Declaration of Authority

On October 14th 1966, His Holiness Pope Paul VI confirmed the decree of the Sacred Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith, under 56/16 (A.A.S.), permitting the publication of writings concerning supernatural apparitions, even if they do not have a 'Nihil Obstat' from ecclesiastical authorities.

Since the abolition of Canon 1399 and 2318 of the former Canonical Code, publications about new appearances, revelations, prophecies, miracles, etc., have been allowed to be distributed and read by the faithful without the express permission of the Church, providing they contain nothing which contravenes faith and morals. This means that no imprimatur is necessary when distributing information on new apparitions not yet judged by the Church. The compiler of these messages wishes to manifest unconditional submission to the final and official judgement of the Magisterium of the Church regarding any of the content contained within these messages. Notwithstanding the previous statement, all messages contained within have, however, received discernment from the Spiritual Director of the shrine and the visionary.

In Lumen Gentium, Vatican II, Chapter 12, the Council Fathers urged the faithful to be open and attentive to the ways in which the Holy Spirit continues to guide the Church, including private revelations. We hear: "Such gifts of grace, whether they are of special enlightenment or whether they are spread more simply and generally, must be accepted with gratefulness and consolation, as they are specially suited to and useful for, the needs of the Church...Judgements as to their genuineness and their correct use lies with those who lead the Church and those whose special task is not to extinguish the Spirit but to examine everything and keep that which is good."

Public revelation ended with the death of the last apostle. Private revelation, however, has continued from that day until the present. Let us give heed to that which was written in The First Epistle of Saint Paul to the Thessalonians; Chapter 5, Verses 19 & 20:

Extinguish not the spirit. Despise not the prophecies.

the life. Read also Matthew 7:12 and know that the Father wants you to always treat others how you would want to be treated. Step out this night in faith and be that disciple of Jesus the Christ and begin the work the Father has planned for you. Trust completely and always live your life in Christ one day at a time. Do not worry, just trust.

22nd January 2006 (Night Prayer)

I ask you to be guided always by your Heavenly family. When turmoil is all around you stay peaceful and close to my Son Jesus. Draw near to His most Sacred Heart and come under the protection of my Immaculate Conception. I want you to know that the Eternal Father does not wish to see you suffer. He wants all which is good for you. He does allow suffering and will use it for the salvation of sins for those who offer it to Him. I ask you to accept your trials and learn how to trust more fully in the Divine Will of your Heavenly Father. As I have said many times before, do not stay alone in your burdens but bring all to your Heavenly family and ask humbly for their help. Embrace your crosses and know that you will grow stronger in your faith by the burdens you bear. Call upon the Holy Spirit always to replenish you with the graces you need. Bring your loved ones, by your prayers close to me, your Mother and know that I will take them always to the Blessed Trinity, three persons in one. I thank you for your faithfulness and the work you have been doing. Keep up your work of reaching out in love and compassion and bring others back to the knowledge of the love of the Father in their lives. I want you to have complete trust, like never before. Do not be concerned that you do not know what the future holds. Trust in God one day at a time and let go of any controls you still may be holding on to. Bring all your concerns before your Lord and Saviour and let Him guide and help you. You will be looked after and be given the nourishment you need.

Jesus is the bread of life. He is the nourishment you need. Give humble thanks when you receive Him in communion to your Eternal Father for His gift to mankind of His Son Jesus the Saviour of the world. Be still and listen to Him in all you undertake and accept the love He wants to give you.

1st November 2005 (in front of tabernacle - Jesus)

Reach out and guide my people back to the fold. I need shepherds who care about their flocks; shepherds who notice when one of the flock is missing or needs help. Are you prepared to be this shepherd who lovingly looks after every one of my people? I need you to reach out in love to all and to listen to their hurts and burdens and bring them back to the knowledge of my Father through Me your Lord and Saviour. I will guide you. I need your complete trust in Me. Do not be afraid. You have been given special graces to sustain you. I am waiting for you to turn to Me and give Me your total commitment. To have courage to go out and find the sheep that is lost, the black sheep who is having difficulties in being accepted because they are different. I want you to reach out to all of my flock in love and compassion. I want you to meet them where they are at this moment and bring them back to the total love the Eternal Father has for them through Me, your Lord and Saviour by the love poured into their hearts by the Holy Spirit. I have chosen you to do the work of shepherding My people. There is much work to be done in the redemption of all. Are you ready to do My work?

1st November 2005 (Evening Prayer)

I, your Mother remind you this night of the duty you have agreed to undertake; the duty of reaching out in love to your brothers and sisters by your Christ-like actions to all those you meet. By showing love, mercy and compassion to God's children who have been abandoned by others. The Eternal Father loves all of His children, not a select few. I ask you to also have enough courage to love all of His children regardless of their circumstance. You are not asked to judge their actions, you are asked to love the person. Many of these people carry with them deep hurts because they have been abandoned by the Church and are not made to feel welcome. I ask you to take a stand for justice and love those who are unloved by others. Pray that you are given the wisdom to recognize these people and always pray for guidance in all you do. The Eternal Father asks you to reach out to these people and show them the love of Christ. He then asks you to trust completely in His Divine Will and leave the rest up to Him as He will guide them back to their rightful place because of the chain of events you have instigated by reaching out to them and showing them the love of Christ in your actions towards them. I encourage you to always do the Father's work with a peaceful heart and do not rush ahead of His plan. You will need to stay close to My Son Jesus so He can guide you in all you do. I thank you for the work you are doing in furthering the Kingdom of God. Your Heavenly family are close beside you to help and guide you in all you undertake.

2nd November 2005 (Prayers with Legion of Mary Group)

I thank you for your prayers and I encourage you on this day especially, to give me many prayers to help with the salvation of souls. Your prayers help so many and can mitigate many events. I ask you to stay close to me, your Mother and know that I will guide you to the Blessed Trinity. Come close to my Son Jesus, receive Him as often as you can in Holy Communion and know that you are united as one. Make use of the many graces you are given by the Eternal Father. Call upon the Holy Spirit and replenish the gifts given to you at Confirmation. Call upon my Spouse and ask to be filled with the Holy Spirit of Love. This is the love the Eternal Father has for His Son Jesus and the love Jesus has for the Father. You are asked to do the Eternal Father's work. Reach out in love and compassion and guide others back to the knowledge of the truth. Reach out always by your loving actions to others. Do not let them think that they have been abandoned. Let them know the deep love the Father has for them. I ask you to never judge others but always reach out in gentleness and let the Eternal Father work through you. Let the light of my Son Jesus the Christ shine out through you to all the Father puts in your path. Do not be afraid. Take courage and begin His redemptive work this day. May the blessings of the Eternal Father come down this day and fill you completely. Go now with peace and joy in your heart.

2nd November 2005 (Rosary group – Night Prayer)

The salvation of souls is a task I wish for you all to undertake, not just the faithful few but all. I need you to realize the importance of this work. There are many, many souls who need your help. They need your prayers, your acts of self denial but mostly they need you to reach out and show them compassion and love. As I have told you before, faith without good works is dead. The Eternal Father asks that you take courage and step out and help those in need, those he sends your way, by your loving actions. The smallest gesture of love does not go unnoticed by your Eternal Father and many times you will not yourself see the benefit from your Christ-like actions. Be assured that they do have such a flow on effect to many people. There are many people in the world who are starved of love and search for it in all the wrong places. Be their light and their guide and show them the light and love of my Adored Son Jesus the Christ by your loving actions. I tell you once again, that your loving actions have a much more beneficial effect than words spoken. I ask you to call upon the virtues of the Holy Spirit to give you the spirit of gentleness, patience and compassion. Be steeped in prayer and stay close to my Son and He will guide you in this feel afraid of all that is happening in your life. Take the journey of faith one day at a time. Do not rush ahead and think what is to happen in the future. I ask you instead to pray more and be guided by your Heavenly family in all you do. The world holds many distractions which can draw you away and disturb your peace. Come back to your prayer time and take time to listen to all the Father has planned for you, through Jesus His Son in the Holy Spirit given to strengthen you. I ask you to continue the work of reaching out in love to God's people who so desperately need your help. Take time also to rest. Remember, the Father gave you permission to rest as well. Do not fill your life so full with work that you feel guilty to rest on the Lord's Day. Spend this time with family or in quietness to read and replenish you for the work ahead. Listen to the instructions the Father gives you through the Apostles, saints and in the scriptures, as these will hold you in good stead for your faith journey.

I ask you again to trust and believe that your every need will be looked after. Receive the abundant love of your Heavenly Father through Jesus His Son in the Holy Spirit. I thank you for your faithfulness and I want you to know I am with you always.

The winds blow strongly yet God's people do not recognize the signs and dismiss the weather as being unusual. When will they learn the lessons needed before it is too late? No one knows the time or place and I warn you again to be prepared. Do not turn your back on your Eternal Father and be so consumed with worldly matters. Instead put the time in to prepare yourself spiritually. Your rewards will be great. I ask you to be more aware of God's plan in your life. Recognize the people He puts in your path to guide and help you. Embrace the graces He pours down upon you and always give the glory and thanks to your Eternal Father. There is so much work for you to do. Be steeped in your prayer life and in the disciplines you need to do the Father's work. Learn patience and perseverance. Learn to not rush ahead of the Father but instead to wait upon His word to you. Listen to the many ways the Father speaks to you. Open your heart to Him and receive His Son Jesus as often as you can so you can be united as one in peace and love. I, as your Mother will always guide you to your Father in Heaven to Jesus His Son through my spouse the Holy Spirit. I want you to change the way you think. Read Matthew 7:1-5 and realize that the Father wants you to reach out to all of His people and love them. Do not judge them but love them and then humbly ask your Eternal Father to do the rest. Leave it to Him to change their hearts. Be Christ-like always in your actions and ask for the Holy Spirit to give you the inspired words to answer if you are asked a question. Be steeped in the scriptures so that you can understand more fully how to follow Jesus – the way, the truth and through Jesus the Christ in the Holy Spirit. I ask you to pray, pray, pray for the salvation of souls and do your part to help God the Father through learning the lesson of generosity of self. I thank you for responding to my call to you.

19th January 2006 (Night Prayer)

Do not be afraid to step out into the unknown. Trust completely in the Divine will of your Heavenly Father. Look for the guidance you need from your Heavenly family. Recognize the help you have already been given and offer humble thanks to your Eternal Father for the many blessings you have received. Never doubt that God the Father has a perfect plan for those who turn and include Him in their lives. He has a plan for each and every one of you just as you read in Jeremiah 29:11. Many do not want to acknowledge the Eternal Father in their lives and stumble in the dark on the wrong path. Pray that His Divine plan for you will be revealed and always wait on your Heavenly Father. Do not rush on ahead of His plan because of your impatience. Practice the virtues of patience and perseverance and know that these will strengthen you. Humble yourself and accept all that you are given. Embrace the trials and always pray for the Heavenly help you need. Do not forget the angels and saints who want to help every one of God's children come to the fulfilment of God's perfect plan in their lives. You are given so much help but many of you have not yet opened your eyes to all you have been sent from Heaven above. Use all the graces and gifts the Father gives you to deepen your faith. Pray always to the Blessed Trinity. Praise and thank your Father in Heaven, receive His Son Jesus in communion and be united as one and accept the gifts and graces given to you in the Holy Spirit. Be filled with the love of the Trinity in your life and never keep it to yourself. Instead pass it on to others. Be joyful and never live in fear of what is to come instead always carry the peace and joy of my Son Jesus the Christ wherever you go. I thank you for your faithfulness and I send you many blessings from up above.

Be strengthened in preparation for the battle which is to come between good and evil which has permeated every corner of the earth. You will need to trust completely in the guidance of your Heavenly family. Do not be afraid. Bring to mind the Scriptures when the Archangel Gabriel told me I was to conceive and bear a son. His first words to me were "do not be afraid O highly favoured one." The Eternal Father asked me at that time to have complete trust and to step out into the unknown and do His Divine Will. He asks that you trust Him completely and step out in faith and obey His Divine Will in your life. Pray for the help of Archangel Gabriel when you great task that I am asking you this night to undertake. Stay peaceful always, and turn with any trials you are experiencing and bring them to your Heavenly family. You will gain much strength in your perseverance. I thank you for the work you have already done and want you to know that I am close by you to help and guide you.

3rd November 2005 (Night Prayer)

I wish to speak to you this night about love. The word love is bantered around the world in a meaningless way. It deeply saddens me to hear the word so misused. I wish to talk to you about the truth. I speak about the love of the Eternal Father for all of His children. He awaits your word. He will not interfere with your lives unless you invite Him to enter in. He gave you free will so you could choose. I, your Mother beg you to make the right choice. Choose the redeeming love of my Son Jesus given to you by the Eternal Father for the redemption of mankind. Come close and feel the love poured into your soul from your Heavenly Father through my Son Jesus by the Holy Spirit. Do not stay distant and starved of this precious love when all that is need is your simple fiat to accept the Holy Love of the Blessed Trinity in your lives. Take this nourishment offered to you and be filled, so you can reach out and in turn pour the love of Christ out to your fellow man by your loving actions towards them. The journey of love is so simple and so fulfilling. I ask you to break the chains that bind your heart and open up and accept Divine Love. Your Heavenly family waits patiently on your word of acceptance. Do not let worldly fears block your way to experiencing the beautiful gift of Love Divine. I, your Mother, walk beside you always to protect and guide you. I ask you, this night, to make the right choice in your life. Choose the love of the Blessed Trinity – choose Divine Love.

4th November 2005 (Night Prayer)

I ask you to take up the challenge this night to grow deeper in the love and commitment to your Eternal Father. He calls you to come close to Him through the love His Son Jesus the Christ pours into your soul. Begin the journey of trust in your Lord and Saviour and know that He will guide you to the Eternal Father, who wants to show you the deep love He has for you. To begin this journey of trust you will need to be steeped in your prayer life and reading of the scriptures as you will be given the knowledge you need. I ask you also to come close by breaking down the walls that have bound you and open your heart to the generating gift of the Father's love. When you begin to trust your Eternal Father completely you also begin to see how often that He sends you graces and blessings every day. Acknowledge them and remember to always give thanks each day for all that you have been given. Even during difficult times I want you to realize the spiritual growth that happens. Do not abandon your Heavenly Father during this time but turn to Him instead and ask for the guidance you need. I am your Heavenly Mother and as your Mother I want to care for you in every way I can. I will lead you to your Heavenly family so I ask you this night to begin the journey of complete trust in the Divine Will of your Father in Heaven and you will be filled with the graces and blessings from above.

