditionally and is looking after you and all your needs. Gain strength by receiving Me in Holy Communion. Through this communion you and I can be united as one. Open your heart to Me now. Do not remain distant from Me because of your hurts. I want to comfort you. I love you with a deep love no earthly love will give you. Come close to Me now. I am waiting for you.

5th August 2005 (night prayer Family Night)

The Eternal Father longs to have a relationship with each and every one of you. Unless you are willing to say yes to Him His hands are tied. He gave you free will to choose. You have been given graces to sustain you. These graces are replenished when you pray and when you make use of the sacraments. Just as He gave the Disciples the Holy Spirit at Pentecost you too, are able to ask the Holy Spirit to help you. Turn back to the Father and accept Him in your life. The Father asks that you put Him first in your life and that you love your neighbour as you love yourself. The world has become self serving and has forgotten how to reach out to their neighbour. I ask you to change your ways and listen to the messages you have been given before it is too late. The Eternal Father is all compassion; all mercy and all love and wants to begin a relationship once more with all of His children. He gave you His Son, Jesus, so that you may have new life. Come back on the narrow path and let me guide you towards the light of my Adored Son. Do not delay. Time is of the essence. Ask me, your Mother, to help you and I will take you by the hand and lead you.

8th October 2005 (Apparition night)

I come to you this night as a gentle breeze. I want to tell you how much I appreciate your faithfulness by your prayers offered to me, your Mother with a humble heart. I am your Mother Incarnate given to you by the Eternal Father to help in the redemption of mankind. Your prayers are of the utmost importance and are used for much good. I am your Mother of Peace and I come to bring peace to the world through my Son Jesus who is the Prince of Peace. I remind you this night the importance in staying close to my Immaculate Heart and the Sacred Heart of my Son Jesus united as one for the salvation of many. I ask you to stay always with peace in your heart. Receive your Prince of Peace often in the Sacrament of the Holy Altar and know that He will stay with you and help you. Do not forget Him after you have received Him in communion but always remember that Jesus wants to remain with you in communion of your hearts. I ask you to break down all the barriers which impede you being united with my Son Jesus. Turn away from worldly desires which take control of your life and instead receive that longed for peace by giving Him your complete trust and by allowing your Eternal Father to guide you in all you do. Remember to ask for the help you need and know that you will be strengthened by immersing yourself in prayer. I ask you to come close this night and continue the journey of complete trust in your Father in Heaven, in Jesus Christ, your Lord and God, through the love given to you by the Holy Spirit.

9th October 2005

The Eternal Father is a God of love, mercy and compassion. He wants what is best for all of His children. You are called to reach out to His children, even those who seem so distant from Him because of the lives they are leading. It is not up to you to judge them in any way; this is up to the Father. You are asked to reach out to them and through your example of love guide them towards their Heavenly family. My Son Jesus did not judge the woman who was to be stoned by others who judged her so harshly but instead wrote their sins in the sand and told her to go and sin no more. The Father has asked for your obedience to His commandments because of His deep love for you. Do not water them down and make them to suit yourself but submit yourself fully to the Will of your Father. Many people lead selfish lives where they only think of their own selfish needs and have no respect for the Father's law in their lives. They justify all they do as necessary and convince themselves that what they are doing is not selfish. I ask you to pray for the knowledge to be given to you in areas of your lives where you are not doing the right thing and to examine your conscience with a humble and contrite heart. It is not up to you to examine anyone else's conscience but your own. Your role is to bring others to the knowledge of my Son Jesus by your actions towards them. Always seek to

7th October 2005 (Rosary – pray day – Feast of the Holy Rosary)

My dear children

I thank you for coming and for the prayers that you offer this day on the Feast of my most Holy Rosary. I ask you to continue to be my workers by your rosaries you give me daily. You may not see the amount of good these prayers give in the salvations of souls but I want you to be assured that they are used to help many. I ask you to put your complete trust in my Son Jesus and the Eternal Father in your life and know that no matter what happens they are there to help and guide you. Humble yourself always in the eyes of your Heavenly Father and ask Him to help you to help others. He wants more than ever for you to reach out in love to all those you meet. Never judge them or their actions but always turn every part of your day into a prayer to Him and know that He will give you the graces and guidance you need. I ask you to be my servants of prayer. Just as a servant faithfully serves his master I ask you to faithfully serve your Lord and God through your prayers offered to Him with a humble heart. The more you pray the more strength you will gain to do the Eternal Father's work.

7th October 2005 (Night prayer)

I call you this night to be my servants of Divine Love. I want you to serve your neighbour by the love you show them. I need you to humble yourself and do my work without expecting reward for your good deeds. Do not carry a hidden agenda where you feel if you reach out in love and compassion to your fellow man they are now beholding to you. This is not what is meant. Give willingly of yourself without expecting any return for your service of love. You will be rewarded by your Eternal Father with many graces and blessings because He blesses those who do His work with a humble heart. You are told in scripture that your right hand must not know what your left hand does so I ask you to remember that you do not need to parade your good deeds for all to see but rather do them quietly so as not to draw attention to yourself. (See Matthew 6 1-4)

There are many lost souls who are longing for someone to extend the hand of love and friendship to them so I am asking you to reach out each day and do the work of the Father through your Christ-like behaviour to help with the salvation of many. Pray always in discernment that it is the Father's Will and always include your Heavenly family in all you do. Do not rush ahead of the Father's plan for you but stay peaceful and patient as it is all in the Father's time not yours and you will always be given everything you need as long as you continue to have complete faith in the guiding hand of your Eternal Father in Heaven.

6th August 2005 (Jesus morning prayer in front of tabernacle)

Do not worry about your family and the persecution. Gain strength from the knowledge that I walk close beside you. I love you and will look after you. Keep reaching out in love to all those around you. Sing hymns of praise as they will help you to be joyful. Many need your help. Pray for guidance when your peace is disturbed by those who are critical. Many times you do not see what happens to the people you help. Trust completely that the work you do will help many. Do not be afraid to step out in faith. Listen to my words to you through reading the Scriptures. I will guide you. Bring all your little problems to Me. I want to be part of every moment of your life. I, the Lord your God, want to lead you towards your heavenly inheritance with your Eternal Father. Go now in peace and joy. Remember that I stay with you always.

Read Col 3 16-17

6th August, 2005 (Night prayers – Saturday night vigil)

Open your eyes before it is too late. Do not dismiss the violent storms and weather changes. Instead realize that you must change your ways and turn back to God. Do not pray because you are told; instead pray with an open heart. Adore my Son tonight in exposition and confide in Him all your needs. He longs for you to come close to Him. Take this opportunity tonight, to meditate on all the mysteries of the rosary. This contemplation will help you come to a deeper understanding of the journey the Eternal Father has planned for you. Come to me now and pray the rosary in a new heartfelt way. These prayers will help many others. I thank you for your faithfulness. The Eternal Father sends many graces and blessings to you this night. Be at peace and always have joy in your heart with the knowledge you are never alone. Come close now to my Son Jesus. He will comfort you and give you strength.

7th August 2005 (Night prayers)

The Eternal Father is well pleased by your efforts of self sacrifice and prayer. Your rewards for your obedience will be great. Much suffering has been mitigated by these prayers. Make every moment of your life a prayer to your Heavenly Father for His use. People are not aware of the power of prayer. Heartfelt prayer is music to your Heavenly Father. Be still and know your Father is listening to you. Your prayer life is of utmost importance. You will be nourished and strengthened when you turn every part of your life into a prayer. If you have difficulty and feel your prayer time is arid, read the scripture and listen to the advice you are given through this reading. Pray the rosary and meditate on each decade. Turn to me, your Heavenly Mother, for help. Do not despair. My Son Jesus was sent into the desert for 40 days and was tempted by the devil. You will achieve the most spiritual growth when you feel alone and deserted. Do not give up. Always persevere in your prayer time. Grow deeper in the love of your Father in Heaven, Jesus His Son and the Holy Spirit. I will walk beside you. Come close to my Immaculate Heart.

8th August 2005 (Jesus morning prayer in front of tabernacle)

Be peaceful. Do not be weary with the little problems of the world. My sweet little child, I want to look after you. Do not be afraid to come close to Me. In the Scripture you read how the woman with the haemorrhage pushed her way through the crowd so she could touch the hem of My garment. Reach out to me now with faith and know that I will heal you of your worries. You need to trust in my healing power. Do not doubt but believe that your Lord God will look after you always. Be courageous. Open your eyes to your heavenly goal. Do not let worldly desires blind you to the real needs in your life. Trust completely in divine providence. I want to be included in every part of your day. Go with peace and joy in your heart always, with the knowledge that your Lord and God loves you beyond compare.