5th November 2005 (Saturday night prayer vigil – Adoration)

I thank you for your faithfulness and many prayers offered to me tonight. I ask you to grow deeper in your faith journey towards the love of the Eternal Father. Practice the disciplines of your prayer time daily and you will gain the graces you need and you will also gain the knowledge and strength to do the Father's work. Do not underestimate the power of prayer. Prayer can move mountains. Do not be concerned when your faithfulness is tested. Turn always to your Heavenly family and confide in them even in the times when you feel alone and abandoned. By remaining faithful even in the periods of darkness your faith will grow stronger and will be able to withstand any trials. I ask you to always have courage in your faith life. Do not be afraid to step out and take on responsibility in helping people God puts in your path. Reach out in love and compassion always and show them the love that their Almighty Father has for them through His Son Jesus. Pray always for all those you meet, silently in your heart and know that the Eternal Father listens to any prayers given to Him with a humble heart. There is much work for you to do in guiding many back to their Heavenly inheritance. Gain the strength and courage now for the work you will be undertaking. Come close always to my Son Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. Adore Him this night and ask Him to fill you with the gifts and graces you need to do the Father's work especially the gift of the Holy Spirit of love so the love of the Father and the Son can flow out through you to God's people. May the blessings of the Father come down upon you this night and may you be filled with the peace of Christ for the time ahead.

6th October 2005 (Night Prayer)

To be obedient to the Eternal Father's Divine Will means you will need to trust completely in every part of your lives. Trust even when it appears that you are alone and you feel abandoned by your Heavenly family. The Eternal Father will never desert you. His love for you is beyond comparison. I ask you to take up the challenge this night and begin the journey of complete trust. I ask you to believe with your whole heart, your whole soul and your whole mind that your Father has given you His Son

18th January 2006 (Midday prayer with Holy Cross Prayer Group)

Turn back and put your life in right order. Do not put off today and think you will do it tomorrow. You need to come back onto the narrow path which leads you towards your Heavenly Inheritance. The journey of love is simple. Put your Eternal Father first in all you do and reach out in love to your fellow man. I, as your Mother will help you to achieve these goals so do not stay alone and so burdened but ask me for my help and know that I will guide you to my Son Jesus who asks that you put your trust in Him and His saving power in your life. Do not let His death be in vain. His death and resurrection was given out of immense love for you so that you would have a new life. Do not waste this gift by turning your back on your Heavenly family. Accept all the gifts and graces the Heavenly Father wants to bestow on you with humble thanks. Open your eyes to all that He does for you and pray daily for the guidance you need through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. The journey of faith is simple. Do not complicate it; do as I ask and you will achieve much spiritual growth. Come close to my Son Jesus in communion and by spending time with Him and take time to pray and read the Scriptures daily. I am with you so do not be afraid to step out in faith. Begin the journey of complete trust and accept the Divine Will of your Eternal Father. He wants to pour his love down upon you so I ask you to accept this love given to you and in turn pass it on to all those He puts in your path.

18th January 2006 (Night Prayer)

I ask you to learn the lesson of generosity of spirit. Do not always think with everything you do "what can I get out of this" instead I ask you to think "what can I do to help others? How can I reach out in love to my fellow man?" It is not in the big things but I ask you to realize that every small action of love helps to further the kingdom of God. Change your heart and help to make the world a better place. I ask you to accept the love and peace of my Son Jesus into your heart and in turn pass that peace and love onto others. Life has many lessons for you to learn. Do not put up barriers and think that you know everything and these lessons must apply to everyone else. Embrace the lessons of life and learn from them so you will grow deeper on your journey of faith. Accept any trials that come your way and know that these too can be lessons which will help you. Read the Scriptures and imitate my Son Jesus whose generosity of spirit was beyond compare. Jesus emptied himself out and suffered and died on the cross so that you would have life anew. Embrace this new life completely. Embrace the immense love the Father has for you through the sacrifice of His Son Jesus who died and rose again and be filled with the gifts and graces of the Holy Spirit just the same as the Apostles on that first Pentecost. Use these gifts in your daily lives for your spiritual nourishment. They were given to help you to grow deeper in the love you have for your Heavenly Father these graces to help you in the important work of reaching out to others in love, mercy and compassion. Do not deny your Lord and Saviour and turn away and follow the wrong path. Come back close once again and open your heart and receive the love He has for you. Trust Him completely and He will be the guiding light you need to help you along the path to eternity. Do not be weighed down by the worries of the world. Hand everything over to Jesus and let Him help you with your burdens. Stay close to people who can help you on your faith journey. Receive the nourishment you need by receiving Jesus in Communion. Pray often and keep no secrets. Tell your Heavenly Family all your concerns and let them help you. Call upon the Holy Spirit daily to give you the graces you need and ask always to be given the inspiration you need when God puts people in your path so that you will be more recognizing of their needs and will be able to reach out to them by your loving actions. The journey can be difficult but I want you to realize that you are never alone. I ask you to trust and be guided always from above.

The Eternal Father's mercy is boundless but the people of the world test His patience by the many sins they commit. Time is running out and the Father's hand of justice must soon fall on those who do not listen and who lead a life of selfishness and greed. I ask you to be an example of Christ's love to others to show them there is another way to lead their lives. Teach others to stretch out the hand of friendship and begin to show love and compassion to others. This loving way will flow on to people who you reach out to as they go away and imitate Christ in their lives by their loving actions. The journey of love is simple. God's people need to learn once more how to share with their fellow man. They need to let go of their arrogance and greed which convinces them that they have worked hard for what they have so why should they share with others. I ask you to teach them once more the joy of giving rather than always taking. Your Heavenly Father has provided resources and food for all of His children in bountiful supply yet the world has many who starve for food and long for a warm bed or a roof over their heads and others who are so wealthy that they waste money on frivolous selfish wants and justify this because they have earned it. Greed and selfishness abounds in the world. I ask you to look at your lives and think of ways you can reach out in love to others. This can be by extending the hand of friendship to someone you meet or many others small ways. I ask you to change the way you live and begin to care more about your fellow human being. Reach out in love to the elderly who lead lonely, abandoned lives where their families no longer show them the love that they long for. There are so many ways you can be that face of Christ to God's forgotten people. I ask you to do the Father's work and show love Jesus who died and arose again so you would have life anew. He asks you to put your trust in your Lord and Saviour and trust Him in all you do. Make it your daily prayer "O Sacred Heart of Jesus I put my trust in you". Stay close to my Son in all that you do. Pray daily to Him for the guidance you need. Receive Him often in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. Spend time with Him in prayer. By doing these requests you will begin the journey of complete trust. You will learn to turn to Jesus and include Him in everything you do. I know, sometimes, you have difficulty in trusting and stepping out into the unknown. Be assured that you will be guided and given the graces daily in your journey of complete trust. Ask for the graces and gifts of the Holy Spirit to be renewed in your soul and open your heart to the love which will be poured in to it to nourish and sustain you on the journey. My child, I am with you and will guide and help you. Be at peace this night and do not worry about anything. Begin the journey of complete trust.

7th November 2005 (Night Prayer)

The sweet fragrance of your prayers pleases your Eternal Father as they help in the salvation of many. Tonight, I want to remind you to pray to the Holy Spirit to bring to mind any old habits which you still practice and which block you from receiving the love fully of your Eternal Father through my Son Jesus. These old patterns of dealing with situations distract you momentarily and take you away from your Heavenly family. I ask you to discard the old ways and begin anew. Ask my Son Jesus to guide you and come close to Him in prayer and by reception of the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. The Eternal Father wants to peel back all those old layers and bring you to the knowledge of the truth in your life. By stripping back these layers you will come to trust Him more fully and will be more recognizing of His Divine Will in your lives. Pray for discernment of all areas in your lives which are blockages for you to grow deeper in your love of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, three in one. Do not worry when you are recognizing of your old patterns. Acknowledge it and then move on to the new life of complete trust in the Eternal Father's love and acceptance of His Divine Will in your lives. I ask you once again to trust more fully and come close to your Heavenly family.

8th November 2005 (Apparition Night)

I, your Mother come to you on this night under the title of Our Lady Seat of Wisdom. Come close to me and allow me to guide you to the Eternal Father through my Son Jesus the Christ. Ask your Heavenly Father to replenish you with the gifts of the Holy Spirit. I want you to be filled with the gift of wisdom to help you in your journey of life. You will gain much strength when you come close to my Son Jesus in the tabernacle and when you receive Him in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. It is important that you replenish the gift of wisdom in your life as this will enable you to act wisely before stepping out and fulfilling the Eternal Father's plan for you. I ask you to pray to your Father in Heaven to give you knowledge of the truth in your life. Trust completely in His plan for you and step out in faith and follow my Son Jesus. It is most important that you are steeped in your prayer life as you will need to be disciplined to do the Father's work. Be courageous and do not worry about what other think. Step out now and do your Father's Will. The parable of the 10 bridesmaids reminds you the need for you to be prepared. I ask you this night to stay awake for you do not know the time or day when your Lord and Saviour is coming. Begin the journey of faith and trust in your Lord and God and you will be rewarded. I bring many blessings to you this night from your Heavenly Father through my Son Jesus the Christ by the gifts and graces given to you in the Holy Spirit of Love. Be at peace and have joy in your heart as your Lord and Saviour walks close by you and will guide you in all you do. Turn now and include Him in your life.

9th November 2005 (Rosary group)

I ask you this night to continue to offer heartfelt prayers for the souls of the faithful departed. These prayers and mass offerings help them immensely on their journey to their Heavenly home in Paradise. I am close by you when you experience the loss of a loved one and I feel your sorrow. Be comforted with the knowledge that your loved ones are now resting peacefully and will bathe in the complete love of their Eternal Father and in the love of my Son Jesus the Christ and the Holy Spirit three in one. Bring many prayers daily to me, your Heavenly Mother for all the souls in Purgatory. This work you do quietly for me by your prayers and self sacrifice will be used for the salvation of many. I want you to realize that even though you are only one person doing these acts without anyone else being aware of them when we unite all these prayers and actions of my prayer warriors all over the world we have a formidable army to fight against and defeat the Evil One. Step out now with courage and continue to do this important work for me. No sacrifice is too small. All are used for the redemption of mankind. Pray daily to be given the strength to persevere with the work you are doing and I want you to never feel alone. I am close by and will guide you always to my Son Jesus and to the Eternal Father through the grace of the Holy Spirit. I thank you for your faithfulness and send you this night the peace of my Son Jesus the Christ to reign in your hearts for as long as you ask Him to stay close to you. Go now in the peace and joy of Christ.

10th November 2005 (Night Prayer)

I come this night to tell you of the endless love your Eternal Father wishes

15th January 2006 (Night Prayer)

Do not worry about anything. The Eternal Father has a divine plan for you and asks only that you have complete trust in Him and His guiding hand. Draw close to Jesus the Christ and take comfort and shelter close to His most Sacred Heart. The time ahead is turbulent and I want you to be prepared. Be disciplined in your prayers, receive my Son Jesus in communion often and gain strength by reading the Scriptures and by spending time in front of the tabernacle. Do not feel worried or afraid but stay peaceful and trusting. I want you to truly believe that you will be looked after and guided by your Heavenly family. Stay close to them and receive the graces offered to you. I know there are times in your life when you experience overwhelming sadness and sometimes the feeling of despair. I tell you that my Son Jesus is close to you and will look after you and help you always. I ask you to give over your burdens to Him and unite your crosses with His most Sacred Cross. Keep hope in your heart, turn away from the darkness and be immersed in the radiant light of Christ. Take comfort when you sing me hymns of praise and truly worship your Lord and God and give humble thanks for all your blessings. I say to you again, do not worry about anything, put your main focus on your Heavenly Father through Jesus His Son in the Holy Spirit and accept the love, graces and many blessings you are given daily. I am your Heavenly Mother and I feel your pain when you are sad and I feel your joy when you experience it. Stay close to Me and I will take you by the hand and lead you towards your Heavenly Inheritance. I thank you for your faithfulness. I ask you to pray hard for those who persecute you and help them to see more clearly the divine plan that their Heavenly Father has for them and for all His children who ask for His help. I am with you always.

Give praise and thanks for all the good things you have received and accept any trials that you are given with a peaceful heart. Turn always to your Heavenly family for the help you need and truly believe that they would never desert you but stay close and await your prayers. The journey of growing deeper in your spiritual life does involve letting go of the past and learning to accept the love the Eternal Father has for you. Life has many lessons so embrace them and know that they help you grow into a stronger person. Do not stay distant and alone in your struggles but always pray for spiritual help. Look to My Son Jesus and ask for His help and realize that He wants to look after you. It is important that you have complete trust in God and His Divine Will in your life. Put Him first in all you do and let Him fill you to overflowing with love, mercy and compassion. You are given in your faith journey. Pray for God's plan to be revealed to you and stay patient and persevere until God's time is right. Do not rush ahead of God's plan for you but allow instead for Him to lead you in all you do. You will be given the inspiration of the Holy Spirit when the time is right so I ask you to be more recognizing of the inspiration you already receive from the Holy Spirit. The Father asks us to be steeped in the virtues of the Holy Spirit which will help us in our spiritual journey. If you are not already praying the prayers given to you which consecrate you to my Immaculate Heart and which give you the prayers needed for the virtues of the Holy Spirit I ask you to begin to pray these prayers. I tell you again it is important that you have discipline in your prayer time to help you for the time ahead. Always stay peaceful and carry the peace and joy of my Son Jesus the Christ out to others.

Dear Mother, please help me as I feel so much fear as to how the world is and what is to come?

I ask you not to feel fear but to always try and stay peaceful with love and joy in your hearts. Your prayers do help in the reparation of sins so I ask you to continue praying with a humble heart for my intentions and together we will crush the head of Satan. Your prayers can help to mitigate events so I ask you to pray always with renewed hope for a new Heaven and new earth to be realized. So many of God's children are lost in the darkness and at this moment do not even see the light to guide them back; it is important that you reach out and help many to come to a better understanding of the deep love their Heavenly Father has for all His children. It saddens your Heavenly family to see that people through stubbornness and a selfish desire to do it their way are so distant from the love which awaits those who turn again towards the light and ask for the help of the Eternal Father through His Son Jesus. The work of reaching out with a Christ like love to others is very important as this is the only way the good news of Christ can be spread. I ask you to accept the trials and persecutions that come your way and truly believe that the task you have agreed to undertake of loving others will give many the hope which is so desperately needed in this world of sin and sadness. Be strong and have courage to step out and do the work of Christ, regardless of the obstacles which are placed in your way. You will be given the graces needed by the Holy Spirit so do not be fearful but come back and be replenished with the graces needed and accept the love of your Heavenly Father through Jesus His Son in the Holy Spirit poured down in abundance upon you and all who accept God's unconditional love for them. Remember put God first and all else will be to pour into your hearts. He is deeply saddened when He sees so many of His children turning away from Him and no longer following the right path. He longs to welcome all home just as the prodigal son was welcomed home with a feast by His father. You are invited to come back and experience this deep love your Father has for you through His Son Jesus in the Holy Spirit of Love. Come this night and join in the celebrations as all of Heaven does rejoice when one lost soul returns back to the fold and once more acknowledges the Eternal Father's love for them. We are living in dangerous times, where man has made gods of many worthless goods and selfishness is so prevalent all over the world. It is most important that God's children once more learn how to reach out with a Christ-like love to their fellow man and put the Eternal Father first in their lives. I want you to be an example to others. Humbly accept the Father's plea to reach out to others in love and by your example others will follow. Time is short so do not delay in changing your ways. Do not worry about material wants anymore but instead concern yourself with your spiritual needs. Gain strength for the time ahead by your steadfastness of faith. Do not be distracted with worldly matters but stay focused on your goal – your Heavenly Inheritance. Pray always for the graces and guidance you need and trust completely in your Heavenly Father and His Divine Will in your life. Come close now with love and trust in your heart and begin the journey of faithfulness.

11th November 2005 (Night Prayer)

I come this night to teach you the way to follow the Divine Will of your Eternal Father. Pray daily for the virtues of the Holy Spirit to be given to you. These virtues will enable you to come close your Father in Heaven and to Jesus, His Son. Faith, hope and charity are the first three virtues. If you have complete faith in your Eternal Father you will trust Him completely. Hope means that you will never despair, even during times when you experience trials or feel alone you will be able to cling to the virtue of hope. Charity is being selfless, giving of yourself to others – reaching out always in a Christ-like love by your actions. The next virtues are patience and perseverance. These two disciplines teach you to not rush ahead of your Eternal Father but to patiently wait for His guidance and to also persevere always regardless of the obstacles you face. The next virtue is humility. This means that you become small so your Lord and God will grow large. All that you do is not for you but for the full glory of your God. The last virtue is obedience. If you follow this last virtue you will follow all the rest. By obeying your Eternal Father in all parts of your life you will never rush ahead but will trust completely and you will do the Divine Will of your Heavenly Father. Practice faithfully these seven virtues and you will see how much deeper you will experience the love of the Eternal Father through His Son Jesus in the inspiration of the Holy Spirit in your lives. I encourage you to pray daily and accept with an open heart the graces and gifts poured out upon you to help you achieve the infusing of the Blessed Trinity in your soul. I will guide you towards this Heavenly goal. Come close and trust completely.

12th November 2005 (Night Prayer)

Jesus – I, your Lord and Saviour thank you for your faithfulness and I ask that you listen to the words my Mother gives you.

The light and love of my Son Jesus comes down upon you this night. Open your hearts and be willing to accept this Holy Love. Be replenished this night for the work you are needed to do. Take courage and gain strength from receiving Him often in the Holy Eucharist and spend time in quiet contemplation so you will understand that which your Lord and God wants of you. Many graces and blessings are bestowed upon you each day. Do not forget to be thankful for all you are given. I ask you to pray deeply at this uncertain time and come close to your Heavenly family for guidance and protection. I remind you the importance for you to stay close and ask you to do many little selfless acts of love to all those you meet as these help in the salvation of souls. I ask you to be more recognizing of the promptings of the Holy Spirit in your lives as in this way you will understand more easily the people that your Eternal Father puts in your path. Do not be concerned if you do not recognize and reach out in love to someone the Father has sent. Learn from it and next time you will have the knowledge to be recognizing of your brother or sister who is in need of your love and understanding. There is so much work needed to be done. I ask you to trust me more fully and together we will guide God Father's hurting children back to where they belong – back into the safe arms of their Father in Heaven through Jesus His Son by the Holy Spirit of love sent to them through you.

13th November 2005 (Night Prayer)

I ask you to reach out always with a humble heart. Do not want to be praised instead always turn and give the praise and glory to your Eternal Father. I know sometimes you feel weary when you are trying to reach out to family as well as do God's work. Turn to me, your Mother and include me in your struggles. Do not try and handle it all alone. I will guide you if you let me. Give me all your little struggles as a sacrifice for the salvation of souls. Come back always to peace and joy in your heart by spending time with my Son Jesus. Read the Scriptures and you will see that the Apostles also had many struggles to overcome. Their faith was strong and they did not waver in the love of my Son Jesus the Christ. Learn from them and do as I have asked. Gain strength by your prayers, by reception of the Blessed Sacraments and by reading the Scriptures. Never feel alone in these

12th January 2006 (Night Prayer)

I want you to learn how to meditate on the rosary more deeply. You will gain many graces and spiritual growth when you begin to say the rosary with meaning and truly meditate on the mysteries. Join my Son Jesus and walk with Him the journey of His life and reflect meaningfully on each decade you say. I would prefer you give me one decade said with thought than many done quickly because you want to fulfil a duty to get so many completed in your day. I thank you for promoting my rosary to others who visit and I want you to encourage others to truly contemplate the meaning of the prayers they offer me. There is a great need for God's people to slow down and take time in their day for quiet contemplation. You will be able to see God's plan more clearly when you take this time to reflect and meditate quietly with your Heavenly family. I ask you to also do the same when you read the Scriptures. Take a small section, read it slowly and then truly meditate and apply it to your life. Pray for guidance from the Holy Spirit when you do not fully understand the meaning. Do not be afraid to be still. Allow the Eternal Father to come into your stillness through His Son Jesus and be guided spiritually by the Holy Spirit. I have asked many times for you to be steeped in your prayer, in reception of the sacraments and by spending quiet time with your Lord and Saviour in front of the tabernacle or in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. These disciplines will hold you in good stead on your journey of faith. Do not offer prayers out of guilt or obligation but because of a great desire to experience more fully the love the Father has for you through Jesus His Son in the Holy Spirit. Open your heart and pray with renewed vigour with praise, glory and thanks for your love of God and the many blessings he bestows on you daily.

Just as a rosebud blossoms and blooms into a beautiful rose I want you too, to blossom in your prayer life by going deeper in prayers. The rose needs to be watered and nurtured to grow into a strong, healthy bush and the same applies to you. Jesus is the living water come down from Heaven for the salvation of souls. Grow strong in your faith by spending time with my Son Jesus and allow Him to nourish you and give you the guidance you need. I ask you to make time in your day to pray and receive the blessed Sacrament of the Altar as often as you can and allow Jesus to enter into your heart. Unite yourself with the risen Jesus and stay close to Him in all you do. The world has so many distractions which entice you to be distant from your Lord and God. Say no to these distractions and ask the Holy Spirit to replenish you with the graces you need. Pray daily for the courage and strength needed to step out in complete trust and open yourself up to do the will of your Heavenly Father. Do not be afraid to take this next step faith and follow God's plan for you. He asks you to trust Him completely and be open to His Divine Will in your life. Pray always for all your needs. Pray for the inspiration from my Spouse, the Holy Spirit, if you are experiencing problems. Learn to include your Heavenly family in all of your day. There is urgency for people to change their ways. Many people are so worried about how much they have in material possessions and how much more that they can get that they have neglected completely their spiritual life. When will they realize the truth that money and wealth cannot make them live any longer? When their time comes to be called back to their Heavenly home will they be ready to stand before their Lord and God and say to Him "Yes Lord I reached out and helped all those you put in my path with love and compassion. I did my best to further your kingdom and put your hurting people back on the right path and guided them to your Son Jesus the light of the world. How will you be when you are called home? I ask you to examine your conscience and make the changes now in your life and embrace the time you have daily to deepen your relationship with your Heavenly Father, through Jesus His Son in the inspiration of the Holy Spirit.

I want you to know when you do the Holy Will of God you are on the path to eternity. Do not put off today what you think you can do tomorrow. Time is short and you will need to be steeped in your spiritual life for the time ahead. I beg of you to change your ways. Turn back and lead a simple life where you put God back in the rightful position in your life. Put Him first and you will experience much spiritual growth and your heart will once more be open to receive the many graces He wants to bestow on you. I ask you to let go of any arrogance you carry inside which makes you think you don't need the Eternal Father and that you always want to do everything your way. Learn obedience to the Father's Commandments in your life. The message I give you this night is simple – put God first in your life. Offer Him humble thanks for all the blessings you have been given. Recognize more the many graces you receive daily. Reach out and show love and compassion to others. Accept the trials you are given and pray for courage and strength to bear these burdens. Do not try and carry your cross alone. Include your Heavenly family in your sufferings and offer any inconvenience up for the reparation of sins. Be steeped in faith and trust of the Almighty God and believe completely that He will look after you and guide you in all you do. Turn and ask for help. Do not stay distant and alone in your journey. Remember in the Scriptures you read that if you ask you will receive. Pray humbly this night for all that you need. The Father will look after you and your needs not your wants. I tell you again time is short and I ask you to pray, pray, pray. Pray for the salvation of souls. Pray for your family and friends. Offer acts of self denial to help others come closer to the love of the Father through Jesus His Son in the Holy Spirit. Pray always for the inspiration of the Holy Spirit to help you in your spiritual journey towards your Heavenly Inheritance.

struggles because you are surrounded by the angels and saints who want you to turn in prayer and ask for their help. They understand how difficult the journey can sometimes be and will help you as they intercede to your Father in Heaven when you call on their help. I ask you also to call upon the Holy Spirit each day to give you courage and strength to face any obstacles which are put in your path. Do not fear. Trust completely and you will be looked after. Go now with peace and joy of my Son Jesus, the Christ. He is your strength and salvation.

14th November 2005 (Night Prayer)

Be little. I want you to do your Lord and Saviour's work with a humble heart. Reach out in compassion and understanding. Speak the truth when necessary but always speak in a gentle way. Stay calm and at peace and remember to pray first for the Holy Spirit to speak the words needed. Do not be concerned with those who persecute you and judge you unfairly. Offer these trials as a self sacrifice for the redemption of souls. Do not be vindictive and want to have an eye for an eye, instead reach out always in love to these people and help them to recognize the love of Christ flowing out through you. Be respectful of others and never do anything which will make you appear to others as unworthy to be your Lord and Saviour's disciples. It is important that you examine your conscience and look at areas where you do not reach out in love. Are there times when you criticize others and gossip about them? I ask you once again do not judge others rather look at your own conscience and ask your Eternal Father to bring to mind areas where you have wronged your fellow man or are lacking in compassion. Humble yourself completely in the eyes of your Heavenly Father and begin again to live your life anew. Live your life always in the light and love of my Son Jesus the Christ and pray sincerely to be given a new heart, full of love, compassion and understanding for all people you meet on your journey of life. Be patient and tolerant of others and stay close by your prayers to your Heavenly family who will guide and protect you towards your Heavenly Inheritance. Read 1 Peter 3 (13-17).

I want to speak to you this night about the truth. This complete truth can only be found in the Holy Scriptures. If you do as the Eternal Father has asked you will stay on the narrow path. Obey the commandments especially pay attention to the fact of the love of God first and secondly stepping out in love for your fellow man. If you follow these two commandments you will keep the rest of God's laws. There are some among you who put your own interpretation on all you read. It is essential that you stay steeped in prayer so you will be close Old Testament your Heavenly family who will guide and help you as it is easy for some of you to be influenced by others who have watered down the laws of your Eternal Father. There are many of you who have been given wrong information. I ask you to please read the Scriptures every day so you will be able to speak the truth when your Father needs you to. Trust completely and you will be given the knowledge you need. It is necessary for you to be disciplined with your prayer time so you will be able to gain the knowledge you will need. Do not be concerned if you feel you are out of your depth with some people you meet; best to listen and reach out in love than to speak to them only half truths or on matters which you are not fully understanding yourself. Always turn to the Blessed Trinity and ask for the guidance needed and remember that you will, many times be merely a stepping stone on someone else's spiritual journey. I thank you for your faithfulness and ask you to be peaceful in doing the Father's Will.

16th November 2005 (Rosary – night prayer)

I thank you for your prayers and your faithfulness to my beloved rosary. I ask you to open your hearts and offer many prayers to be used in the conversion of hearts. The journey of faith is not easy and you will have trials along the way. There will be people who are critical and speak vocally to oppose. I ask that you continue to do my work regardless of this opposition and I ask you to pray for the conversion of their hearts. The work you have been asked to do is to take my messages to the world for the salvation of souls. Each person is given a free will to choose. It is not your problem as to the choices they make; you must stay at peace and move on when you are confronted with opposition. I remind you to stay close to like minded people on your faith journey; positive people who will help you to help others. Each person will one day come before the Eternal Father and will be asked the question "What have you done to help further the Kingdom of Heaven?" Examine your own conscience and ask yourself "Have I done all that I could to help in the Father's work. Did I reach out to all those He put in my path in love and compassion?" If the answer is "Yes" then you will be told "Well done good and faithful servant, come in and inherit the Kingdom of Heaven. I ask you now do not put off the Father's work because you feel you are too busy or because it does not apply to you. It applies to each and every one of you. I ask you to pray to the Father to guide you to recognize the people He puts in your path. Reach out in love now and begin the Father's work. Build up the Kingdom of God by your actions; do not knock it down by your critical words. Read Mark 10 (41-45)

17th November 2005 (Night Prayer)

I remind you the importance of praying at the start of your day and including in this time prayers of protection. The Evil One will try always to distract

10th January 2006 (Morning Prayer – Jesus in front of tabernacle)

My child,

Do not be afraid to speak of the Truth to others. Call upon the Holy Spirit to give you the words of encouragement needed to help others come closer to the knowledge of the love the Father has for them. Gain the strength you need and always be steeped in prayer before you step out to do my work. I am with you and will help you and all your needs. I want you to have complete trust in Me and accept the many graces offered to you. Keep gentleness in your heart and be patient and loving towards others. Everyone's journey of faith is different, so do not judge others but always meet them where they are in their spiritual journey. Take away any arrogance you may have and always stay humble of heart. Be ready always with the armour of God to meet any new challenges of the day. It is most important that you are prepared spiritually. Ask always for the heavenly help you need. The angels and saints are there to help you. Read about the lives of the saints to better understand them. Ask them to help you and they will intercede to the Father on your behalf. Look around and notice the hurts that people carry deep in their hearts. Help unlock these hurts by your loving actions towards those in need. Be compassionate and caring towards others. Do not judge them when they seem distant and critical. Instead continue reaching out to them in love and pray silently for the healing of their hearts. Do not gossip and talk about others but always try and understand the hurts they carry. Stay silent and offer humble prayers to help them on their spiritual journey. I ask you to be steeped in the truth by reading Scriptures to gain the knowledge you need. Pray that your eyes may be opened to the knowledge of the truth when you read the holy word of God. I am your Lord and Saviour. I love you beyond compare and will guide and help you always. Ask and you will receive the love of the Father through Me, your Lord and Saviour, in the Holy Spirit poured out in abundance to those who open their hearts to accept this love given to them freely.