8th August 2005 (Apparition night – peace rosary after apparition)

I call you to be peacemakers to all. Whether it be at home with your family or in the work place, be an example to others by your humble heart. Much good will be done when you possess a humble spirit. I ask you to be bathed in the Virtues of the Holy Spirit. Have complete faith and hope in your God and my Son Jesus and reach out to all you meet in charity and love. Persevere always with patience and trust in the Divine Will of your Father. At all times be obedient to the Commandments. Call upon the Holy Spirit to inspire you to lead a virtuous life. Pray that you will be given the virtues you need. I thank you for the prayers you offer each day for peace in the world. Do not stop these prayers as they are doing so much good. I ask you to Always begin with peace in your own heart. Before you can reach out to others in peace, you must possess peace yourself. I thank you for always responding to my request for prayers and I ask you to continue your prayers and acts of self sacrifice for the good of all mankind. Go now in the peace and love of my Son Jesus the Christ.

9th August 2005 (Night Prayer with Nancy)

Do not feel alone or frightened in your suffering. Your Heavenly Mama is by your side and will care for you and guide you towards my Son Jesus and your Eternal Father in Heaven. Open your heart completely to me and I will send the Holy Spirit to fill you with His love and joy. Be peaceful with the knowledge that you are never alone. The angels and saints care for you

5th October 2005 (Night Prayer)

I ask you more than ever this night to step out in faith and reach out to my hurting people.

I want you to encourage them to visit at my beloved shrine so they may be given graces by the Eternal Father to nourish and strengthen them in their difficulties. This will take courage on your part as you will need to speak the truth. I ask you to always be gentle and encouraging when you speak to people. Do not force your opinion on them but invite them to come and then leave the rest up to your Father in Heaven. I ask you to do this work because the need is so great to reach out in love and let others know that someone does care about them. Many people are not aware how much the Eternal Father loves them and wants to help them in their lives. I ask you to be the messenger of love; the love of the Father, the love of my Son Jesus and the love given by them to you through the Holy Spirit. Do not feel hurt and rejected if they are not ready to accept this love. I ask you to pray instead that they will be touched at a later time and that their eyes will be opened to the love that God the Father is waiting to give them. I ask you to reach out and be Christ to them by your actions. Always try in all parts of your day to think “what would Jesus do” and then imitate my Son Jesus in all that you do and with all the people you meet. I ask you to remember to turn to me and I will guide you to grow more and more in the image of my Son Jesus the Christ, your Lord and God.

6th October 2005 (Night Prayer)

All praise and glory to your Lord and King, show honour and praise always for all that my Son Jesus has done for you, blessed be His name. He has done mighty deeds for you. I ask you to sing praise and glory to His name and realize the depth of His love for you. He gave His life to give you a new life. Do not waste the opportunity you have been given to live your life anew. Do not let His death be in vain. I beg you to accept this ultimate sacrifice as a gift for your salvation. I ask you to come before your Lord and Saviour often and confess your faults, give grateful thanks for all you have been given and ask for Him to come and be a part of your life. Ask Jesus to give you the graces you need to help you. Pray to Him for the knowledge you need to deepen your prayer life and to give you the wisdom to realize that Jesus is the only way to redemption. He is your Divine Redeemer, who sacrificed His life for you. I ask you now to take up the challenge of the new life you have been asked to live – a life where you acknowledge that you need the love of your Heavenly family – a life where you want to share this love you have been given by the Eternal Father and by my Son Jesus through the Holy Spirit with all those around you. Do not waste another moment. Turn now and ask to be filled with the Holy Spirit to renew and replenish you for your journey of life. I give you the gift of peace this day – I give you my Son Jesus who is the Prince of Peace.

long for us to come close once again in the peace of your beloved Saviour Christ, your Lord and God. Begin this day. I want you to be my instrument of peace.

3rd October 2005 (Night Prayer)

I ask you to concentrate only on your spiritual life. Do not be concerned about the worries of this world as they will pass away. It is important that you take care of the life you have to come – your eternal home in Heaven. There will be many who want to seduce you into believing that it is of utmost importance to have control of your life by the amount of money you have. Do not listen as this is not important – you cannot take the money with you. Isn't it of much more value to learn how you can deepen your spiritual life and then all others will be added onto you. The Eternal Father asks that you do it the right way. Put God first in your life. Include Him in all that you do. Ask for His help in all that you undertake, including your work and your life with your loved ones. He also asks that you reach out to others with love – even those who persecute you – try to forgive them and pray for the conversion of their hearts. Always remember to imitate my Son Jesus the Christ in all that you do. I am with you and want you to stay close to Me so I can give you the guidance you need. Do not rush ahead but ask always to be filled with the peace and love of Christ through the Holy Spirit.

4th October 2005 (Night Prayer)

I know there are days when you feel the responsibility of the mission that the Father has given you. I ask you to take time to read the stories of the saints and know that their journeys were the same. They also experienced dark times and felt the heaviness of the mission they had been given. It is most important that you do not give up in these times but instead be steeped in prayer and ask to be given the graces you need to strengthen you and give you the courage to continue the work you have been given even if you are not experiencing any fruit from it. As I have told you many times before it is important to come close to my Son Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar as you will carry the peace and joy of Christ with you. Turn to Him often in your day and acknowledge your great desire to have Him stay close to you. You experience heaviness and a sense of abandonment when you forget that your Lord and Saviour is close to you and wants so much for you to turn and include Him in your day. Never tire with your prayers and little acts of love given to my Son Jesus and to your Eternal Father. I ask you to always step out completely in trust even on the days when you experience darkness as you are given many graces daily even if you are unaware of them. Always remember to give humble thanks for all that you have and ask for help in what is to come. I, your Mother love you and I am with you now and always.

and will guide you. Ask them for their intercession to your Father in Heaven. Bring me all your little burdens and go away renewed and refreshed in the Spirit of Love. Trust completely, we will look after you and your every need. Give humble thanks for all that you have been given to your Father. Pray always for the conversion of all. Pray that they will obey God the Father and submit all to His Divine Will in their lives. Be at peace and know that you are loved by many. Remember, you are never alone so turn now with confidence to your Mother and share all with me. I am waiting for you. I love you.

10th August 2005 (Rosary Wednesday night)

Your Mother in Heaven hears the prayers that her children offer this night. I know the heartaches you have and take all your prayers to the Father in Heaven. Do not be afraid to come close to me and confide in me your innermost secrets. I want to help you. Come close to my Immaculate Heart and I will give you the strength you need. Do not become disheartened with the trials you have. Speak from your heart to me and trust that God sees all and will help you. You read in the Scriptures how Moses was tested. There are many examples how the Apostles were tested in their faith. Accept your trials and grow deeper in your faith and trust of your Father. Follow the virtues of faith, hope and love in your daily lives. Pray for guidance from the Saints in Heaven. They await your call to them. Read about their lives and learn from the example they set in their love of the Blessed Trinity and me, their Mother. Be still in your prayer time and know my Son, Jesus is with you and listens to your every word. Be always thankful for all you have been given, acknowledging your Holy Father in Heaven for His compassion mercy and love. Go now in peace and joy and the love of God, three in One.

11th August 2005 (Jesus morning prayer in front of tabernacle)

My child,

Your Lord God wants what is best for you. Do not despair but stay close to Me this day. Hand everything over to Me and rest close to my Sacred Heart. The time of darkness and despair is upon us. Come into My light and trust Me. Do not stay burdened but always turn to Me and let Me be your strength. Many people have turned away from God and are worshipping false gods. They place great importance on material possessions. My child, help them to change their ways. Bring them back to their true inheritance – eternal life. Pray for courage to be able to speak the words they need to hear. I will send the Holy Spirit to help you. Be always bathed in gentleness and compassion. I, your Lord and Saviour will be with you. My people are hurting. Let them know that I love and care for them. Encourage them to turn always to me. I am waiting to begin once again a spiritual relationship of love with them.

11th August 2005 (Night prayer)

Mercy and love flows from my Immaculate Heart to my children who consecrate themselves to me. Encourage many to consecrate themselves to my Immaculate Heart and to the Sacred Heart of my Son Jesus. Bring your families in your prayers to me and to my Immaculate Heart and I will protect them with my Holy Mantle. The world has lost the knowledge of what is right and what is wrong. They only do what feels right for them instead of turning to their Heavenly Father and listening to Him through His Commandments and through the Scriptures. So many of the moral lines have been blurred into if it feels right then do it. You need to teach the children from an early age to pray my rosary and show them what is right and what is wrong. I need the teachers to have courage and strength to teach the children the Father's Commandments and how to pray with an open heart for their needs. Reach out to the Mothers and Fathers and encourage them to be good examples to their children so they grow up with good moral values. Encourage them to read stories from the Scriptures to the children. I ask you to step out in faith and do the work for me. So much help is needed. I am with you always. Turn to me for guidance and strength.