10th January 2006 (Night Prayer)

Take time to embrace stillness in your life. Do not say "I am so busy I have no time to pray." I ask you to make time and you will see the enormous benefits and graces you will receive by this little act of self sacrifice. Forego something in your life which keeps you away from the love that Almighty God has to give you. It is necessary for you to be still so that you will become more recognizing of the many gifts and graces your Heavenly Father already bestows upon you. Make use of the many opportunities which you are given in your day whether it is the time on the bus on your way to work or when you are doing the dishes or making the bed. Include your Heavenly family into all these moments and grow deeper in your spiritual life. Make time in your day to sit quietly and listen to God through the Scriptures. Be steeped in prayer to help you gain the courage and strength you need to step out in difficult when you try and do it your way. Stop searching for fulfilment in the wrong places. I want you to realize the only way you will have peace and fulfilment is by coming close to the Father in Heaven through His Son Jesus in the Holy Spirit. The Father has given you the Holy Spirit to help and guide you. Pray daily for the inspiration you need to be given to you by the Holy Spirit so you will make right judgements; you will have wisdom and knowledge to do all in the right order; you will gain the courage and strength needed to step out boldly in faith and do the work the Father needs you to do. Make use of the many graces given to you and always give humble thanks for all you have been given. As I have told you many times before there is much work to be done. I ask you again to pray that the Holy Spirit will open your eyes to the plan the Father has for you. Trust completely and open your heart this night and with peace and joy be ready to accept the challenge of stepping out and furthering the Kingdom of God by the love you show to all those who are put in your path. I thank you for your faithfulness and I send you many blessings from the Father in Heaven.

Time is short. The winds of change are almost upon you. I beg you to change your ways. Repent and turn away from sin and include my Son Jesus once more in your life. Do not dismiss the many signs that abound in all parts of the world. Take notice of the changing weather patterns, the earthquakes, the violent storms, the ravaging fires, the snow storms, the mud slides and more. When will you realize the need for you to change your ways and include your Eternal Father in your life. Do not stay blinded by indifference. I ask you to change your ways before it is too late. Do not be afraid to change and grow in the love of your Eternal Father. Trust Him completely and make Him the centre of your life. Do not cling onto worldly possessions and wants, they are passing, instead cling onto all which is spiritual and grow rich in your faithfulness and trust of the Father in Heaven through Jesus His Son in the Holy Spirit given by God the Father to help and guide you. Step out with faith and courage and begin the journey of faith, hope and love. Contemplate these three virtues in your life. Grow deeper in your faith. Hold onto the hope of your Heavenly Father of a new Heaven and a new earth and accept the love that He has to give you. Pray that many will open their eyes and be healed of the spiritual blindness which abounds in the world and come back to the knowledge of the truth that unless they put God first in their lives and reach out in love to their neighbours they will not inherit the kingdom of Heaven. Pray daily for the redemption of many and for the reparation of the many sins committed in the world today. I await your choice. Choose to accept with an open heart the love the Father has for you through Jesus in the Holy Spirit poured out this day for you and for all who say yes to their Heavenly Father.

you and keep you away from your prayers. Be strong and have courage to remain steeped in your prayer time to help you in times of trials. There is much work to do so I ask you to ask for the graces you need to flood your soul to give you the strength and nourishment you need. Receive the sacraments often, as you are given many graces through this way. I am close by you and encourage you to pray always with an open heart so that you will be able to receive the inspiration you need through the Holy Spirit. If your heart is closed and distant, my Son will be knocking at the door but will not be able to enter in. You have been given free will to enable you to make choices. Ask this night for your Lord and Saviour to come close to you and open your heart to receive Him in. Come close to my Immaculate Heart and I will guide you to my Son's Sacred Heart. All I need is for you to also want this in your life. You will be given the graces and blessings you need to grow deeper in your faith when you open your heart to receive it. Do not be afraid to step out and trust completely. The journey of love is rewarding. Bring your loved ones close to our United Hearts and pray for them to come under my protection and I, as their Mother, will guide and protect them. I ask you again to stay peaceful and trust in the love of your Eternal Father through my Son Jesus the Christ by the Holy Spirit.

18th November 2005 (Night Prayer)

Turn to me and offer me all the little trials you experience during your day. So often you forget to include me in these moments and you struggle on alone. Abandon yourself completely to me and I will guide you towards the deep love of the Eternal Father through my Son Jesus. Do not be concerned when your day does not work out how you had wanted. Offer all these inconveniences to me to use for the reparation of sinners. It is important to reach out to your family in love and guide them towards the love of the Blessed Trinity by your little acts of endless love towards them. The Father uses all your acts of love given with a humble heart to help in the salvation of souls. Stay strong when you experience trials and do not let them overcome you. It is important to remember that you are never alone and you have the immense love of your Heavenly family to carry you through. Reach out in love and compassion and pass on this love given to you to God's hurting people. They need to know you care about them and that you hear their sorrows. It brings them comfort by you just listening to them. My child, bring all these people to me and encourage them to come close as I will guide and help them as their Heavenly Mother. I need you to trust completely in my guidance and I want you to be assured that I draw you in close to my Immaculate Heart and take you to the Sacred Heart of my Son Jesus who will look after your every need and will flood your soul with many graces and blessings. Abandon yourself completely to the Divine Will of your Eternal Father through my Son Jesus and receive the love poured out to you through the Holy Spirit.

19th November 2005 (Night Prayer)

I remind you this night of the endless patience of your Eternal Father. He is full of mercy, love and compassion but you, my children, no longer listen to Him. You busy yourself with so many worldly concerns which take you away from the love of the Father. You turn your back on your spiritual life and pursue worldly desires which do not bring you the peace and joy like the love of your Eternal Father will give you. I ask you to realize that these pursuits are all passing and will not lead you towards eternal happiness. Come back, before it is too late and once again put your faith in the Father in Heaven. He will look after you and send you the graces and gifts you need. Trust in His Divine Will and experience the deep love He wants to give you. Do not stay distant. Time is short. I ask you to begin the journey of trust and commitment. Commit yourself once again to listen to the advice given to you from above through reading the scriptures. Accept the nourishment the Father gives you – the Bread of Life – Jesus, your Lord and Saviour. Come close to Him by receiving Jesus as often as you can in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. Spend time with Him in prayer and contemplation. I beg you to get off the merry-go-round which keeps you spinning faster in pursuit of those worldly desires. Make time for your Lord and God and you will experience the beauty your Father has to offer you. You will recognize more often the graces and blessings He sends you daily. Give thanks for all you have and turn back to a life which puts your Lord God first and in which you can learn once more the importance of reaching out in love to your fellow man. Begin this new life of simplicity and love.

21st November 2005 (afternoon rosary – Prayer Day)

I want you to adore my Son Jesus the Christ. Never fear to come close to Him as He will guide and help you in every part of your life. He awaits your agreement to open your heart and accept Him as your Lord and Saviour. He wants to use you but He needs you to first open your hearts and let go of the burdens and hurts you still hold on to. Trust Him completely and step out this day. Let go of the past and move on. Move on to the deep love your Eternal Father has for you. He gave you His Son Jesus to give you hope and to fulfil His desire for a new life for all of His children. Come close this day and abandon your old ways and begin your life anew. Trust completely and accept the graces and blessings that are waiting to be poured into your heart. Do not stay distant and apart from the immense love your Heavenly family have for you. Accept the graces and blessings. Give thanks for all you have been given and all you will receive. If only you could understand the great love God has for you. I feel saddened when I see so many of my children who do not know the love of the Eternal Father

7th January 2006 (1st Saturday vigil Night Prayers)

I ask you to trust me completely. Bring me your worries and concerns and shelter close under the protection of my Holy Mantle. I am your Heavenly Mother and I care about you and want to guide and help you. Never be afraid to call upon my help. I will lead you to my Son Jesus' Sacred Heart. I want you to pray more often for the help you need instead of struggling alone. The Eternal Father loves you and wants to send you the graces and blessings you need for your journey. He awaits your prayers as He will always allow you to make your own decisions through your free will. Do not be afraid to trust completely in the Divine Providence of your Heavenly Father. He will look after all your needs. I ask you to break down the barriers which impede you from trusting and begin to trust your Heavenly family more fully in all you do. Think back over the graces and blessings you have received and give thanks to your Eternal Father. Put God the Father first in your life and you will begin to see how your heart will be opened to receive the abundant love He has for you. He has a perfect plan for all of His children. Pray that His plan for you will be accomplished through your co-operation and complete faith in His Divine Will in your life. Begin the journey of trust and ask to be filled with the graces and gifts of the Holy Spirit. I want you to believe that you will be given the graces of courage and strength. You will be given faith, hope, joy and a deep desire to reach out in love to your neighbour. I ask you to trust completely even when you feel alone or carry burdens. In times of darkness let my Son Jesus be your guiding light. Turn to Him and put your trust in His saving power in your life. He died so you would have a new life. Embrace the new life offered to you and begin anew on your journey towards your Heavenly Inheritance. You are never alone. I walk with you and will guide and help you always.

8th January 2006 (Apparition Night)

May the light of my Son Jesus the Christ shine down upon you and light your path. Come out of the darkness into the light and accept the love of your Lord and Saviour. Turn back and listen to the words given to you. Do not be stubborn and hard-hearted and want to do it your own way. Humble yourself and obey the will of the Father. Recognize the hand of God in your life. Acknowledge the many graces he pours down upon you in abundance. Give glory and thanks to Him and allow Him to be part of your life. It is important that you listen to my words at this time. Do not dismiss them and follow the wrong path, instead come close and include your heavenly family in your life. I, as your Mother, want to guide and help you to come close. I ask you to listen to the advice given to you by reading the Scriptures. Come close to my Son by reception of the sacraments. The journey is daily for the protection and strength you need to gently but firmly let people know the boundaries. My Son Jesus set boundaries with people when He walked this earth. Read Scriptures to understand more deeply the path you need to walk by the example of Jesus and the Apostles and you will gain the strength and discipline you need. Do not try and do the journey alone but call upon your Heavenly family always to help and guide you. Gain strength by reception of the Sacraments and prepare yourself to step out boldly in faith. Remember to recognize the inspiration of the Holy Spirit more clearly in your life as this is how you will determine the right path to follow. Grow deeper in your understanding of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit and learn the way to immerse yourself in the fullness of God in your life. Be peaceful at all times and know that I am with you always.

7th January 2006 (Morning Prayer)

I ask you to put your Heavenly Father first in your lives. You will be given graces and blessings in abundance. Pray often. Be united in prayer in your family life. Listen to the inspiration given to you by the Holy Spirit. Include your Heavenly family in all your plans. Do not try and do the journey of life alone. Pray always for all your needs. Recognize the people God puts in your path. Reach out to them in love by your loving actions guide them back onto the narrow path. Give glory, praise and thanks always to the Eternal Father for all the graces and blessings you receive daily. Take joy in the simple pleasures of life and teach your children how to live a simple life with your Heavenly family as a central part of your lives. Spend time daily in prayer and contemplation to help you in your spiritual journey. Reach Scripture passages and contemplate on the meaning of them in your lives. Imitate my Son Jesus the Christ and His beloved Apostles by your humility and faithfulness and pray that the Holy Spirit will fill you with the graces needed to step out in faith and do the Father's work of love. Contemplate the lives of the Holy Family and teach your family to also be holy with a deep love for your Heavenly Father through Jesus His Son in the Holy Spirit given to you to help you on your spiritual journey. Pray often to the Holy Spirit to give you the guidance you need to make right decisions in your lives. Pray also for courage and strength to step out in faith and trust and be an example to others. Let the love of the Father in Jesus His Son by the Holy Spirit flow out through you to all those God the Father puts in your path. Live a holy family life and touch the hearts of many by your living example of love. Do not be afraid to call on me, your Heavenly Mother to help you and guide you towards your Heavenly Inheritance. I am your Mother and I want the very best for you. Carry peace and joy in your hearts always and know the abundant love your Heavenly family has for you.

in their lives. Be a shining light for others to follow to their Eternal Father. Be the light of Christ shining out through you. Reach out in love and do the Father's work. Will you take up the challenge and be these beacons of light which are so needed at the moment to guide the Father's children out of the darkness and into the bright light of the love of the Father, through the Son, in the Holy Spirit?

I send you this night the love of my Son Jesus the Christ sent down upon you in abundance. I ask you to accept His love and begin the journey of complete trust. Do not stay distant but trust in the Father's Divine providence in your life. He sent His Son Jesus for you to have a life full of love and peace and joy. He wants you to be open to receive these gifts. The Eternal Father will give you many gifts and graces to help you on your journey. Ask this night to be filled to overflowing with the gifts He wants to bestow upon you. Do not be concerned when you experience trials. Trust completely and realize that you will grow in strength and courage when you accept these trials. Do not be afraid to experience trials; instead use them to help in the reparation of sins. As you have been told, turn your trials into triumphs for the Sacred Heart of my Son Jesus. I, your Heavenly Mother love and care for you and want you to come close to your Heavenly family. I will guide and help you in every part of your day. Turn to me often and tell me your worries and needs. I will take all your prayers given with a humble heart to the Eternal Father. Be patient and always persevere in your faith. The Father knows all and will send you what you need. Stay peaceful and take the joy of Christ home with you and spread this peace and joy to all those you meet. Be my soldiers of Christ and bring many people back to the Eternal Father by your self sacrifice, by your prayers, but mostly by your love. I am with you always and will love and care for you and your families.

22nd November 2005 (Night Prayer)

Rest close this night to my Immaculate Heart and I will give you comfort. I will give you rest. I will guide you down the narrow path towards those light which is my Son Jesus who is the light of the world. He longs to fill you with the warmth of His love which radiates out from the rays of light coming forth from His most Sacred Heart. Do not stay distant. Come close this night and be bathed in the love of your Eternal Father through His Son Jesus in the graces poured out by the Holy Spirit. I know you experience aloneness in your journey. Try to remember that you are never alone. The Heavenly throng are near by always to help you to understand the Eternal Father's plan for you. Rest peacefully and know that you have no need to worry. I hear your cries for help and guidance and I am close by you at all times just the same as a mother hen with her chicks I love and care for you and want to give you the love and guidance you need. Do not stay in the old pattern of struggling on alone. Turn and pray for the help you need. Stay close to your Heavenly family by receiving the Sacraments, in your prayers and by asking always to be replenished of the gifts from the Holy Spirit. These gifts will help you when you feel discouraged. They will help you to persevere in times of trials. They will help you to have patience to leave it to be in the Eternal Father's time not yours. Mostly they will help you experience the love of Christ which can then flow out to others and you will by helping your Eternal Father by this love in the redemptive work of mankind.

23rd November 2005 (Night Prayer)

Bring all the children to me and I will take them under the protection of my Holy Mantle. Learn the lessons from the innocent children. When they are young they trust completely that they will be looked after in every way. They trust that they will receive the nourishment to make them grow. They trust they will be shown an unconditional love from their parents. They trust that every step of their journey will be guided by the loving hands of their parents. Take this complete trust and know that your Eternal Father wants you to come close this night and once again place your complete trust in Him. Trust that He will give you the nourishment you need; the nourishment which is His Son Jesus when you receive Him in the Blessed Eucharist. Nourishment when you accept the gifts and graces offered to you from your Father through the Holy Spirit. The Heavenly Father wants you to trust that He will guide you in every step of your journey. I ask you this night to break down the barriers which stop you from trusting in the Divine Will of the Father in your lives. Step out in faith just as a baby steps out and knows that He will be caught if He should stumble or fall. Your Heavenly Father wants you to trust in this way even if you do stumble and fall, even if you stray from the narrow path, turn always and pray for the help you need and know that when you ask, you will receive the graces and blessings you need to continue the journey of complete trust in your Eternal Father, in my Son Jesus and you will be given the graces you need by the Holy Spirit.

24th November 2005 (Jesus – in front of tabernacle)

My child,
Do not worry and concern yourself with problems of the world. Stay close to Me and I, your Lord and Saviour, will guide you along the right path. Come into my light and walk away from the darkness of the world. I need you to have your life centred on Me so that I can use you to help those who are still struggling in the darkness. Do not fear the unknown. I ask that you trust Me completely even when you seem to be experiencing many trials. I am there with you. Take courage and know you will be strengthened in

5th January 2006 (Morning Prayer)

Bring to me all your little inconveniences and sufferings and use them as a self sacrifice to benefit others. Learn tolerance and patience. The Eternal Father has endless patience for you and for all mankind. God's people test His patience and lead a life in reckless abandon where they no longer have God in their lives. The Governments of the world are governing their countries in the wrong way. They have taken God out of legislation and many operate on greed and no longer obey God's commandments. They have forgotten who it is that they will be ultimately answerable to. They make foolish decisions and have done so much damage to the environment by these decisions based on greed. I ask you to pray that the governments will change their ways and realize the importance of having God in their decision making and as a central part of their lives. Many people in important positions are more concerned in pleasing everyone and base their decision making in this way, instead of standing up and saying that this is not right they go along with others and agree on policies which they know are completely wrong. It is important that you pray for these people to act wisely and have courage to stand up against decisions which are wrong. The Father's hand of justice will fall upon these governments and I ask you to pray that right order in all matters will once again be restored. Pray that God's people will begin again to obey His Commandments and change their ways. Bring others back to the knowledge of the truth in their lives. Reach out and touch the lives of all those that God puts in your path and help in the redemptive work of mankind. Offer many prayers in reparation for the sins of mankind. Be peaceful and carry the peace and joy of Christ out to others.

6th January 2006 (Morning Prayer)

There will be those who mock and scorn that which is happening. Those who are close to you and some you do not know. I ask you to never stray off the narrow path because of pressure from others. Pray always for strength to be given to you to sustain you on the journey. I need you to gain strength for the time ahead. Put complete trust in your Heavenly Father and be prepared to follow Him no matter what happens around you. Do not worry about anything because you will be sent graces and will have all the help you need from your Heavenly family. Stay strong by staying close to like-minded people who will support you not mock you. There is so much work to do and it is important that you are disciplined in your life. You can have strength but also be gentle in all you do. Do not be afraid to set boundaries with people as this is needed because many people are selfish and will, try always to push the boundaries to suit themselves because of their selfishness and their need to always have everything their way. Pray obstacles seem to come upon you, instead embrace each one and you will grow deeper in your love and commitment to your Heavenly family. There is much work to do so stay awake and be open to the many people the Father will put in your path wherever you are. Step out into the world and let the Father work through you. Be an instrument of peace to others, listen to them and their hurts and gently guide them back towards their Heavenly Inheritance. Call upon the Holy Spirit to help you in your work. I walk beside you and will help you in all your endeavours in furthering the kingdom of God. Be at peace and receive Christ spiritually into your heart. Read Ephesians 3: 16-19 & 4: 12-16

Pray that the Holy Spirit will be a central part of your life. In this way you will always listen to the inspiration given to you and will not do anything in haste. The Holy Spirit is the vital link between you and your Father in Heaven and Jesus His Son. Do not be afraid to receive the graces and gifts of the Holy Spirit because this is the nourishment you need to give you courage and strength to step out in complete faith. Learn to recognize the signs you are given by the Holy Spirit. Immerse yourself in the Holy Spirit of love and be filled to overflowing so that you can in turn let that love flow out through you and be that vessel of peace and love to help others realize the love the Father has for them. Stay close and steeped in your prayer time and make time to sit quietly in contemplation so that you can realize the deep love your Eternal Father has for you and for all of His children. Obey God's commandments and be an example of this to others. Always have the courage to turn your back and walk away from situations where you know that this is not the Father's will. Pray always for guidance from the Holy Spirit in all areas of your life. Do not be afraid to stand alone. Stay always peaceful in your convictions and lead others to the love the Father has for them in gentleness and humility. People will look to you for guidance so take time daily to read the Scriptures so that you can speak the truth. Be true imitations of Christ in your actions and help others to know that Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life. Stay strong and stay centred in the love of the Father by His Son Jesus in the Holy Spirit. Pray daily for the virtues of the Holy Spirit in every part of your life. If you ask me I will guide you to my Spouse, the Holy Spirit to fill you completely with all the gifts and graces you need for your journey towards redemption.

these trials. Just as the gold is melted and purified, I want you to realize that you also are being purified when you reject the selfish ways of the world, when you accept any trials you are given and trust completely that I am guiding you towards your Heavenly Inheritance. I want you to share with Me all your little worries and concerns and ask for my help. Stay close to Me and I will bathe you in My light and love so you can go out and be that Christ light to others and help in the redemptive work of mankind. Do not be afraid. Stay steeped in your prayers and you will be looked after in all your needs. I am with you always so do not walk alone but include Me in your journey of life. Be at peace and always carry joy in your heart. Take Me, your Lord and God wherever you go.

25th November 2005 (Night Prayer)

I ask you to come close to my Son Jesus through His sufferings and passion. Bring all your sufferings, no matter how small, to the Eternal Father and offer them in unity with My Son's suffering for the redemption of souls. I ask you to be united as one with My Son Jesus in your trials and in your sufferings. Be united as one in the Sacraments. Be united when you receive Him in the Holy Eucharist. Be united when you come before Him in Adoration or when you offer prayers in front of the tabernacle. Do not stay alone in your journey but turn always and include your Heavenly family in your every moment. You will gain strength and receive many graces when you trust completely in the Eternal Father's Divine Will in your lives. The Father does not want to see you suffer just as He did not want to see His Son suffer. Take courage and accept any suffering in your lives and know that if you ask you will be given the graces to persevere and be strong in these difficult times. I, as your Mother know your trials and suffering and I want you to know that I, too, am united in these difficult moments and stay close by you to guide and help you. I myself, suffered terribly through my Son's trial and passion and crucifixion but I ask you to remember the joy of the resurrection – new life for us all. Do not be disheartened but always stay focussed on the immense love the Eternal Father has for you through the death and resurrection of His Son Jesus the Christ who brings to all peace and a love which will flow out to others when we accept the challenge to be united with Christ in all that we do and be that imitation of Christ to all those we meet.

27th November 2005 (Night Prayer)

I ask you to pray deeply and open your heart to the generating gift of the Eternal Father's Divine love for you and for all His children. I want you to begin to realize the people He puts in your path. The needs of these people are great. They need you to be there for them to listen to their hurts and to be a comfort to them. Let them become aware of the depth of love the Father has for them by reaching out in love and compassion. I ask you again to be that beacon of light they need to guide them in the right direction. Just as the lighthouse is a shining bright light which shines out for miles to the vessels to guide and help them to stay on the right course, I want you to be that lighthouse to all. Let the love and light of my Son Jesus, the Christ shine out through you to guide many people along the right path towards the Eternal Father. In this way they will begin to realize that their Heavenly Father wants to give them many graces and that He is a God who is infinitely patient and perseveres when His people are so distant from Him. He is full of mercy, compassion and love and is slow to anger and quick to forgive. Bring many back to this knowledge by your loving actions and help them to realize the graces and gifts which are waiting for those who believe. Use all the gifts and graces you are given. Give thanks always for the mercy and love the Father shows you and be filled once more with the love the Father has for you through my Son Jesus in the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Bring my children back close once more by giving them holy blessed items for them to take and wear. Give out my miraculous medal to all those in need.

28th November 2005 (Night Prayer)

Be compassionate just as your Eternal Father shows compassion to all His children. Do not judge others lest you be judged. Stay true to the gospel and grow deeper in your understanding of the Holy Scriptures. Do not shy away from your responsibilities of spreading the Word of God to others. Gain the strength and courage needed for the work you will be asked to undertake. Do not fear the unknown; simply trust the Eternal Father's Divine Will in your lives. There will be times when the journey seems difficult. I ask you to realize that nothing is too difficult when you share the load with your Lord and Saviour. I ask you to take courage from the example of David in the Holy Scriptures. He was a man who seemed to have incredible odds against him. He prayed for the courage and strength from His Heavenly Father and was able to defeat an army. I ask you to step out and be a warrior of Christ. Have courage to fight against the ways of the world. Stand up and defend your faith by your self sacrifice, by your prayer life and by coming close to your Lord and God in the sacraments. Gain strength in this way to enable you to turn away from the ways of the world, to have strength to withstand any trials and gain the knowledge of the Scriptures so that you can defend your faith when needed. Mostly I ask you to turn away from sin and be faithful to the gospel. Do not retaliate in anger when others are critical and judging. Always meet them at the spiritual level they are at – do not speak in a condescending way to them but love all. Always let your actions speak louder than your words. If you trust your Eternal Father completely you will be given the knowledge and guidance

1st January 2006 (Night Prayer)

Humble yourself completely. Do not allow the sin of pride to cloud your judgement and impede you from coming close to the love and complete abandonment to your Father in Heaven. Many are blind to sin and do not acknowledge that all graces come from their Eternal Father. He uses you, as an unworthy vessel to help in the redemption of others. Understand that you are the vessel and He is the Omnipotence. It is God the Father who heals, who sends the graces you need, who sustains you and looks after your every need. He is a patient, caring Father who holds back His hand of justice on the world because of His infinite love for mankind. Do not continue to try the patience of the Father. Time is running out for mankind because of their neglect and total abuse of the Father's love for them. They worship false gods and commit many serious sins. Through the sin of pride they believe that they have the power to do whatever they want without any thought of the consequences. I ask you to be a pure vessel of light so that the Father's love can flow out of you to others. It is most important that you repent of all your sins and follow your Lord and Saviour completely. I ask you to show complete humility and be always eternally grateful for the many graces and blessings you have been given by your Heavenly Father. Through your humility and unworthiness the Father will use you to help others to realize that He loves all of His children equally and He longs for them to come close and trust Him in every part of their lives. Stay close to your Heavenly family and ask to be given incite into areas of your life which need to change and grow. Come back fully to the Father in all your imperfections and allow Him to mould and shape you into that vessel of love, hope and compassion. Embrace humility in your life and know that this is the only way you will come closer to perfection in your spiritual life.

3rd January 2006 (Morning Prayer)

Stay close to your Heavenly family and do not worry when trials and persecution surround you. Trust completely, stay humble and know that everything will be put in right order. It is not for you to question why. Step out in faith and have a strong conviction in your heart that your Eternal Father will look after you and all your needs. There will be some difficult times when you feel so alone in your faith journey. Never give up. Persevere and you will gain much in your spiritual growth. Stay peaceful at all times and do not let others and their words effect you. Hold onto the truth and pray that their eyes will be opened also to the truth which is the love that the Eternal Father has for them through Jesus Christ their Lord and Saviour in the Holy Spirit. The commitment needed from each and every one of God's people is that they put Him first in their lives and they reach out in love to their neighbour. Do not feel frustrated when so many is happening in the world. The Father asks that you always reach out and continue the work of guiding people onto the right path. There will come a time when God's people realize that the messages given are the way to salvation. Many, at the moment choose to observe from afar or to stay blinded to the truth. They see but do not believe, hear but do not listen. Stay strong in your beliefs and step out boldly and continue the work of ministering to others. Always go about your work peacefully in a quiet, gentle manner. Meet people always where they are and by your love and kindness you will guide them towards the love of their Heavenly Father through my Son Jesus in the Holy Spirit. I ask you again, do not be afraid. I am with you always to guide and help you. Trust completely in the Divine Will of the Eternal Father in your life.