12th August 2005 (Jesus morning prayer in front of the tabernacle)

My child,

My love for all my people is boundless. I wait here in the Holy Tabernacle for them to come to Me. I ask you to be an instrument of peace. Reach out and encourage my hurting people to turn back to Me and accept My love, mercy and compassion in their lives. I need them to turn away from sin and put all their trust in My saving power in their lives. I need them to open their eyes to the subtleness of the devil. He will convince them that what they are doing is all right. Obey the Father's Commandments. Put God first and all other things will be added onto you. I ask my people to call upon the Holy Spirit to prompt them in the areas where they are not doing the Father's Will. I also ask them to take quiet time for God. Be still and know that I am near. Come close to Me and I will give you strength. Listen to My words I give you through the Holy Scriptures. Begin today on the Journey of Love towards your Heavenly Inheritance.

12th August 2005 (Night Prayer)

The angels and saints surround you tonight.

The Eternal Father looks with merciful love on His children. It deeply saddens Him that His children have little morals and are so reckless and uncaring in their behaviour. There are no boundaries set in their lives and they are bringing their children up to be selfish and self centred. The family home should be the first place where children learn respect and are taught

2nd October 2005 (Night Prayer)

I need you to always have complete faith - faith in your Eternal Father and His plan for you; faith to step out into the unknown of complete trust from day to day; faith that you will be looked after no matter what happens in your life; faith that your Father in Heaven always has your best interest at heart. I ask you to always stay centred in your faith. There will be many times when your faith will be tested – this is why I have asked you to be steeped in your prayers and especially in the reading of the scriptures so that you will have the strength and courage when you are tested. Never be afraid of the trials but always turn to your Father in Heaven and to my Son Jesus and ask them to be with you and to strengthen you through the inspiration given to you by the Holy Spirit. Try to maintain gentleness - when you become agitated with situations in your daily lives you quickly lose your peace. I ask you to be recognizing when this happens and turn immediately to your heavenly family and ask for their help. There are times when you are called on to speak truth into someone's life. I want you to try and pray first for the heavenly help you need through the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Do not act on impulse but be disciplined. Do not react to situations but always act out of love and with the spiritual backing of your Heavenly Family to help and guide you to make good choices in all that you do. Remember if you do not get it right, acknowledge it to the Father and move on with the hope of doing it better next time a situation arises.

3rd October 2005 (in front tabernacle – Jesus)

I, your Lord and God want more than ever for our hearts to be united as one. Pray that you will have peace in your heart to enable us to stay together as one. Do not turn away because of the feeling of despair you have from the worries of the world. Come back to me and ask to be given peace in your heart once again and know that I will stay with you as long as you ask me to be there. I am your Lord God of peace and I long for my children to accept this peace in your hearts. No earthly desires will give you this peace which I can give you. Draw ever closer to Me, your Lord and Saviour and rest peacefully close to My Sacred Heart. I ask you to search no longer but recognize that if you come close to Me you will be given the nourishment you need. Come close to Me by your prayers. Come close to Me by your quiet time so you can listen and hear the longings of your heart. Come close to Me by receiving Me in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. Come close to Me by abandoning the ways of the world and accepting Me as your Lord and Saviour. Come close to Me by confessing your faults and failings to My beloved priests and once again you will be filled with the many graces of peace and joy in your hearts. I

30th September 2005 (Night Prayer)

To give your free will to your Heavenly Father takes much courage and self sacrifice. It means that you must step out in faith and trust completely that you will be looked after. I ask you this day to have the strength and courage to do this request and know that your soul will be flooded with graces to help you. I cannot emphasize enough the need for you to stay steeped in your prayer as there will be days where you want to give up and go back to the old patterns of living which were so comfortable as you were in control of your life. I call you to be warriors of Christ and go into battle for your Heavenly Father. I ask you to use the armour given to you – your prayers and to gain the strength needed by receiving by Son Jesus and by praying that you will be given the graces by the Holy Spirit to strengthen you for the spiritual battle. Do not worry. Always stay peaceful. You will be given the knowledge you need if you stay close to your Heavenly family. I ask you to persevere even in the darkness as eventually the brilliant light of my Adored Son Jesus the Christ will be revealed to you in all His full glory. I ask you to walk tall in your faith and never doubt that I am here for you and will guide you and answer all your needs through my Son Jesus, through your Eternal Father and through the love poured into your soul by the Holy Spirit.

1st October 2005 (Night Prayer)

My child,

Sing hymns of joy when trials beset you and know that your heart and soul will lift immediately and you will feel that sense of peace once more. The times we are living in are difficult and I know your difficulty in maintaining a peaceful disposition but I ask you to try and remember to turn to your Eternal Father and ask for the graces you need instead of staying unsettled and feeling so alone. Your Father knows how much you try to stay peaceful and to reach out to others in that love and peace. Do not turn away when you feel that you haven't handled a situation the right way instead turn to your Father and acknowledge that you didn't get it right and ask for the strength you need for the next time. Remember that the Father wants to be included into all of your life not just the good parts when you feel you have done His Will. He knows how hard you are trying. Seek help often from my Consecrated Sons through reconciliation as you will be given extra graces and will be able to start afresh every time you come to them and confess your inadequacies and areas of your life where you are having difficulties. You will feel far less burdened and will be strengthened to step out in faith once more and continue to do the Father's work. Come close, my loved ones, often to me and confide in me your fears and anxieties and know that I will give you the guidance you need to come close again to the Blessed Trinity.

to love others. Parents need to be disciplined in their own behaviour to be a good example and to be able to give their children the discipline they need. The Eternal Father disciplines His children because of His deep love for them. He gave us the Commandments not as a punishment but because He loves us so much and knows that we need to practice obedience and to have firm boundaries set in our lives. I beg you to change your lives and learn to live lives where you recognize the need to put God first and you also need to reach out in peace and love to the people God puts in your path. Read Hebrews 12 (5-12)

14th August 2005 (Jesus Sunday morning mass)

My dear little one,

I have great plans for you. Stay close to me steeped in prayer and self sacrifice given for the reparation of others. Do not falter in the knowledge that you will be guided all the way along the narrow path to your Heavenly Inheritance. I your Lord and God want to use you in the Father's plan for a new Heaven and a new earth. Trust completely in the guidance you will be given by my Mother and the angels and saints. Always take time in prayer and the reading of the Holy Scriptures. Listen to the words spoken to you. I am close to you always and will look after you.

14th August 2005

God's Holy Spirit of Love will dwell deep in your heart. If you ask you will be strengthened by the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. God the Father asks you to reach out in charity and love to all those you meet. Faith without good works of love is dead. The two most important virtues are faith and love. Faith and trust in your Eternal Father and using the love given you from the Father and my Son Jesus through the Holy Spirit for the benefit of others-practice selflessness by putting others first. Do it humbly without expecting rewards. There are many ways you can show love and acts of selflessness for others. Prayer offered for the reparation of all does much good. Reaching out in love quietly without drawing attention to oneself is another way. Giving financial support to those less well off is another act of love. Know that the Father sees all that you do silently and will reward you. Do not retaliate in anger or frustration when someone does not treat you well but rather reach out in love to that person. Your faith journey towards your Heavenly inheritance will at times seem difficult but remember to persevere and always turn to me your Mother for help. Say the prayer I taught you "Mary, my Mother, I love you. Help me to love others as you did and do. I will flood your soul with peace and joy. Do not travel the journey alone but always turn to me your Heavenly Mother for love and advice. I am waiting for you now.

15th August 2005

My heart is filled with joy with the prayers offered today on my Feast Day. I take your prayers as a bouquet of flowers and present them to the Eternal Father. I ask you to pray more deeply from your heart. Do not be distracted but stay close to me in prayer and I will help you. The prayers you offer me are used to help in the redemption of mankind. I ask you also to offer little acts of self denial and sacrifice for the reparation of sinners. Do not think that even your smallest sacrifice goes unnoticed. Remember to imitate my Son Jesus the Christ in all you do. Do not want to pay back with an eye for an eye but reach out instead in compassion and understanding when others hurt you. Many a heart can be changed by a loving action. Try to be understanding of others as you may not be aware of the hurts they carry in their hearts and they may seem to have a cold and hard exterior. Do not judge them just love all. The battle will be won by reaching out in love not with weapons of mass destruction. Stay close to me and I will give you strength to love those who are difficult to love. Always be steeped in prayer as this is the most powerful weapon which will defeat the Evil One. Stay centred in peace and joy always and may the Holy Spirit of Love fill your heart this night so you may reach out in turn with love to others.

16th August 2005 (Jesus morning prayers)

I your Lord God want to come close to you. I walk close beside you and I wait for you to invite me into your life. I love you and want the very best for you. Do not stay distant from me but reach out in prayer for your every need. I will guide you and help you. My love for you is endless and never wavers. I will give you strength for your journey. Ask and you will receive. The Father does not send you trials and burdens as punishment but always out of a deep love for you. I need you to be open to all the ways God the Father tries to reach out to you in your daily life. He patiently waits for you as He gave you your free will and He will never interfere with this unless you ask. Trust completely that you will be looked after in every part of your life and always have peace and joy in your heart with the knowledge that you are loved by many.

16th August 2005 (Night prayer)

The angels and saints are with you and want to help you in your life. Do not be afraid to ask them for their help. St. Michael will protect you always so call upon Him when you feel alone or are experiencing trials. The Saints were once like you – every day people who stepped out in faith and did the extraordinary. They trusted completely in the Divine Will of the Father some of them even to their death. Take up the challenge now that God the Father offers you. Do the extraordinary in your own lives and know that He will use you in all different ways to fulfil His plan for a new Heaven and a new earth.

28th September 2005 (Night Prayer)

My children,

Do not lose hope when the world seems hopeless. Do not despair and turn from your Heavenly family who long for you to turn to them in your time of trials. I ask you to have courage and pray daily for the strength you need for the trials of the day. I know that some days the journey towards your Heavenly Father seems difficult and obstacles seem to come up and block your way. I ask you to recognize when you are having difficulty ask for forgiveness or for help and then try to return to peace in your hearts. Your Eternal Father wants His children to know the depth of His love and mercy for you and He longs for you to have peace and joy in your hearts. I know sometimes you experience such a feeling of aloneness but I want to assure you that you are never alone and are always loved by many. All it takes is your desire to want to accept that love in your hearts. I ask you to not be hard on yourself when you have not had the patience or courage in difficult situations. Pray always to your Father in Heaven that you will have more strength next time and move on with peace in your hearts. Your Father understands and loves you where you are at this very moment. He will guide you if you will let Him. All it takes is for you to will it. Turn this day to your Father and give Him your "Yes".

29th September 2005 (Night Prayer)

I ask you through your weariness to come close and bathe in the love poured out to you through the Holy Spirit. Be replenished and refreshed by this grace and know that you can ask to be filled with the Holy Spirit of Love as often as you need. I know that there are times when you feel heavy burdened by the trials that come your way but I ask you to never despair but trust completely even if the way ahead seems to have no light. Be assured there is light and that is my Son Jesus the Christ who wants to fill you with His love and mercy radiating out from His Sacred Heart. It is important that you make time to spend with Him as often as you can and you will gain the strength needed for the days ahead. Some days you may experience the feeling of abandonment but just as Jesus told the apostles in the scriptures He also wants you to know that He will come looking until He finds every one of His flock. I know that there are times when you have some difficulty in trusting that you will be looked after by your Eternal Father in all areas of your life. I ask you to let go of the controls and believe that "the Father knew you even before you were born" and loves you more deeply than any earthly comparison. He will always guide and protect you. All He requires is your trust and your agreement to do His Divine Will in your life. I ask you to be at peace and turn this day to your Father in Heaven in complete love and trust that He is looking after you and your needs. Give grateful thanks for all that He has already given you and humbly ask for all your needs.

27th September 2005 (Night Prayer)

I ask you to promote the devotion of the Sacred Heart and my Immaculate Heart united as one for the redemption of mankind. The Eternal Father uses me, your Mother, as a guide to the Sacred Heart of my Son Jesus and together we work for the salvation of many souls. It is most important that you stay close by your prayers and I encourage you to say the chaplet to the United Hearts often as these prayers will help many. I want you to never feel as if you are abandoned but realize that we are close to you and await your request to be consecrated to my Immaculate Heart and the Sacred Heart of my Son Jesus. Gain strength by these prayers and encourage others to also pray these prayers with a fervent heart. Many people have a closed heart and stay distant. I ask you to bring them once again close into the loving embrace of me their Mother and my Son Jesus through the love poured into their hearts which are open to receive it. Many people need to experience healing of their hearts with their family and loved ones. I ask you to pray for this healing to begin through the prayers offered in the Consecration of our United Hearts. I ask you to encourage my hurting people to come close through their prayers given humbly to Me and to my Son Jesus and to always know that they will be guided to the Eternal Father in Heaven who will give them the graces they need for forgiveness and the healing of hearts through the Holy Spirit of Love.

Prayer given on 30th June 2005.

Immaculate Heart of Mary my heart is on fire with love for you. Guide me this day to the Sacred Heart of your Son Jesus and help me to stay close to your United Hearts so I may be filled with the Holy Spirit of Love and reach out to all those I meet in love and compassion and fulfill the work of Our Father in Heaven. Help me to trust more fully, to love more fully and help me to lead a life where I do God's Divine Will humbly because of my great desire to be a servant of the United Hearts of Jesus and Mary.

Do not balk at the responsibilities this may entail but always have courage to step out in faith for the work ahead. Do not try to do everything by yourself but rather turn and ask for heavenly help. We are waiting patiently for you to ask. There are so many people who need your help. Do not fear. Begin today. Go now in peace and joy with your heart filled with the love of the Father in Heaven and my Son Jesus the Christ through the gifts given to you by the Holy Spirit.

17th August 2005 (Night prayer)

My children

I need you to listen to the instructions given to you by my Son Jesus through His beloved disciples. After Pentecost they were inspired by the Holy Spirit to step out in complete trust and faith in God the Father and preach the Word of God to all people. Read the Acts of the Apostles and the letters written to the different communities and let the messages given then touch your hearts and inspire you also. You too, can be my Son Jesus the Christ's modern disciples for the work needed to be done at this very moment. All that is needed is your simple "Yes" and an ardent desire to serve God with all your heart, with all your mind and with all your soul and to serve your neighbour as yourself. Do not be afraid. Gain courage now and you will see how God will work in your lives. Be warriors of Christ. Put on the armour by your prayers and acts of self denial and stay close to me. I will guide and protect you always. I thank you once again for responding to my call to you.

18th August 2005 (Night prayer)

The Sacred Heart of my Son Jesus bleeds for humanity – the injustices done to human life in so many ways. The world has lost the dignity and respect for their fellow man and justifies all the senseless slaughter of others saying it is for the good of mankind. There will never be a good enough reason for the killing of another human being whether it be a baby in its mother's womb or the killing of people in war. God the Father gave the commandment "Thou shalt not kill" for a good reason. When will you learn to have dignity and respect for your fellow man? I beg you to change your ways and listen to my words to you before the Eternal Father's hand of justice comes down on the world. Be tolerant and reach out to others with loving ways not with vengeance. Cain and Abel were an early example of jealousy between brothers. Please learn from them that this way will never work and will cause more and more heartache. Pray that all those who think this way will open their hearts to God and change their ways before it is too late. Pray for mankind to always come to peaceful solutions and help defeat the evil which has permeated the world. I ask you to pray deeply for the reparation of all. Go now in peace and with the love of Christ Jesus.

19th August 2005 (Night prayer)

I call all to a conversion of the heart. I ask you to go deeper in your prayer life. Do not pray your prayers out of an obligation but pray to your Eternal Father with love. He longs for you to open your Heart more and let Him enter in. Communication is important in all relationships. God the Father wants you to include Him in all of your life not in small sections. When problems develop in families the way to solve them is by peaceful communication. Speak to the Father from your heart and He will answer you. He wants the very best for all His children and feels so hurt at the amount of people who have grown cold and distant from Him. Come back now. Come close to my Immaculate Heart and I will take you by the hand and lead you to the Sacred Heart of my Son Jesus and the Eternal Father in heaven. Ask for the Holy Spirit's love to flood your heart and soul and commence the journey of deeper faith this day. I love you and I am always close by you.

20th August 2005 (in my prayer room – night prayer)

I ask my children to pray like never before. I need your prayers given to me from the heart to help pay the ransom of many. Do not be hesitant but be strong in your resolve to deepen your relationship with God the Father by your prayers given through me, your Blessed Mother. I want to lead you this day to my Son Jesus who in turn will take you to your Eternal Father in Heaven. No one can come to the Father except through the Son. Come close to Jesus by receiving Him often in Holy Communion and by spending time in front of the tabernacle. You will gain many graces and be strengthened in your faith if you come close to Him often. Many people have their lives so full with worldly matters they have no room for prayer and quiet time. Take time to pray and you will experience much peace and joy in your life. Forego something in your life as a small self sacrifice and instead spend that time in prayer. An example of this is a programme you may watch on television or a magazine you may read each week. These small tokens of self denial appease the Father greatly. My child, I want the best for you so listen to my pleas and try and include some more prayer time into your life. Stay close to your Heavenly Mother as I watch over you and guide you.

21st August 2005 (2am Jesus)

I need you to be steeped in prayer from the heart for the challenges ahead. I have much work for you but I need you to trust Me completely. Take time to gain strength before you go home. It will be difficult if you try and do it all alone. I will send you people to help you to stay close to Me. Do not fear anything but have complete trust in Me your Lord and God. Be patient in all aspects of your life and do not rush on ahead without me. Turn to Me

26th September 2005 (Evening Prayer)

Much suffering exists in the world today and a feeling of deep despair. My children need to realize that there is no need to despair or feel that the situation is hopeless. All you need to do is to turn to your Eternal Father, ask for His forgiveness and you will be showered with love and graces from above. I need the message of the Father's endless love to go out to people everywhere. I ask you to be messengers of love and mercy. Do not worry as to how this will come about but trust completely in your Heavenly family. Have courage and pray always for guidance. This is why I ask you to stay close and be steeped in prayer and self sacrifice. You will need to be disciplined in your daily lives for the work ahead. I love you and will always be close by to encourage and guide you. Turn to me often. The road will not be an easy one, but never doubt the help you have from above. Be recognizing of the people God asks you to help and always reach out with a humble heart. I ask you again to gain strength and courage for the time ahead. May the Eternal Father's blessings be upon you this night and always.