31st December 2005 (Night Prayer)

Just as the flower gives off a beautiful perfume when it is nourished and watered you too emit a beautiful perfume when you deepen your prayer life by growing deeper in your relationship with your Heavenly family. It is important that you nurture and nourish your prayer time so that you can grow spiritually. Do not give your prayers lip service and consider because you are saying many formal prayers that this is enough. Grow deeper by really understanding the prayers you give. Do not rush your prayers because you need to fit a certain amount of prayers in but instead say each prayer with meaning. The Father understands what is in your heart and would much prefer sincere prayers given humbly than many prayers given without thought or feeling. I want you on this last day of the year to ask yourself some questions. What have I done for the Eternal Father in this year just gone? What am I going to do in the coming year to deepen my relationship with my Heavenly family? Have I put the Heavenly Father first? Have I reached out in love to those people He has put in my path? Do I gossip or talk about others behind their backs? I ask you to examine your conscience well and write down ways you can change your heart and once more put your Father first. It is never too late to change your ways. Do not fear change. This is the way you grow spiritually. In this New Year begin once more with a commitment to grow deeper in the love you have for the Eternal Father through Jesus His Son in the Holy Spirit. Do not put off the chance to renew your commitment to step out and be a disciple of Christ's love, reaching out always with love and compassion to all. I love you and I am with you always.

you need. Be always peaceful in the realisation that you are loved by your Heavenly family. Read Matthew 5:3-10 and Matthew 5: 43-45.

29th November 2005 (Night Prayer)

I ask you to care for my hurting children. Reach out in love and help them regardless where they come from. Remember to ask for help from your Heavenly family to give you the wisdom you need when you are reaching out in love and compassion. Do not rush ahead and forget to include your Heavenly family into every situation. Be steeped in your prayers and learn to make every part of your day a prayer offered humbly to the Eternal Father. In this way you will always remember to ask for help in every situation and will not stay alone. You are chosen to do this work of love to bring many back to the endless love of their Eternal Father through your selfless acts of love. I ask you again to trust fully in your Heavenly Father and never be afraid to step out and do this work. So many of these people have no where to turn and feel as if their situation is hopeless. Reach out and show them a glimmer of hope. Show them the love of Christ poured out to them by your self sacrifice. So many people do not have anyone to show them love and they feel lonely and deeply despair at their situation. They need to know that someone does care about them and that they are loved beyond compare by their Heavenly Father. It takes strength and commitment to do this work and many times you will not know if your love has been enough. Do not worry, trust completely and believe that every loving action, no matter how small does matter, does help. Persevere in your work. Be a servant of the united love of my Son Jesus' Sacred Heart and my Immaculate Heart and know that you are united in this outpouring of love for others which will help in the redemption of many souls and in the triumph of our United Hearts.

30th November, 2005 (Rosary – Night Prayer)

You are sometimes asked to choose the more difficult path in your journey of faith. Do not ask for your trials and burdens to be lessened but instead embrace them and know that you will gain strength when you persevere and trust completely in the plan of your Eternal Father for you. Do not despair when at times it seems so difficult and you feel so alone in your struggles. Remember you are never alone; you need to turn always in prayer and include your Heavenly family in your struggles. Family life can be difficult but I ask you to offer any of your family problems up to the Father as a form of self sacrifice and continue to reach out in love to all those in need of it. Stay close to my Son Jesus and spend time alone with Him in prayer so that you can receive peace in your heart and ask for the graces you need to be sent down to strengthen you in these difficult times. Jesus went out into the desert and fasted and prayed for guidance He needed to His Father in Heaven. Take time this Advent to also fast and pray and ask also to the Eternal Father for guidance in your lives. Contemplate on the real meaning of Christmas, when your Lord and Saviour was born in a cave to fulfil the Father's will in the redemption of mankind. Come back this Christmas and spend time with your families and reach out in love and without judgement to those family members who no longer feel that they are accepted or that they fit in. I ask you again to let the real meaning of Christmas be present and once more let your Heavenly family be united with your family in true peace and joy. Do not be caught up in the worldly ways but spread to all those you meet the love of my Son Jesus and take His peace and joy to all.

It is easy to become distracted with the ways of the world. I ask you to remain focussed at all times for the work you have been asked to do. It is important that you stay close to my Son Jesus in your prayers. Bring all your weaknesses to Him and ask Him to send down the Holy Spirit upon you so that you can gain the strength you need. Stay close by reading from the Scriptures every day as this also will help you to be focussed on your Heavenly goal. I ask you to pray to the Eternal Father to reveal to you all your weaknesses so that you can change and grow in your faith. The Eternal Father feels deeply saddened to see that His people carry such arrogance and self righteousness. They do not believe that they have any weakness and have turned away from their Heavenly Father and no longer listen to His words or obey His Commandments. Do not follow these ways of the world as they are on the wrong path. It is important that you humbly ask forgiveness and recognize areas in your lives where you haven't been doing the right thing and try and change these weaknesses. The Father sees all that you do and will use all your goodness to help in the redemption of souls. Read Matthew 5 13-16 and realize that salt is used for flavouring and to enhance flavours but if it loses its flavour it is useless. Build up areas in your personal lives so that you have the strength needed for the Father to use you in the work of saving many souls. Change your ways and always desire to change and grow in your spiritual lives. Build up strength so that you are always aware when you fall back into old ways. Do not do this alone. I want you to have complete trust in the Blessed Trinity and rely totally on them to give you the nourishment you need for your spiritual awakening.

4th December 2005 (Night Prayer)

All are given the same opportunity to open their hearts to the graces and instead stay peaceful. Try to resolve any issues calmly. Pray always for guidance. The narrow path you are on has difficulties and obstacles. Stay close to your Heavenly family. Stay always steeped in prayer and forgiveness of others. Do not be afraid to face challenges which come your way. You will always have guidance. Trust completely in Divine Providence. Any trials you face will allow you to be strengthened and will deepen your faith. The times you live in are difficult and I say again to you to stay close by your prayers and by reception of the Sacraments. Always turn the other cheek and try and meet others where they are with love, mercy and compassion. Dust your feet and move on if you are not accepted. Be always humble and forgive endlessly. I am asking extra from you. I ask you to be courageous and step out in blind faith and trust of the Blessed Trinity and me, your Heavenly Mother. Do not worry about tomorrow, just live your life one day at a time where you put your complete faith in the love and protection your Father has for you. Pray for strength and for the inspiration of the Holy Spirit when persecutions are upon you. I want you to believe that you are never alone; your Heavenly family will look after you and your needs. Time is short and it is important that God's people change their ways. Material possessions mean nothing. The most important thing to remember is to put God first and to secondly reach out in love to others by your loving actions towards them. I ask you to truly examine your lives and all that you hold as important. Are you always concerned about money and all the possessions you have and want or do you truly have a deep desire to grow deeper in your relationship with your Heavenly Father and accept the love, mercy and compassion He has for you? I beg you to change your ways and put your life in the right order. Put your Eternal Father first and everything else will be added onto you. Begin your journey of complete trust in the Divine Will of your Heavenly Father in your life.

30th December 2005 (Night Prayer)

Never doubt the love and affection which awaits you from your Heavenly Family. Accept this love and be filled completely. There are so many daily occurrences which distract you and take you away from the closeness of your Heavenly family. I ask you to be more recognizing in your day when you become distracted or forget that your Heavenly family are there close by you to help you with any trials which you face. Turn back once more and begin again to trust and pray for the help you need from your Heavenly family. All your struggles and difficulties can be overcome if you will ask your Eternal Father for His help. He knows everything which happens in your life and will always do that which is best for you. He will never interfere but will await your prayer given to Him humbly for His guidance, love and protection. Do not be concerned with those who discount always all which you. Be still and your Eternal Father will reveal Himself to you. Gain wisdom and knowledge in the words of Scripture. Read a small section and then contemplate the meaning. The world has become so loud and busy and many people no longer know how to sit in quiet contemplation on the many graces and blessings they have been given. I ask you to learn how to include your Heavenly family into all your day. Make every part of your day a prayer and grow deeper in your love of your Heavenly Father. Trust Him completely and tell Him all your worries and concerns. He wants to help you so ask for the graces you need to grow deeper in your prayer life and in your relationship with your Eternal Father through His Son Jesus in the gifts and graces of the Holy Spirit.

28th December 2005 (Night Prayer – at home)

Humility can sometimes be difficult because of your need to feel special and for someone to acknowledge that all you are doing is important. I ask you to humble yourself completely and seek no praise but give all the glory to your Heavenly Father. Break down those old habits of seeking to be told that you are a good person and become small with a great desire to do all that is good for your Eternal Father. Come close to me in your moments of difficulty and ask for my help. Pray always to be given the virtue of humility. Change your heart and try each day to pray with a humble heart that you will be able to do the Father's Will. Do not rush so recklessly ahead of the Father's plan that you fail to listen to Him in all that you do. Trust completely and always be open to the Holy Spirit in your life. Accept the love of your Father through His Son Jesus in the Holy Spirit. Face the challenges of life daily with a renewed spirit of hope and faith in your Heavenly Father knowing that no matter what trials come your way you are never alone in your struggles because you only need to turn and pray for guidance and your Heavenly family will be there to help and guide you. Do not be afraid to step out in faith and with complete trust. Stay close in your prayers, in receiving my Son Jesus in Holy Communion and read the Scriptures daily. It is important that you know the Scriptures well as you will gain the knowledge and wisdom needed to stay on the narrow path by reading these holy words. Do not be distracted by worldly matters as they are passing but stay focussed on spiritual matters as this is where you will receive the true nourishment needed for your journey towards your Heavenly Inheritance. Carry the peace and joy of Christ in your heart as a bright light to guide you in all that you do.

29th December 2005 (Night Prayer)

Show compassion to those who try to hurt you. Do not retaliate but blessings of the Eternal Father through me their Heavenly Mother. Many are chosen but few accept. Do not concern yourself when your offer is rejected. Continue reaching out in love and compassion and meet each person where they are. Be that stepping stone between them and their Heavenly Father. Try not to worry about any rejection you encounter. Many of God's people feel unworthy to accept His unconditional love so they stay distant out of embarrassment for the errors of their ways. The Eternal Father is all forgiving and wants all of His lost sheep to return to the fold and once more have the knowledge of the love He showers down upon them through His only begotten Son Jesus the Christ. He wants all of His children to accept His Divine Will in their lives, to trust completely and to always turn to Him in every part of their lives and accept Him as their Divine Master and Creator. He wants them to realize His deep love, compassion and mercy for every one of them. Continue to be that ray of hope. Be that light of Christ to help those who do not know or have rejected at this present time the eternal love the Father in Heaven. I want you to radiate the warmth, love and peace of Christ to all those around you and to be accepting of the burdens and trials this may entail. Offer all your internal sufferings and sadness to the Father and know that it will be used for the good of mankind. Go with peace and joy in your heart and continue the work of reaching out to all with love.

5th December 2005 (Night Prayer)

Stay close when you feel burdened. Stay close when you feel abandoned and so alone. Do not worry what others think. Stay on the narrow path which leads to your Heavenly Inheritance. Gain the strength always by coming close to my Son Jesus the Christ in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar. I want you to realize the love your Eternal Father showers down upon you through His Son Jesus given to you in the Holy Spirit. This is a time when you can receive immense grace but it is also a time when you will need to pray for the courage to accept the trials. Try to make time in your day to be spent in quiet prayer and contemplation. Do not be distracted by worldly concerns. I know it is sometimes so difficult to have that quiet time needed. Begin by taking a little time and then you will slowly be able to spend that extra time you need to pray and receive the nourishment and knowledge needed for the journey. Stay close to people who can support you and give you words of encouragement when needed. Do not be worried about how others judge you as we are told not to judge others lest you be judged. Ask always for your Heavenly Father to send you the help and support you need to continue His work of reaching out to all in love and then trust completely that this will happen. As I have said many times before there is much work to do as many people are not listening or taking notice of the signs given to them but are continuing to lead selfish and self centred lives. I want you to try to get my messages of hope and love out to as many people as you can. Do not concern yourself when some reject my messages, move on and continue the work of spreading the message of love and forgiveness of the Eternal Father through the death and resurrection of His Son Jesus in the love outpoured by the Holy Spirit. Be always peaceful and filled with love and joy.

6th December 2005 (Midday prayers)

I need you to trust completely in the Divine Will of your Eternal Father. Humble yourself completely and unite yourself to my Immaculate Heart and the Sacred Heart of my Son Jesus the Christ. Do not rush ahead of God's plan but stay steadfast in your faith. Be tolerant of others and maintain a peaceful disposition. Do not let others make you agitated but turn always to me your Mother and share your concerns with me. I want to help you in every part of your life. I want you to offer your trials up to your Eternal Father and always give thanks for the blessings you have been given. You are never alone in your journey but you need to understand the need for you to ask for the help needed to your Heavenly family. Do not worry and fret about anything. You are looked after by me your Mother and I will guide you to my Son Jesus and to your Father in Heaven and you will be given the gifts and graces needed by the Holy Spirit. Come now with an open heart and have complete trust in the Blessed Trinity in your lives and know that you will be given all you need. I want you to go out and be messengers of peace and love and spread the word of the immense love that the Father wants to give to all His children. Do not be afraid. Call upon the angels and saints to guide and help you and begin this day to recognize the people the Father puts in your path for you to reach out in love to. Begin the journey of love and guide many back on the right path. Just as we read in the Scriptures this Advent how John the Baptist said "prepare the way of the Lord" I want you to prepare for the birth of your Lord and Saviour into your hearts and to also prepare the way for many lost souls to come to the knowledge of their Lord and God and to realize the love, mercy and compassion He has for all His children. Go now and be my messengers of peace and love.

7th December 2005 (Rosary and Night Prayer)

Do not concern yourselves with what is to come instead stay centred in the present, deeply immersed in the love the Father has for each and every one of you through the gift He has given you of His Son Jesus the Christ. Accept this love and ask that you may grow deeper in your love of the Blessed Trinity. Come close to my Immaculate Heart and know that I will guide you towards your Heavenly family. Bring your see that selfishness and greed have permeated all parts of the world. I ask you to change your ways and begin to make the difference which is needed. Reach out in love and with the peace and joy of your beloved Lord and Saviour and help others come to the truth of the love which is waiting for each and every one of humanity. Carry that peace and joy out into the world.