27th September 2005 (Jesus in front of tabernacle – Morning Prayer)

My child,

I love you beyond compare and want you to achieve much in your spiritual life. Never be afraid to step out in faith with the knowledge that your Lord and Saviour is close beside you and wants to help you. You need to ask me for help and trust completely that I have your best interests at heart. Trust that I will look after you and your every need. Do not be afraid of your journey into the unknown. You are protected by your family from above. There will be trials but I ask you to always have courage and put on a brave face. Try to stay peaceful and have joy in your heart with the knowledge that your Lord God is with you always. Remember that we are united as one through Holy Communion. There is also communion of the heart, so I ask you to draw close to my Sacred Heart and know that our hearts are melded as one. Do not turn away from Me even for one moment. I ask you more than ever to trust completely. When you say "Sacred Heart of Jesus I put all my trust in you" I ask you to really mean it and from that moment on hand over all your burdens and free will with the knowledge that I will guide you to your Heavenly Inheritance – the Eternal Father who is waiting to shower you with love and graces. I ask you if you have not already started, begin your journey of trust this day and ask for all your needs with a trusting heart with the knowledge that you will be filled with the Holy Spirit of love to strengthen you for your journey.

without expecting a reward or to be acknowledged for it. My Son Jesus showed compassion often in the Scripture. He tells Zacchaeus to “come down from the tree because I want to stay with you today.” I ask you to read the scripture passages and imitate my Son Jesus the Christ in all areas of your life, especially in the way you reach out to others with love and compassion. Do not pick and choose or say that this is not meant for you. You are all called to be true witnesses of Christ by your actions. The saying “actions speak louder than words” means that the Eternal Father wants the love of Christ to flow out to all people by the way you witness to them. I send you many graces from the Father in Heaven and my Son Jesus on this my special day and I ask you to use these graces for the fulfilment of the Fathers work of a new Heaven and a new earth. My love and peace is with you tonight and always.

25th September 2005 (Night Prayer)

I am well pleased with the way you reached out in love to people today. Many graces will flow from this single act of charity as it will have a flow on effect to others. Always remember that your obedience to your Eternal Father to reach out in love to your neighbour will help in the salvation of many souls. This selfless action will be rewarded. There are many hurting people who are suffering because of lack of love and someone reaching out to them and telling them they care. I ask you this night to be brave and step out further and be prepared to listen to God’s people and the hurts they carry. Just to know that someone is listening will help ease the burdens they have been carrying around. There is much work to do so I ask you to try and take time for God’s people by your loving attitude towards them. I remind you not to try and do this work alone but to include me, your Mother, in all you do, as I will always guide you and will send you the help you need. Be aware that the Father will send you people to minister to. Do not turn your backs on them but always give thanks to your Eternal Father for all that you have and be ready to share your love and mercy with others. This work will involve some trials but I ask you to gain strength by your prayers and reception of the Sacraments and gain knowledge of the Scriptures, which will help when you are ministering to God’s people. Be always peaceful with a strong resolve to always do God’s work with a heart full of love through the grace of the Holy Spirit given to you by your Father in Heaven and Jesus, the Christ.

always with any of your doubts or concerns in all parts of your daily life and I will give you the help you need. I need you to persevere and never give up even in times of doubt. I want your complete trust that I am guiding you from above. Always have peace and joy in your heart knowing you are being looked after and that you are loved beyond compare by your Lord and God.

You must humbly love your self and your self worth and accept love from others before I can use you as a vessel of love which will flow out with love and compassion to all those I put in your path.

21st August 2005 (Night Prayer)

The journey towards humility and becoming small can be painful as human nature naturally enjoys self praise. Do not be sad when you stumble on this journey towards smallness. The Father sees your heart and knows you are trying. I ask you to live your life better by always reaching out in love to all those around you. The trials you face will make you a stronger person and your faith will blossom into its fullness. The world is full of insecurities. I ask you to try and hand these insecurities over to me. Do not keep them to yourself. Try not to be concerned about what others think about you. Always know that your Eternal Father loves you and knows your heart. Come close to my Son Jesus and receive the warmth of the rays flowing from His Sacred Heart of mercy and love. I ask you to humbly love yourself and your humanness and have peace in your heart.

22nd August 2005 (Night prayer home – Jesus)

I need you to trust completely in my love for you even when you feel abandoned and so alone in your faith journey. I ask you to give yourself totally to me and continue doing my work on earth. I asked my disciples to step out in faith and trust me completely and I call you to the same challenge. Do not fear the unknown but know that I will never forsake you but want always the best for you. Persecution comes in many different ways. Stay close to like minded people who will support you when you experience spiritual darkness in your life. Know that during these times your faith will be strengthened the most. I am with you in your loneliness and I will never leave you. Gain strength always for the journey by receiving Me in Communion and know that I stay united with you for as long as you allow it. Come close to my Sacred Heart and know the depth of love I have for you is far beyond any earthly comparison. Do not stay distant and alone. Trust completely and come and give me your total love. I have much work for you to do. All your hurts are used to help in the salvation of many. Stay awake and be prepared by your prayers for my call to you.

23rd August 2005 Night prayer home 10.30pm)

Conversion of the heart will only come to those who have an open mind to all they see and experience. God the Father can not work through you if you are closed and have not opened your heart to Him by your fervent prayer, by the way you reach out in love to all those you meet and by the way you include Him into your life.

The Eternal Father wants your happiness. He wants you to experience pray for protection in all the work you do. Never forget that I am close by your side and will never leave you. Turn to me often and ask for my help. Be at peace for the journey ahead.

26th August 2005 (Night Prayer)

Give me your wounded heart and allow me through my Immaculate Heart to unite it to the wounds of my Adored Son Jesus' Sacred heart. Do not feel burdened but know that your woundedness can be used for the good of others. Always have complete trust that you are never alone in your journey but you need to turn in prayer to my Son Jesus often and ask for His help. Listen to Him through the Holy Scriptures as you will be given all the answers to your problems. He asks for your faithfulness and He wants to comfort you and give you courage and strength through the love of the Holy Spirit. I ask you to begin with small steps of faith with peace in your heart and with the knowledge that I your Heavenly Mother will take you gently by the hand and lead you towards the Eternal Father through my Son Jesus. Come close now and hand over all your concerns to Me. Give thanks to the Father for all that you have and never be afraid to ask for Heavenly help, no matter how small the request. Ask for my protection and know that you will be held close under my Holy Mantle of love. Remember to pray and stay peaceful in your journey.

27th August 2005 (Night Prayer)

I cannot emphasize enough the importance of your prayer time. The more time you put aside for your quiet time in prayer the deeper your relationship will be with your Heavenly Father and my Son, Jesus. Your eyes will also be opened to the plan God has for you and you will see the people He puts in your path daily. Do not be distracted in worldly matters but be steeped in prayer. This prayer time should include reading the Holy Scripture as you will be given the guidance you need through the Holy Word of God. I ask you to become disciplined in your prayer time, in your self sacrifice of fasting and penance as this will give you strength you will need. I call you to obedience to your Heavenly Father. Be accepting of the Divine Will of the Father in your life and obediently follow the request he gives to you through me, your Mother. Call upon my help and I will guide you always. Do not be distracted; stay focussed on your Heavenly goal. Ask the Holy their crosses and followed my adored Son, Jesus, to reach out and preach to all nations the truth about the saving grace of their Lord and Saviour. I ask you to spend time every day in prayer and contemplation on the inspired words given to the apostles through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. Follow in their footsteps towards the light of my Son Jesus, who will lead you to the Eternal Father who is waiting to shower you with the graces and blessings from above. My love and peace be with you all, this night and always.

23rd September 2005 (Night prayer)

The salvation of souls will depend upon the loyalty and faithfulness of my beloved remnant. The Scripture says "the harvest is plentiful and the labourers are few." This applies more than ever to the time you are living in. The work the Father has for you to do is most important and it is necessary for you to be fully prepared by your prayer life and the way you live your daily lives. The messages you have been given are to be used as preparation for the time ahead. Read them carefully and follow the instructions you have been given. Do not always think that the messages apply to others and not yourself. Humble yourself completely in the eyes of your Father in Heaven and ask that He will open your heart to the areas in your life where you need to grow. Pray for the guidance you need; learn to change your own heart first. Try to always meet others with humility and love and not make judgements on them and theirs lives. As Scripture says "take the plank out of your own eye before taking the splinter out of your brothers." I ask you once again not to become distracted but to stay close to me.

Consecrate yourself to my Immaculate heart and be aware that I will guide you to the Sacred Heart of my Son Jesus. Be tolerant of others and always ask for guidance and help when you are having difficulties with the people you meet. I want you to know that I am close to you and will always help you with all your needs. I, your Heavenly Mother want the very best for you. Go now in the peace and love of my Son Jesus and the Eternal Father through the love of the Holy Spirit.

24th September 2005 (Night prayer) Feast of Our Lady of Mercy

I ask you this night to practice often the virtue of compassion for your fellow man. True compassion comes from the heart. It is not reaching out with a condescending air that you are doing them a favour by even talking to them. True compassion means you do not judge them in any way but reach out in love and treat them as your brother or sister in Christ. Compassion means you can empathize with them and want to help them. This help may just mean that you understand and will help them by your prayer support. Compassion means putting others first in your life – doing a kindness Saviour. I ask you to use these gifts given to you as often as you can. Come close to your Heavenly family through all the Sacraments. Confess your faults and failings and begin once again the journey of life towards your Heavenly inheritance. I love you and will walk the walk with you always. Turn to me now and know I am by your side.

Read Ephesians 2 12-18

21st September 2005 (Evening prayer)

Mother, I feel so sad and burdened because people just won't listen to the words you give them to turn back to the Eternal Father.

Dry your tears and know that your prayers and acts of love do much to mitigate events. I want you to always be a pure vessel of light and love reaching out to others. Many times you will not know if any good has come from your actions but I need you to always completely trust in the Father's plan in your life. I know your sadness as I too, feel an overwhelming sadness when God's children turn away from Him and lead lives that are not pleasing. I ask you to try and be joyful and have peace in your heart and continue the work you are doing in the salvation of souls. The Eternal Father will always guide you in your work. I remind you to call upon the help of the Holy Spirit each day as you will be given the inspiration needed to handle every situation. I ask you also to bring all your loved ones in prayer to the Eternal Father and be assured that I will bring them under the protection of my Holy Mantle. Always reach out to them in love and when the time is right you will be able, through the Holy Spirit to put them on the right path. Try not to be burdened but trust completely in the Eternal Father, in Jesus, my Son and receive always the gift of love poured out into your heart for the good of others. I will protect and guide you always.

22nd September 2005 (rosary – evening prayer)

I call you this night to obedience to the Eternal Father. This is a discipline which will help you to persevere when trials come upon you. I ask you to have patience in your spiritual life and to resist the urge to run on ahead without including your Heavenly family into your life. All the virtues will assist you, so please pray to the Holy Spirit to help you attain them.

Man has become undisciplined and seeks only self satisfaction through his greed. Do not follow these worldly ways. Turn away from the lures of the world and listen to all you are being told. Do not want to always do it your own way but realize that the only way is through your Eternal Father. He gave you Jesus, His Son, who is the way, the truth and the life. I ask you to come into the complete knowledge of the truth in your life. Do not be blinded but read the scriptures and learn the lessons from your brothers in Christ – the apostles. They abandoned the ways of the world and took up

Spirit to give you the courage and strength you need. Be peaceful with the challenges you face with the knowledge you are never alone. Turn to me now. I await your call and long for you to come close to me in your prayer time.

28th August 2005 (Night Prayer)

I ask you to carry your cross with dignity and love knowing you are helping many. Do not ask for your cross to be lessened but instead ask for the graces you need to carry it. By your interior suffering you will be responsible for the reparation of many. Remember to unite your cross with the cross of my Son Jesus. The Father allowed Jesus to die on the cross for the redemption of mankind. Allow the Father to use your cross also for the redemption of many. Do not try to stay alone in your suffering but always hand all over in prayer and know that the Father will send you help from above. I ask you again to always reach out to others in peace and love, as your actions will represent Christ to God's people who cry out in need for someone to show them compassion and love without judging them. I ask you to take up the challenge this night and do Christ's work by your endless acts of love and self sacrifice. I ask you to reach out to all you meet, not just a few as in this way you will be taking up your cross and following my Son Jesus. I need you to remember to always be steeped in prayer for the work you have been asked to do and always pray daily for protection from above. In times of doubt always turn in prayer first. Do not rush ahead but do the Father's work always peacefully and with patience. I am with you in your work for the salvation of souls and will look after you and your every need.

29th August 2005 (Midday prayer)

I ask you to be prepared. It is most important that you stay close, by your prayer. Do not fear what is happening, but always trust that the Father will look after you. I need your prayers more than ever. I ask you to pray with an open heart. I urge you pray, pray, pray. Always be peaceful, as I am close by and will protect you. I thank you for responding to my call to you.

29th August 2005 (Night Prayer)

It is necessary for the chastisement to take place to cleanse the world of the evil which has permeated into every corner. When will people realize the error of their ways and turn back to God? I need your faithfulness to the Word of God. You must have complete trust in the Father's Divine Will in your life. Do not be arrogant and self seeking. Be humble and gentle of heart and turn always in prayer for all your needs. Do not wait to see what is to come. I need you to step out in faith now and do God's work on earth. Be more realizing of the power of your prayers when offered to the Father with a sincere heart. Your prayers can change the hand of justice of your Heavenly Father. I ask you not to be a spectator but to step out boldly in faith and be an example to others. Ask the Holy Spirit to fill you with courage and strength, pray with a humble heart and know that these prayers do help in the redemption of mankind. Do not be deterred by the trials you face but always bring all to your Heavenly Father in prayer. I will help you.

30th August 2005 (Night Prayer)

Mother Teresa is a wonderful example of someone who had complete trust in the Eternal Father in every part of her life. She also possessed a strength which enabled her to speak up for her faith and she had incredible courage. I encourage you to imitate my daughter Teresa and you will reap the rewards of a deeper knowledge of the Father's plan in your life and you will gain the graces you need to reach out always in compassion and love to all those you meet. Mother Teresa had compassion for all people and the work she started continues to grow all around the world. Do not think "I am only one person; how can I make a difference?" She also was only one small person and look at the incredible gifts she was given for her work by the Eternal Father because of her faithfulness. The Father calls you also to step out in faith and trust and He will give you incredible gifts for the work He needs you to do. I just ask you to trust in His Divine Will completely. Do not falter in this trust. Pray often and you will be strengthened. Choose this day to be a missionary of Christ just as Teresa was a missionary. There are many ways you can be a missionary. Pray and discern through my Son Jesus what the Father is calling you to be and do not be afraid to follow in the footsteps of my Son Jesus the Christ and my daughter Teresa.

31st August 2005

I ask you to have the trust and faith in your Eternal Father just the same as the newborn baby has in its Mother. The baby is completely trusting in his Mother to give him all his needs. The Father tells you "unless you become like children you cannot enter the Kingdom of Heaven". I ask you again this night to free yourself of all the worries and burdens which keep you distant from your Heavenly Father and turn now in complete trust to Him who will look after every part of your life. Do not keep your Father out but invite Him to be part of all of your life. I want to remind you that you do not need to do it all alone. The Father is waiting for you to invite Him to be part of your life. He has many graces for you to receive but will never interfere with your free will. He wants you to stay close to me, your Mother, to my Son Jesus through the receiving of the Holy Eucharist and by spending time in prayer in front of the tabernacle. He asks you to call upon the Holy Spirit to give you the help you need. The angels and saints also await your prayers and

18th September 2005 (Night prayer)

I ask you to open your arms wide and accept the love that your Father in Heaven wants to pour into your hearts which are open to receive it. Do not fear to receive this love in abundance as this will sustain and nourish you for the journey. The Father in Heaven gave you many gifts including the ultimate gift of the sacrifice of His Son Jesus who died on the cross so you would be born again into a new life. Do not stay distant but accept all the gifts and graces that your loving Father gives you including the gift of the Holy Spirit. I ask you once again to always call on the Holy Spirit to guide and help you and ask regularly to be filled with the graces of the love of the Holy Spirit in your life. Be more recognizing of how often the Holy Spirit gives you the inspiration and wisdom when you call upon Him. I ask you to also try to be humble of heart and gentle with those you meet on your faith journey. Try to remember that everyone is on different levels of spirituality. Do not judge them but rather reach out in love and meet them where they are. This may mean that you reach out more in your actions than your words. Allow the Eternal Father to work through you and be peaceful with the knowledge that He will make goodness happen out of every situation. I, your Blessed Mother always have such joy in my heart when you turn and ask me to help you to fulfill the Father's work of a new Heaven and a new earth. Know that I am close by at all times. Turn to me often and know that I hear all your prayers and take them to my Son Jesus and the Eternal Father for you. May the blessings of the Father and my Son Jesus be upon you this night through the love of the Holy Spirit.