27th December 2005 (Afternoon prayers in grotto)

Come back to me and trust me completely. Do not wander far away but instead stay close and know that I am your Mother and I will protect you under my Holy Mantle. I ask you to come close to me by meditating on my beloved rosary and know that I will use these prayers offered with a humble heart for the salvation of souls. Do not travel the journey alone and so far away but stay close and feel the love that your Eternal Father wants to give you through my Son Jesus in the Holy Spirit poured into your hearts. Open your hearts to God and receive the graces He wants to bestow on you and know that He will fill you to overflowing so that the love can flow out to all those people He asks for you to reach out to in love and compassion. Come back to simplicity of faith where you once more trust completely and have a great desire to do the Divine Will of your Heavenly Father. Do not be afraid to give the Father your free will. He will send you many graces and blessings in your lives and you will be given all you need. I ask you to put your complete trust in the Father, Son and Holy Spirit and I, as your Heavenly Mother will guide you to come close and rest your weariness close to your Heavenly family. I thank you for your faithfulness in coming and I ask you to give me your prayers so that I can use them to help in the redemptive work of mankind. Take the peace and joy you experience this day away with you and offer it to others by your loving actions. I am with you always.

27th December 2005 (Night Prayer)

There are many distractions which take you away from staying close to me. I ask you to bring me to mind during your day and include me into your world. I, as your Heavenly Mother want to help you and I long for you to turn and include me into your life. I ask that you plan out your day so that you include some quiet time to pray and spend with your Heavenly family. Read Scriptures and gain the knowledge needed from these holy words. I ask you to come close in this quiet time that we spend together. If music is something you enjoy, play spiritual songs which will uplift you and give you peace and joy. There are so many ways you can pray. Do not limit yourself to prayers which are merely recited and do nothing to open your heart to the love your Heavenly Father has for you. Do not fill your prayer time so full that you do not have time to quietly listen to all that God wants to say to

of the world. Come close and gain the strength you need from the light which shines down upon you. Include your Lord and Saviour in all you do. Do not struggle alone but stay close to the light. Let me be your guiding star which shines so brightly and let me guide and help you. You are living in trying times where people doubt so easily and want to always do everything only for their own selfish wants. They no longer realize the importance of helping their neighbour and always think first what is in it for them. Step out and make a difference. Show the way to salvation to those people who are lost and wondering aimlessly in the desert of faith. The chosen people wandered in the desert for 40 years because of their lack of trust, because of their lack of faith, because they forgot how much their Heavenly Father loved them. The people of today are also lost for the same reasons. Make a difference by your example to others. Show them how to put complete trust in their Heavenly Father. Let your faith shine out for all to see and love endlessly so that the love of the Father and the Son can flow out through you to those people who so desperately need to accept these truths into their lives. I want you to also be a guiding light to all and fulfil the work the Father has for all of His children of a new Heaven and a new earth. I will be with you to guide and help you every step of the way.

Be always joyful. I ask you to carry peace and joy with you regardless of the persecutions. Carry the knowledge that your Lord and Saviour walks close by you and will guide and protect you. Do not fear the unknown. Stay close to your Heavenly family in your prayers. Put on your shield of armour. Pray always for protection and guidance. Never doubt the love that your Father has for you through His Son Jesus in the Holy Spirit. Your spiritual life is important. Guard it well so you stay on the narrow path to salvation. Many of God's people have neglected their spiritual lives and remain distant and focussed on worldly matters. I ask you again to pray fervently for the people of the world to turn back before it is too late and put God back in His rightful position in their lives. They must put their Heavenly Father first and accept the love and many graces He wants to give them. They must learn again how to put others first by the love and compassion they show towards their fellow man. The world is unbalanced and moving fast in the wrong direction. Slow down. Take time to spend quietly with your Lord and Saviour and realize that which is really important in your life. Do not become so focussed and distracted with everything around you that you have no time for God. Put Him first and you will be rewarded. You will receive many graces and blessings. Do not lead such a busy life that you become ignorant to all the graces the Father already gives you daily and which you forget to offer grateful thanks. I feel so deeply saddened when I loved ones to me and I will clothe them in my Holy Mantle. Do not be afraid to come close and put your trust in me but know that I long to look after you and all your needs. I ask you for your commitment to offer up prayers each day to help in the salvation of souls. Offer also all the inconveniences and little burdens that take you away from me. Come back and trust even when the problems seem plentiful. I will help and guide you towards my Son Jesus. Ask often for the gifts of the Holy Spirit to be replenished to give you courage and strength and to help you to persevere on those days when you have difficulties. Receive my Son Jesus often and be nourished and strengthened and take the peace of Christ with you and reach out in love to your fellow man. Find the answers to your problems by reading the Scriptures and imitating your brother in Christ – the Apostles. They too had difficulties and trials but they were not afraid to say “Yes” to Jesus and step out in faith and do the work of bringing many to the knowledge of the deep love that their Eternal Father has for all His children. I ask you also this night to continue this work and bring many back to the knowledge of the unending love of the Father through your love outpoured in your Christ-like actions to all those you meet. Pray for the inspiration of the Holy Spirit to help you in your work of love.

8th December 2005 (Jesus - Mass for feast of Immaculate Conception)

I ask you to come back to Me, my little black sheep. Do not concern yourself that you are different, just trust completely that I your Lord and Saviour love you with a deep love and I want to be a part of your life. I have searched for you and long for you to turn to Me and include Me in your life, include Me in your sufferings, include Me on the days when you feel so alone and abandoned. I ask you to ask and know that you will receive, seek and you will find. Do not continue searching in the wrong places but instead come close to Me and realize that I am the Way, I am the Truth, I am the Life. I am there to care for you and guide you towards the love of the Eternal Father through Me, your Lord and Saviour in the love outpoured to you in the Holy Spirit. I ask you to accept this love, be filled completely and in turn reach out in love and pass it on to the people I put in your path.

8th December 2005 (Afternoon prayer in grotto)

I want you to trust Me completely and come close and share all your concerns with Me. I am your Heavenly Mother and I care about every part of your life. Do not remain distant but begin the journey of trust back into the arms of my Son Jesus the Christ. Let Him guide and help you and never feel fear to confide in Him all your concerns. He longs for you to bring all your little worries to Him and then trust in His Divine Will in your life. Do not run away from the deep love that Jesus has for you. Come close this day and accept Him as your Lord and Saviour and receive all the graces and blessings you need for your life's journey. I ask you to trust your Heavenly family and begin the work that your Eternal Father needs you to do. Reach out in love and compassion and bring many back to the love of the Father through Jesus His Son in the Holy Spirit of Love poured into your heart this day. Do not keep this love to yourself but spread it to others and fulfil the Father's plan for a new Heaven and a new earth. Go now with peace and joy in your hearts with the knowledge that you are loved by your Heavenly family.

8th December 2005 (Apparition night)

Look to the sky and notice the pointer stars which guide you to the Southern Cross. Many a weary and lost traveller has used these stars at night to guide them back onto the right track. The three Kings looked to the east and a bright star guided them to their Lord and Saviour Jesus the Christ. I ask you this night to come to Me, your Heavenly Mother and allow me to be the bright heavenly star which guides you back home to my Son Jesus. Do not dismiss the signs you are given but know that they are given to you for a purpose. The signs are given to help you to come back on the narrow path. As we come close to the celebration of the birth of my Son Jesus I ask you to take time to really prepare yourself for the Christmas season and for the graces and blessings you will receive. Do not stay distant and observe from afar but be like the shepherds – come close and adore on bended knee your Lord and God. Bring others with you, bring them in your prayers and know that your Heavenly family will hear your prayers offer with a humble heart and will guide and protect those people you bring in your prayers. Reach out in love and let others know the love of my Son through your love and caring actions towards all those you meet. I know it is difficult but I want you to trust completely and look to Me your guiding star and believe that you do not have to be worried about anything because I want to, as your Heavenly Mother, look after you and all your needs. Give humble thanks for all the gifts you have been given and I want you to ask for Jesus to come into your heart so you can be united in the love of your Eternal Father through His Son Jesus in the gifts and graces of the Holy Spirit.

9th December 2005 (Night Prayer with Wollongong ladies)

Pray for guidance through the intercession of the angels and saints. The Eternal Father gave you these gifts of love so do not be afraid to use them in your prayers to help you in your needs. The Father sends you many graces to help you to grow deeper in your faith. I want you to remember that the saints were just like you, every day people who took up the challenge to fight the fight in their love of their Eternal Father through His Son Jesus. They were passionate and persevering in their faith and did not give up when they were faced with many trials. Will you take up the Light. He was a wonderful example of someone who trusted the Father completely and who humbly prepared the way for His Lord and Saviour. I want you to imitate John the Baptist and once more prepare the way for the coming of my Son Jesus into the lives of those who have strayed from the path or who have never experienced the love of the Eternal Father through my Son Jesus in the love outpoured by the Holy Spirit. I want you to know that you are not alone. I walk close beside you and will guide and help you. Turn to me and pray for my guidance and I will lead you in all that you do. Be peaceful with a heart full of joy with the complete knowledge that you are loved by your Heavenly family.

24th December 2005 (Night Prayer)

As you contemplate this night on the birth of my Son Jesus I ask you to truly meditate on His humble entry into the world. Your Lord and God was born in a stable where the animals were kept. Take on the innocence of a baby and trust completely in your Heavenly Mother's guiding hand in your life. Do not worry but always have complete trust. I want you to reach out in faith to many people who will be put in your path. Do not question and doubt what is happening but walk the path with blind faith and believe that you will be guided every step of the way. Time is short and the need for people to change and turn back to their Heavenly Father is urgent. Many people pursue all the wrong things which lead to nowhere. I ask you to reach out and show compassion and love to those who come your way. Be gentle and caring and be there for them in all their hurts. Stay close to your Heavenly family in your prayers and receive the Sacraments often. Gain strength and courage and do not be concerned with those who do not believe. There will come a time soon when the Eternal Father's children will no longer be able to sit back but will need to choose between right and wrong, between the path that leads to their Heavenly Inheritance or the path to perdition. You will help many by your compassion and love but in the end it will be up to them to make their choices. The Eternal Father gave all free will so that they could make their own choices in life. Many have not chosen wisely and at the moment are so distant from the love of the Eternal Father. At this time of celebration I ask you to pray fervently for peace in families and in this world of conflict and most of all I want you to keep the Prince of Peace in your heart and spread his love and peace to others.

25th December 2005 (Night Prayer)

Be not afraid, I go before you always, come follow me and I will give you strength. I am your guiding light. I am the Immaculate Conception. The Eternal Father has given me special graces so that I, as your Mother, can guide and help you. I ask you to stay centred in the truth of the light, my Son Jesus the Christ. I am your guiding light and I will lead you to the light heart. Become small and always put the focus on the Eternal Father. All honour and glory to you Father forever and ever. The Father hears prayers give to Him humbly and they are used for the good of mankind. Do not pray with a hidden agenda. Do not pray to win points in your Father's eyes, instead pray humbly for all your needs with complete trust that the Eternal Father hears your prayers and will look after you. I ask you to examine your conscience in areas where you want to be praised and are looking to be given the glory and begin to change these patterns. The Eternal Father wants you to peel back the layers of childhood patterning and begin to trust in His Divine Will and trust that He has a love for you beyond any earthly comparison. He is full of mercy and compassion and peels back all the layers gently so that your heart will change and your motives will become more pure and loving. Pray often for the inspiration you need from the Holy Spirit to be given to you to help you recognize the areas of your life which need to be changed. Do not despair if on occasions you fall back into the old habits of dealing with situations. Pray always that you will recognize the old patterning sooner so that you can return to the new life that the Eternal Father has planned for you. Pray also for others in your family and friends to realize when they use childhood patterns to deal with situations to be given the graces they need to change their ways and begin to put their Heavenly Father first and then reach out to others in love with a true humility of heart. I ask you to be a humble servant of Divine Love.

23rd December 2005 (Night Prayer)

Be courageous to step out in faith and trust completely. Do not concern yourself with any persecution but know that you will be guided and looked after by your Heavenly family. It is important to let my message of love and hope be known to others so that they can come back to their Father in Heaven and they can also encourage others to know the love the Father has for all His children. Do not be afraid of what is to come but always carry peace and joy in your hearts. Carry my Son Jesus the Christ with you and be a shining beacon of light for others. The world has lost its way and more than ever needs these beacons of light to guide them back onto the narrow path. I want you to join with the disciples of light all over the world and bring many back to the truth and to the knowledge of the need for God's people to recognize the love their Father has for them and the need for them to put Him first in their lives. Be courageous enough to step out and do this work of guiding many souls back to their rightful place. Do not worry what others say but ask for the Holy Spirit to guide and strengthen you and ask for the graces you need so that you may have the courage and strength needed for the work of reaching out in love to others. Take heart from the saints who have gone before you. Especially take heart from St. John the Baptist who courageously stepped out in faith and brought so many to the truth of the challenge this night and be my warriors of faith? Will you step out in faith and trust completely in your Heavenly family and begin the work of fighting for a new Heaven and a new earth? Be my prayer army and offer me many prayers and acts of self sacrifice. Pray often for my intentions and begin to realize that together united in prayer we are a formidable army and we will defeat Satan and his wickedness. Pray for the courage and strength you need to stay close to my Immaculate Heart in this battle of the triumph of my Immaculate Heart and the Sacred Heart of Jesus united as one for the redemption of the world. I need you to commit to helping me by your daily prayers and acts of self denial and by your selfless acts of reaching out in love to others. Do not be afraid, you are precious to me and I will help you in your journey. Bring those difficulties you are experiencing to me and know that I am always listening and guiding you to my Son Jesus. Accept the love He longs to give you. He sees your sufferings and uses all offered to Him in the triumph of His most Sacred Heart. Go home refreshed and replenished in readiness to continue your work of love which is used for the salvation of many souls. Take our peace love and joy with you and spread it to others.