20th September 2005 (Morning Prayer in front of tabernacle – Jesus)

I, your Lord and Master, reside here in the holy tabernacle. I wait patiently for you, my children to come to me and ask me to be part of your day. I want, more than ever, to come close to all of my brothers and sisters in Christ. I ask you this day to begin again the journey of truth. Do not let the past hurts in your lives cloud your judgment but ask through your prayer for the truth to be revealed to you. Pray to the Holy Spirit to descend upon you and fill you with knowledge and truth, which is the gift of wisdom. Begin afresh this day and pour out to Me all the hurts and burdens you hold that are locked away deep within you. Break open the chains which surround your heart and ask me to enter in and become part of your life. Do not let anything ever keep you parted from Me.

Remember that every time you receive Me in communion we are united as one for as long as you desire to keep me close. The Eternal Father gave Me as the ultimate sacrifice because of His unending love for all of His children. The holy sacrifice of the mass is the continuing gift that the Father gives you as He wants you to be in full communion with Me, your Lord and

My love for my children is endless and unconditional. I care for you all with a Motherly concern and want you all to come back to your Father in Heaven and my Adored Son, Jesus the Christ. Do not stay away from your Heavenly family but turn back now before it is too late. Your Father is all love and all compassion and mercy and longs for you to turn back to Him. I ask you not to despair about the worries of the world but to completely trust in your Father and the plan He has for you. So many of you are arrogant and self serving and believe you can do it alone without your Father's help. You are on the wrong path which leads to nowhere. I ask you to please change your ways. If only my children would see how simple it could be for them. Your Father in Heaven asks that firstly you put the Lord your God first in your life and secondly that you reach out in love to your fellow man. If you would only follow these two commandments you would be once again on the narrow path towards your Heavenly Inheritance. I ask you to break down the barriers which block you from acknowledging that the Eternal Father is your Lord and God. I ask you to remember that your Father is all compassion and longs to meet you where you are at this very moment. Open your heart now and come back to your Father in Heaven and to my Son Jesus and accept the Holy Spirit of Love which they now offer you so you may once again reach out in love and compassion to all those you meet. Be always at peace with joy in your heart. I am with you always.

17th September 2005 (Night Prayer)

The shield of protection is with you when you pray humbly to your Father in Heaven. I ask you again to invoke protection from up above each day, to help you with any trials which come your way. Always be centered in your spiritual life and ask God's help whenever you can. Do not be influenced by those who are negative and cause dissention with all that is happening. Always maintain a peaceful attitude and pray for the conversion of their hearts. There will be many trials and it will be a testing time for your fortitude of faith. Never glance away for even a moment but stay close to me and continue to do as I ask you. Come close to my Son Jesus; share with him all your concerns. Talk to him about your needs. Receive Him in the Holy Eucharist. Pray often. I especially ask that you ask for the wisdom to be given to you from your Eternal Father through the gift of the Holy Spirit. I also ask you once again to always have selfless motives when you meet people on your journey of life. Reach out to all with the love and compassion just as your Father in Heaven and Jesus, my Son reach out to you in love and compassion, never judging you but meeting you where you are. Be the guiding light which is needed to bring many back to their Eternal Father once more. I am with you and will guide you.

1st September (Night Prayer)

I ask you to always show compassion to others. My Son Jesus showed compassion and mercy and love. I want you to realize the importance of your reaching out in compassion and love to all those you meet. I need you to break down all the barriers which hold you back from coming close to others. Please always bring to mind the words of my Son Jesus "Whatever you do for the least of my brethren, you do for me." The smallest act of kindness does not go unnoticed. I ask you to humble yourself completely in the sight of God and do the work He wants you to do. Let go of all your controls and let the Father take charge of every part of your life. Be aware always of the Father's guiding hand in your life. Nothing is by chance. I encourage you to turn always in prayer. Give thanks for all you have and always ask for guidance for the day ahead. Pray for the Father to send you the fruits of the Holy Spirit to strengthen you so you will be able to reach out more easily to others. The main fruit of the Holy Spirit is charity – love of neighbour. This will help you always to reach out to others in compassion and love. I ask you to begin now on your journey of love and compassion. I thank you for the help you give the Eternal Father and my Son Jesus through your obedience to my messages. Be always peaceful.

3rd September 2005 (late afternoon Grotto at Church)

My child,

I need you to respond to my call to you to pray more and to deepen your relationship with your Eternal Father by your prayer. I ask you to not take lightly the words I give you that time is short and much prayer is needed for the salvation of souls. Worldly things will pass away; not so your heavenly inheritance. Do not risk eternal life by staying distant from your Father and turning your back on Him. I ask you to please change your ways and renew your relationship with God. Come close to me, your Heavenly Mother and I will help you in your pursuit of Heaven. I ask you to make time in your day for quiet prayer. Begin with small amounts and you will find that you will want to spend more time in prayer. Speak from your heart to my Son Jesus and you will realize that every word is listened to and your requests are always answered. Your Heavenly Father knows all and just as a parent discerns when asked a question by their children so too does the Father listen and discern. He will always do that which is best for you. Do not feel offended if the answer you want does not come. Remember the most spiritual growth comes when you practice the virtues of patience and obedience. Trust completely and know when you turn all over to your Heavenly family you will always be shown love, compassion and mercy and will be given the graces you need to help you achieve your Heavenly reward.

3rd September 2005 (Saturday night prayer vigil)

Do not allow the burdens of your daily life to affect your relationship with your Heavenly Father. Take down the barriers you have which impede you from drawing close to His loving embrace. I ask you to think about and pray for discernment in your life with all blockages which you have unknowingly created. The Father needs you to trust Him completely. He wants you to be free of these burdens so you can grow ever deeper in your love for the Eternal Father and for my Son Jesus. To enable the Holy Spirit to flow through you, so you can reach out to all you meet in love and compassion the Father requires all of your body and soul to draw near Him in prayer and trust in His Divine Will in your life. This can sometimes be difficult but I encourage you to pray fervently and ask the Holy Spirit to send you the help you need. This morning's reading regarding putting new wine into old wineskins reminds you of the fact that you need to get rid of any old habits so that you are refreshed and renewed to enable the Holy Spirit to work through you and to accomplish the work the Father has destined for you. Begin the journey of deeper trust this night and gain strength from my Son Jesus in Adoration. He is waiting for you to come close to Him as He longs to help you in all your needs. Be always at peace.

4th September 2005 (Night prayer)

I ask this night that you are true witnesses of Christ by your faithfulness. To be a witness of your faith means to reach out in love to others. I ask you to be a witness not by your words but by your actions. Be happy always to meet people where they are and leave it to God to work through you. I ask you to listen to your Heavenly Father and be always guided by Him. Do not rush ahead but I ask again that you turn first and ask for heavenly help. In difficult moments always confide in the Eternal Father and tell Him your concerns and then move on peacefully knowing that you have done your best and leave it up to God the Father to do the rest. Be patient with people and try to understand their pain. Be tolerant with others and always turn every situation into a prayer offered to the Father. It may take time for people to change their hearts. Try not to judge their actions but instead always pray for the healing of their hearts. The more times you reach out to others in love you will become aware of the gentle changing of their hearts towards you. Always ask for help from the Holy Spirit to give the inspiration in all of your circumstances. The Father is eternally grateful for the work you are doing and encourages you never to doubt but always trust that every time you reach out in love, much good comes from it and eventually flows on to others. I walk beside you always.

14th September 2005 (Rosary – night prayer)

The light of my adored Son Jesus, the Christ shines down upon you all this night. I ask you to come close to Him through the Holy Scriptures, through receiving Him in the Holy Eucharist and through your prayers to Him. My sorrow is great for the world has turned away from their Eternal Father in Heaven and no longer listens to the words of wisdom given to them. I ask you to offer many prayers that the people of the world will change their ways and open their hearts to their Father in Heaven and to my Son Jesus. I ask you to take on responsibility for others by your prayers and acts of love to help in the salvation of souls. Do not fear this responsibility but have complete trust. Your Father will help you so turn to Him this night and give Him your yes and become a part of the redemptive work for the salvation of many. I ask you to always keep a humble heart as your quiet acts of love are the way to achieve the most good for the Father. I ask you again to follow the virtues given to you through the Holy Spirit. Remember to persevere when times of trials occur. Practice obedience and always stay patient as all these virtues will strengthen you for the journey ahead. Pray with an open heart to me your Mother as I hear and answer all your prayers given to me humbly. I am with you always.

15th September 2005 (Night Prayer)

My heart is still so filled with sorrow for my children who have turned their backs on their Heavenly Father and continue to nail my Son Jesus to the cross by their thoughtless actions. I begin you to turn back and renew your love and commitment to your Eternal Father and to my Son Jesus. If only you could realize the amount of goodness you do every time you offer your prayers to the Father, every time you reach out and help your fellow man in need. These actions help in the reparation of many souls. I ask you, today, to help dry my tears by helping the Father to do the work needed for the salvation of souls. Do not lead selfish lives but try to be selfless in your actions. I, your Mother, want to help you so I ask you to come close and begin to trust your Eternal Father and my Son Jesus and I ask you to pray to your Father to send the Holy Spirit of Love down upon you to strengthen you for the work that the Father needs to do through your commitment to His Divine Will in your life. I thank you for your faithfulness in coming today and I send you blessings from above. The peace of my Son Jesus the Christ be with you this day and always.

12th September 2005 (Night Prayer)

Never doubt the fact that the Eternal Father will use you through your brokenness for the healing of many lost souls. I ask you to gain strength as you will need it to do the work you are to undertake. I ask you to trust completely. Let go and let God. Remember that the work you will do is not of your making but purely through the Divine Will of your Father in Heaven. This is why it is so important that you stay centred in your prayer life. It is easy to become distracted by things of this world. Pray always for help and you will be given all the graces you need. The journey will not be an easy one but I ask you to trust completely as the rewards will be great. You may at times feel confused and alone. I ask you to always read the Holy Book of God as you will be given the answer to many of your questions. Make room for quiet contemplation as your Eternal Father can communicate with you more easily when you take time to be still and listen. Do not fear the unknown but rely completely on the Father in Heaven and my Son Jesus. You need only to take it one day at a time and all will be revealed to you in due course. I am with you so do not hesitate to turn to me now and seek my advice and comfort. I, your Heavenly Mother want to look after you and guide you in your journey ahead.

13th September 2005 (Night Prayer)

I ask you for complete faithfulness to your Eternal Father in Heaven. No matter how many trials you face, I ask you to remain loyal and faithful to the teachings of your Heavenly Father. This is the reason I have repeatedly asked for you to pray to the Holy Spirit to strengthen you for the time ahead. There is no need to fear. God the Father does not send you these trials but He allows them. In this way you build your spiritual character and many lessons are learned. Do not place harsh judgments on yourself but always turn to the Father and humbly ask for His help through my Son Jesus. You will receive the courage and strength that you pray for so always be peaceful and have complete trust that you are being looked after. The time ahead will be trying so please remember that even though there are times when you feel so abandoned, you are never alone. Always continue to turn to your Heavenly family and include us in all of your day. I, your Mother will walk the walk with you and will protect you under my Holy Mantle. I ask you to pray to the Holy Spirit to give you peace and joy in your heart as it is difficult to reach out in love to others if you are weighed down by burdens. I love you and I am with you always. Thank you for responding to my call.

5th September 2005 (Hospital with Nancy)

I ask you to be ambassadors of Christ. Step out and be his representatives on earth – his disciples. Christ told the apostles to go forth and teach all nations. Nothing has changed. You are called also to go out and give my messages to all people. This is a time of great grace and many people can experience deep conversion of their hearts. The Father needs you to be an instrument of peace. Do not let any opportunity pass you by. Always be ready and recognizing of people who the Father needs you to help. Remember always to be gentle and humble of heart. I ask you to reach out to people but to also allow them to come to their own decisions. The Father gave all His children free will to enable them to make their own choices. You must always stay close by your prayers. Be still and listen to the words given to you through my messages. This will be important training for the work ahead. I ask you again to not become distracted but to always stay close to me; your Heavenly Mother and I will guide you.

6th September 2005 (Night Prayer)

Allow me to guide you in all your undertakings. I am your Heavenly Mother and just as a mother will try to guide her children in all their decisions I too, will guide you. I ask you to turn always to me in prayer and I will help you. Seek guidance also in the Holy Scriptures. The words of wisdom will speak to you if you are open to it. Your Eternal Father sends you His guidance in many different ways. He can speak to you through His Consecrated Sons and in other ways. Open your hearts to God and recognize how much He wants to help you and influence you to make right choices. He will never interfere and he needs you always to ask for help. Prayer is always your greatest ally so I ask you to learn to make every part of your day a prayer. You will be guided in everything you do, so begin the journey of trust and reach out to the Father, to my Son Jesus and to me, your Mother, in prayer and know that you will be sent the inspiration of the Holy Spirit to guide you always.

7th September 2005 (Rosary – night prayer)

I cannot emphasize enough the need for your perseverance in your prayer life. There will be times when you feel so alone and feel as if the Eternal Father has abandoned you. You will receive many graces and spiritual growth if you continue to persevere in your prayers and do not give up your faith. Remember by this the feeling of abandonment how my Son felt during the agony in the garden. Turn always to Him in prayer and know that He stays close by your side. I ask you also to receive the nourishment of my Son Jesus through the Blessed Eucharist as often as you can. I also ask you to pray to the Holy Spirit to give you the virtue of perseverance to help you during these times of spiritual darkness. Always keep in mind the need to come close to the light of the world – my son Jesus. Do not ever give up hope but be strengthened in your resolve to never be parted from the Blessed Trinity by the distractions of the world. Ask me, your Mother to help you in your spiritual journey and know that I will take you to the Sacred Heart of my Son Jesus where you will be guided towards your Heavenly inheritance.

8th September 2005 (Apparition night)

We are living in trying times where evil has permeated every part of our world. Man has turned on his own fellow man and lawlessness exists everywhere. I ask you to pray for protection daily. I need you to be steeped in your prayer life and I ask you not to stray away from the narrow path because of worldly distractions. Your Eternal Father will protect you and look after you and all your needs. In return he asks you to trust Him completely. I ask you to always stay peaceful and do not worry about all events unnecessarily. If you do as the Eternal Father asks, you do not have any need for concern. I ask you to offer many acts of love and self sacrifice to help your loved ones. Remember to reach out to all in love and leave the rest up to the Father. The Father asks you to speak truth but He also asks that you stay centred in faith and lead by example to others. I ask you once again to stay close to me, your Mother. I want you to meditate on my rosary and practice the virtues given to you through the mysteries of the rosary. I want you to grow deeper in your love of the Father and my Son Jesus by your prayer life and the way you lead your life. Always ask for the Holy Spirit to strengthen you in all your endeavors. I thank you for your faithfulness and I send you many blessings from your Eternal Father.

9th September 2005 (Jesus evening prayer)

I, your Lord and Saviour, need you to trust me completely; so many have turned their backs and no longer turn to me for any help. They lead lives that are faithless and will suffer the consequences of their wrong choices. I ask you to help with the conversion of many souls. Do not worry when trials beset you, turn always and include me in these moments. Offer these trials for the reparation of souls. I need you to gain strength now for what is to come. I ask you again not to be distracted but to stay centred in your faith. In this way you will be given the nourishment you need. Pray for a deeper understanding and you will gain the knowledge you need. I ask you to remain humble and accepting of all that happens in your life. Do not rush ahead but patiently wait for the guidance you need to complete the Father's work. You are never alone so do not fear the unknown as you are protected and guided by many. Stay peaceful and stay close to others who support you in times of doubt. Come close to my Sacred Heart and you will be shown all the mercy and love you need for the days ahead. My Mother has you held close to her Immaculate Heart and guides you in all that you do. Always give grateful thanks for all the blessings you have been given and remember to offer all of your moments to your Heavenly Father.

10th September 2005 (Night Prayer)

I will give you nourishment and many graces through your prayer life. There will be times ahead when you will experience many trials, so I encourage you to be steeped in your prayer time and spend quiet moments as often as you can throughout your day. Do not feel overwhelmed but turn always with trust that you are always looked after. The Evil One is at work more than ever as He is losing His power and wants to take as many lost souls as possible. I ask you to pray for many who are on the wrong path. Pray that they will change their hearts and turn back to the Eternal Father. There is an urgent need for so many to have a conversion of their hearts. Offer many prayers for my intentions to help in the redemption of mankind. Never lose hope, Satan will be crushed. I ask you to help by your sacrifices and devotion to my Immaculate Heart and the Sacred Heart of my Son, Jesus in your prayers. I have asked you many times to reach out to others in love and compassion. These works of selfless love will do so much good as eventually those you help will take your lead and reach out to others also in love. Do not be disheartened if your works of charity and love are rejected. Persevere in being Christ like to everyone you meet. I thank you for listening to me and I encourage you to keep up the Eternal Father's work in the salvation of souls.

11th September 2005 (Night Prayer)

I ask you to make humility a part of your daily life. Do not seek self praise but always have a humble heart and offer all the glory to your Eternal Father. I ask you to become little so that you can grow large spiritually. The smaller you become the more the Father can use you in the reparation of sinners. There is much work to be done. I ask you to break down old habits of wanting praise and rewards for good deeds done. Always pray for the gift of a humble heart to your Father in Heaven. Your rewards will be great in Heaven. Read and imitate the lives of the Saints. The greatest example of humility is my Son, Jesus the Christ. His first concern always was to His Father in Heaven and to serve others with a humble heart. Pray to the Holy Spirit for the virtue of humility. Many people in the world today are self seeking and always searching for self recognition. The world has become obsessed with self and no longer thinks of others and how they can help their fellow man. Change your ways and put others first in your life. Your reward will be far greater as by your acts of love, others will also learn to reach out and love the people that God puts in their paths. I ask you again to always be an example of Christ to others by your humility, compassion and love of your fellow man.