10th December 2005 (Night Prayer)

It is most important that you include me in every part of your day. Include me in your busyness and I will guide you. Take time in your day to pray and reflect on all the graces and blessings the Eternal Father has showered upon you. I want you to realize that these graces do not happen by chance but are ordained by your Father in Heaven. Thank Him every day for all He gives you. Be grateful that you have a comfortable bed to sleep in and food on your table. Do not take for granted the beauty of nature around you, instead be thankful. How often do you think to thank your Heavenly Father for a beautiful sunset or for the flowers in your garden? Open your eyes to the wonders the Father puts before you every day. The people of the world lead their lives at such a fast pace that they have forgotten to see the little things in life. I want you to live each day to the full and see the beauty in every day things. Do not be in such a hurry that you pass them by. Turn back and put your life in right order. Put your Father in Heaven first and acknowledge and thank Him in every part of your day. Even when you experience trials realize that you will learn and grow stronger from the trials you face. These trials build you spiritually and you come even closer to your Heavenly family through offering your suffering for the good of others. As we approach the Christmas season I want you to think more about the true celebration and less about the materialism and fast pace of the world. Slow down. Let go and let God. Change your heart this Christmas to think more about the graces you receive when you come close to my Son Jesus and also when you reach out in love to all you meet. Begin now to give back to the Father your love by your Christ-like actions to your family and friends and help in the work of the salvation of souls. Pray especially in this great time of grace for your loved ones to open their hearts again to the love of my Son Jesus in the graces given to them by their Heavenly Father through the Holy Spirit poured out upon them.

11th December 2005 (Night Prayer)

My child,

Prepare well for the time ahead. Gain strength by spending extra time in prayers and stay close to your Heavenly family. Try not to get distracted by worldly concerns. I need you to stay focussed on the work the Father wants you to undertake. I ask you to help in the salvation of souls. Be gentle and humble of heart and do not try and justify when people are critical. I ask you to turn the other cheek and try not to dwell on any negativeness you may hear. Focus instead on the many graces and blessings you receive and offer these trials up in self sacrifice to help in the salvation of souls. Do not worry when you are judged harshly by your fellow man, just know that the only judgement you need concern yourself with is from your Eternal Father. I ask you to pray every day for courage and strength to help you when you are doing the Eternal Father's work. Remember that you are the stepping stone in another person's faith journey. Spend time listening to others and where possible kneel and pray with them. Many of God's people have forgotten how to pray. They no longer realize the importance of including their Heavenly Father in their day. They are like ships without rudders drifting in an ocean of despair. They need your guidance to steer them back on the right course. They need you to be a lighthouse beaming out the light of Christ for them. Be gentle with people and always try and meet them where they are in their faith journey. Take it slowly and ask your Heavenly family to guide and help you with each person that your Eternal Father puts in your path. Do not rush ahead but have patience and know that your work of reaching out in love to others will help in the redemption of many. Go on with peace and joy in your heart. Do not be disturbed by others.

12th December 2005 (Night Prayer)

Look to the Heavens above and know that the light of Christ streams down upon those who ask for His grace. Accept the warmth and love and be guided by the light. My Son Jesus longs to come close to you and fill you completely with His love so it may flow out to others. I want you to be the lamps of Christ. Let the light burn brightly and stream out of you to your fellow man. Do not be afraid to accept this challenge to be a carrier of the light. Step out like the Apostles and do this much needed work. I ask you to change your hearts and learn to radiate warmth and love to others.

included in all of the coming day. It is important that you listen to the advice you are given as this is the only way that you will stay on the narrow path. Stay peaceful and remember when you receive my Son Jesus you are united as one. He stays with you so turn to Him and keep Him near. If you are distracted during your day do not be hard on yourself but return to the peace and love of your Lord and Saviour and continue the work of reaching out in love to all those who are put in your path. Take the peace and joy out to many who do not know the love that the Father has for them. Be my messengers of peace and love.

19th December 2005 (Night Prayer)

All glory and praise be given to the Eternal Father for all that was, all that is and all that will be, may His kingdom come, may peace reign on earth forever. I want you to join with the angels and saints and sing the praises of your Heavenly Father. I ask you to open your eyes and experience the wonder and awe for all you have been given. Realize the precious gift He has given all mankind – the gift of His only Son Jesus the Christ. Jesus died and rose again for all to experience redemption. Do not turn your back on this precious gift you have been given but accept Jesus into your life as your Lord and Saviour. I want you to live the new life that you have been promised. Turn away from sin and come back close to your Heavenly family. Accept the love and forgiveness this Christmas season which is waiting to be poured into your heart. I ask you to trust completely in the love, compassion and mercy the Eternal Father has for you. Do not remain distant and so alone, instead accept the gifts and graces which await you in abundance. I am your Heavenly Mother and I am with you. I understand your sadness and enormous pressures you experience. Share all of these moments with me and let Me bring you the comfort and compassion you need. I want you to experience this year the true meaning of Christmas – the love that your Heavenly family have for you and then you in turn reach out and give that gift of love to all your family and friends. Do not be afraid to step out and show others true love and acceptance and help your Heavenly Father come closer to His desire for a new Heaven and a new earth for all of mankind. I will walk close beside you, so include Me, your Mother, in all of your moments of life.

20th December 2005 (Morning Prayer Jesus in front of tabernacle)

My child,

If only my children would realize the deep love and compassion I hold in my heart for every one of them they would not turn away from Me but would want to stay close to receive this love which awaits them. Spread my words of love to all those children who remain distant. Reach out to them and bring them back close once again. I want you to learn how to trust disciplined in your prayer time. Persevere when you feel alone. Practice patience and trust completely in the Eternal Father. I want you to believe with all your heart that you are guided in all you do. Ask in your prayers to be filled with the Holy Spirit. Listen well to the inspiration given to you. Pray first in all you undertake and do not rush ahead of God's plan. Be gentle of spirit and always stay peaceful and accepting of all which happens in your life. I ask you again to include your Heavenly family into all of your life; when you experience trials pray for guidance. In times of rejoicing give thanks to your Heavenly Father. Put the love of the Eternal Father first in your life and all will be added onto you. I ask you to never seek self recognition and praise but stay humble of heart and always place all for the glory of the Eternal Father. Do not worry how others will judge you, know that the work you undertake is important and will help many to return to the knowledge of the truth in their lives. The truth which is the love the Eternal Father has for all His children, through my Son Jesus the Christ in the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Use all the gifts you have been given by the Father wisely and always reach out in love and compassion to your fellow man and help in the redemption of mankind. I ask you to carry the peace and joy of Christ out to all God's children.

18th December 2005 (Night Prayer)

Bring me all your little distractions and I will take them to the Father, for He knows your heart and He knows that you always try to do His Divine Will. I ask you to pray each day that you will be guided by the Holy Spirit to do the Will of your Heavenly Father. I ask you to stay centred on your Heavenly family. I also ask that you reach out in love and compassion to those who you have been asked to help. Offer any little trials up for the Father to use. Stay close to me, your Mother for guidance. I understand how difficult it is when you have so many areas to spread yourself between. Do not try and do everything yourself. Ask for help. Include you Heavenly family into all of your problems and ask for the help you need. Try to be disciplined and set time aside for all you need to do. It is most important that you still maintain your prayer time and also time to be still with your Lord and Saviour. Do not be afraid to ask Him for His help and guidance. Do not stay silent and hold all your worries inside. Confide in my Son Jesus and believe that He will send you the help you need. Every step of your journey should be undertaken with your Heavenly family close by so when you begin your day remember to pray to me, your Mother and to the Blessed Trinity to be

22nd December 2005 (Night Prayer)

Pray fervently for the virtue of humility. I ask you to always have a humble Include my Son Jesus in everything you do. Spread His word of love and compassion to those who have lost their way and are stumbling in the darkness. I ask you to shine brightly for others to see their way back onto the path. To be a shining light takes courage and commitment. It requires that you are steeped in prayer and stay close to my Son Jesus by reading the Scriptures, by reception of the Sacraments and by your prayer time. Are you willing to take up this challenge of faith? I am your guiding star and I will lead you to my Son Jesus who is the light come into the world. Ask for my help and trust completely that I will be close by you to be your guide. The journey of faith requires you to trust completely in your Eternal Father and the gifts and graces He wants to bestow upon those who have an open heart. Do not stay closed and afraid but step out in faith this night and trust your Lord and God in every part of your life. I ask you to burn brightly this Christmas so that others will come close and begin their journey once more back onto the narrow path towards the love of their Eternal Father through my Son Jesus in the graces poured out by the Holy Spirit.

13th December 2005 (Jesus in front of tabernacle morning prayer)

My child,

My love for you is endless. It is more than the specks of sand on the seashore. I long for you to come close to Me and ask for all you need. Do not stay distant because of your hurts but turn to Me, your Lord and God and include Me in these hurts. Ask Me to heal your heart and trust completely in My Divine Will in your life. I want to use you to help others. Through your brokenness you understand what others who are hurting carry inside. I ask you to trust, trust, trust. Receive My love and let it flow out through you to My hurting people. I do not want to see you suffer. I am with you in your suffering. Offer it all back to your Heavenly Father to be used to help others. Try to be joyful and accepting of the many graces and blessings which are given to you. Do not dismiss or overlook even the smallest blessing instead give humble thanks for all you have been given. The life challenges which come your way will help you to grow as a person. Recognize them as a challenge and not as a burden and include Me into each and every one of these challenges and realize that nothing is too difficult when we handle it together. The path is narrow but it can be filled with love, peace and joy when we open our eyes to the wonders the Eternal Father has given us. Take pleasure in the simple things in life. Do not be overwhelmed by the worries and demands of the world. Go back to leading a simple life. Live a life where sharing with others the peace, joy and love of your Eternal Father, through Me, your Lord and Saviour, in the love of the Holy Spirit is more important to you than worldly possessions. Teach others to find joy in the beauty of nature and in spending time together. Overcome your family disagreements and always be the first to forgive and forget grievances done to you by others. I am with you and I will love and protect you, so come close to Me and ask for my love and receive it with a humble and contrite heart. Be renewed this Christmas season and once again put your Eternal Father first and reach out in love to all those who are put in your path.

13th December 2005 (Night Prayer)

Do not waste any opportunity to receive the graces offered to you by your Heavenly Father. Receive the nourishment of sanctifying grace often in the Sacraments. Gain strength for your spiritual journey by the reception of grace. Pray that the graces given to you in confirmation may be replenished. Empty yourself of those burdens which you hang onto so that you can be filled completely with grace. Let the grace flow out through you to those people you meet on your journey. Spend quiet time in contemplation so that you can be replenished for the work you will be undertaking. Do not be concerned but make the most of the time you can spend in prayer. Let my Son Jesus the Christ speak into your heart. Read the Scriptures and hear the words He wants to say to you. Take time for spiritual reading as this will help you to understand more deeply the journey of the saints. Let them be an example to you. Imitate them. Take up the challenge to be a living saint by your love and by your humility. Do good deeds not for your personal glory but always for the glory of God. Do the work of your Eternal Father in a quiet humble way and always guide the people towards the love, mercy and compassion that the Eternal Father has for them through my Son Jesus in the Holy Spirit of Love. Many people have forgotten the deep love that their Heavenly Father has for them. Pray daily for the conversion of many hearts. Pray that God's people will change their hearts from one of selfishness and self centeredness to an open heart which always put their Eternal Father first and reaches out always in love and compassion to others. Always carry the peace and love of Jesus the Christ with you so you can share it with others.

14th December 2005 (Jesus in front of tabernacle night prayer New Norcia)

Take time out to spend in quiet solitude to replenish you for your journey. Do not fill your lives so much that you have no room to be still. Be still and know that I, your Lord and Saviour am close to you. Let me shower you with my love and mercy. Do not run from Me but come close and put your complete trust in Me and I will guide you to the immense love your Eternal Father has for you. Your Heavenly Father knew you even before you were born and wants you to turn to Him in every part of your life and trust Him completely. Why do you remain distant? If only you knew the love and blessings that your Heavenly Father wants to bestow upon you, you would run into His arms. I am with you always; I walk the walk with you. In your sorrows I am there to comfort and hold you. In your trials I unite my cross to yours. In your joy I rejoice with you. Do not stay distant and alone. I ask you to include your Heavenly family into your life. Open your eyes and your hearts to the graces you have been given. Give thanks and ask for the Father to pour His graces into your heart. The Father sent Me as a gift to you so that you would have life anew. Do not turn away from this most precious gift He has given you, instead come close to Me often. Receive Me in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. Spend quiet time with Me and together we will walk the journey of life towards your Heavenly Inheritance. I, your Lord and Saviour, send the blessings of the Father down upon you this night through the gifts and graces of the Holy Spirit. Remember to give humble thanks and continue the work of reaching out in love to others.

15th December 2005 (Night Prayer in New Norcia with Joseph (refugee from Sri Lanka))

Be patient in your trials and never loose your faith but know that I your Mother am always close by you and I want to guide and protect you in every part of your life. Do not fear stepping out into the unknown but trust completely that your Eternal Father will look after all your needs. He loves you with a love which has no earthly comparison. He understands how difficult your journey has been and he thanks you for your faithfulness. Come close now and ask for all your needs and know that He hears and answers all your prayers. Do not be concerned if you feel your prayers are not being answered but I ask you to pray to the Holy Spirit for perseverance and patience and trust that your Heavenly Father will give you all your needs. Trust always in His Divine Will in your life and remember to stay close to my Son Jesus. The Father gave you His Son Jesus in His death and resurrection so you would have new life. Do not stay distant from this precious gift given to all mankind. I ask you to receive my Son Jesus as often as you can in Holy Communion and be united in your joys and sufferings with your Lord and Saviour. Spend time with Him as often as you can in prayers and read the Scriptures so that you can deepen your commitment to the love of the Father through Jesus His Son in the gift of the Holy Spirit. I, your Mother care about you and your concerns and I want you to know that I am close by to help and guide you. Bring your family close to me and know that I will place them under the protection of my Holy Mantle. Be joyful this Christmas and carry the peace and joy of the infant Jesus out to all those you meet. Know that I will be with you always.

17th December 2005 (Night Prayer)

I ask you to come close by reading the Scriptures every day. Learn the lessons well, as the Holy Word of God will help you in every part of your life. Be steeped in prayer and also in your knowledge of the Holy Scriptures. I want you to use the time you have been given wisely. Be prepared. Be
